Webster's defines the word FOCUS as — Adjustment into a clear image: Position into which something must be placed for clarity of perception: direction: directed attention: emphasis: a problem resolved into a clear image. Canyon new administration, Dr. Fox, Mr. Dokos and Mrs. Ousley, came to us from different schools within our district through a standard policy of rotation. It is unusual to have three new key people come to a campus at one time, but that's what happened here and CHS has, indeed, taken on a new FOCUS.

Yes, it was a great year for a new focus — a positive outlook for everyone. Students and staff working together. We were a part of it all — here to receive an education and thereafter contribute our part to society.

1. Teachers show the students how it should be done. 2. Dr. Fox, our new Big Man On Campus. 3. An elated Ray Shull is congratulated after another touchdown. 4. Flash those pearly whites Amy!

The guidelines of conduct that have governed us during this year were tougher than ever before. The rules were always there, but the time had come for all of us to start better fulfilling our responsibilities. As students and citizens alike it was a remembrance of the discipline our parents faced when they were growing up. Well, did they turn out so bad? We also discovered that abiding by the newly set boundries wasn't that bad. When was the last time you looked at our cleaner campus, brighter classrooms, and most importantly, a new spirit of pride in being at CHS.

We have to do things just like the GOOD 'OL DAZE! K?!!

Hmm... I think I'm taking up a lot of room, but what are friends for!! We will go to Magic Mountain this summer (hopefully)!! How long have we been planning this?? About a year now! Well, this year, wasn't the best for me, but I guess I can't complain that much, cuz It wasn't that bad! Well, I hope you have a good summer and I also hope you and KRIS stay together forever and [redacted]ever and get your matching Mercedes (white) remember that?! Well, I seem to be running out of room. Love ya! Ronnie — or as you like to say — Rono Bono! ☺!

THE BIG HELLO

Quote: "The D.J. was cool. I had a blast." Paula Shea.

On Friday, September 13, the Pep Squad hosted the Annual "Hi" Dance for Canyon High School. The cafeteria was the setting for the dance and was decked out with posters and steamers. The D.J. played his best records as everyone rapped to the music. Commanches from all three classes were there to rock out. Sophomores came to meet new friends and perhaps get a chance to dance with that gorgeous hunk they'd been staring at all week. Juniors were present and accounted for only to gossip and dance until they dropped. Now Seniors — this is their year to make it happen, they came with the intentions to rule the floor; dance till all hours; and sweep their dream date off his or her feet. All in all, the dance was a success; everything went smoothly. The sophomores were pleased, having danced with the "hunk," all juniors had expressed an extensive amount of gossip and danced enough. Last but not least, the seniors, established who would dance with who and when. In fact, who was the boss! It was a great night that contradicted the superstitions of Friday the 13th.

This year's Spirit Week was one to remember. The school pride that passed through the halls could be seen, heard and felt by every student. The week started off with class meetings at lunch on Monday. On Tuesday things started rolling with Disney day. All the classes participated by wearing Mickey Mouse shirts, hats, etc. . . . or costumes of their favorite characters. College day was held on Wednesday. One of the week's biggest turnouts, students wore clothes that advertised their favorite college. Wednesday night was Penquins night for the kids at Canyon High. There was a yogurt eating contest between all of the classes. Thursday was Comanche pride day, which was shown by all students wearing brown and gold. There was a pep assembly and the big game against Villa Park to look forward to this day. Back in time day followed on Friday. The Seniors dressed in the sixty's fashion, Juniors wore clothes from the twenty's and the Sophomores were decked out with the fifty's style. All in all it was a fun filled week, enjoyed by all.

RIVALS RITUALS AND ROSES

Once upon a time in the Canyon of the Comanches there were five Indian princesses, all awaiting the traditional ceremony of the crowning of the new chief princess! On this night the honorable fathers escort their young princesses to this exciting ritual of choosing the most appropriate squaw of the tribe. Comanches from past tribes came to take part in this ceremony. As the princesses, Amy Moon Glow, Shannon Rising Star, Jeni Sun Flower, Kristen Pearl Feather, Maggie Blue Moon, arrived on horseback (shiney new corvettes). All the Comanches gave a cry of joy! Then came the big moment, there was a drum roll as the tribal council announced Shannon Rising Star as the tribe's new chief princess.

Quote: "It was one of the most exciting moments of my life!"

The happiness showed on Rising Star's face as they placed the crown on her head and the robe around her shoulders. All at once the cry of war was heard again as one of the braves yelled it's the "Spartans" everyone in their positions as the Comanche quarterback called his first play and shot his first arrow and there it was the beginning of the second attack! Soon it was all over the Comanches fought long and hard but failed to make this battle a Victory!

C.H.S. ON THE WAR PATH

Quote: It was a hard hitting and intense game we did our best. Chuck Zacour.

The Villa Park Spartans had one of those games where nearly everything they tried worked to perfection. As for our side, things did not go quite as well, Villa Park defeated Canyon 35-13. As if it was not disappointing enough to lose to the Spartans, who are Canyons biggest rivals, it was also Canyon's Homecoming game. The Comanches did not play that bad, it was just the fact that they did not get any breaks. Big plays by the Spartans are what defeated the Comanches, including two long runs of 80 and 86 yards for touchdowns and a 60 yard interception return for a touchdown. Plays like this kept Canyon out of the game. Comanche highlights were a two yard run by Ray Shull for Canyon's first touchdown, a 20-yard touchdown pass from Quarterback Todd French to Brett Hatz. Todd French also passed for 252 yards in the game which broke David Haneman's single season passing mark of 1471 yards set in 1983. But there's always another year and as Indian tradition tells us that even defeat must be accepted with grace, sportsmanship, and valor.

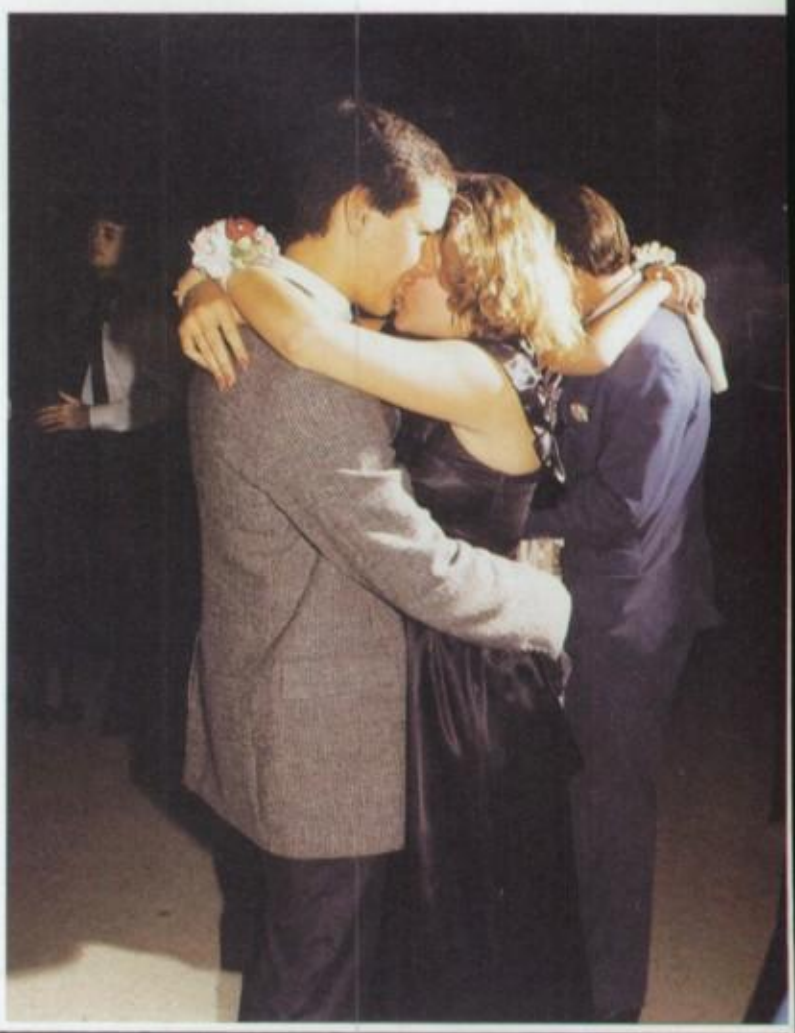
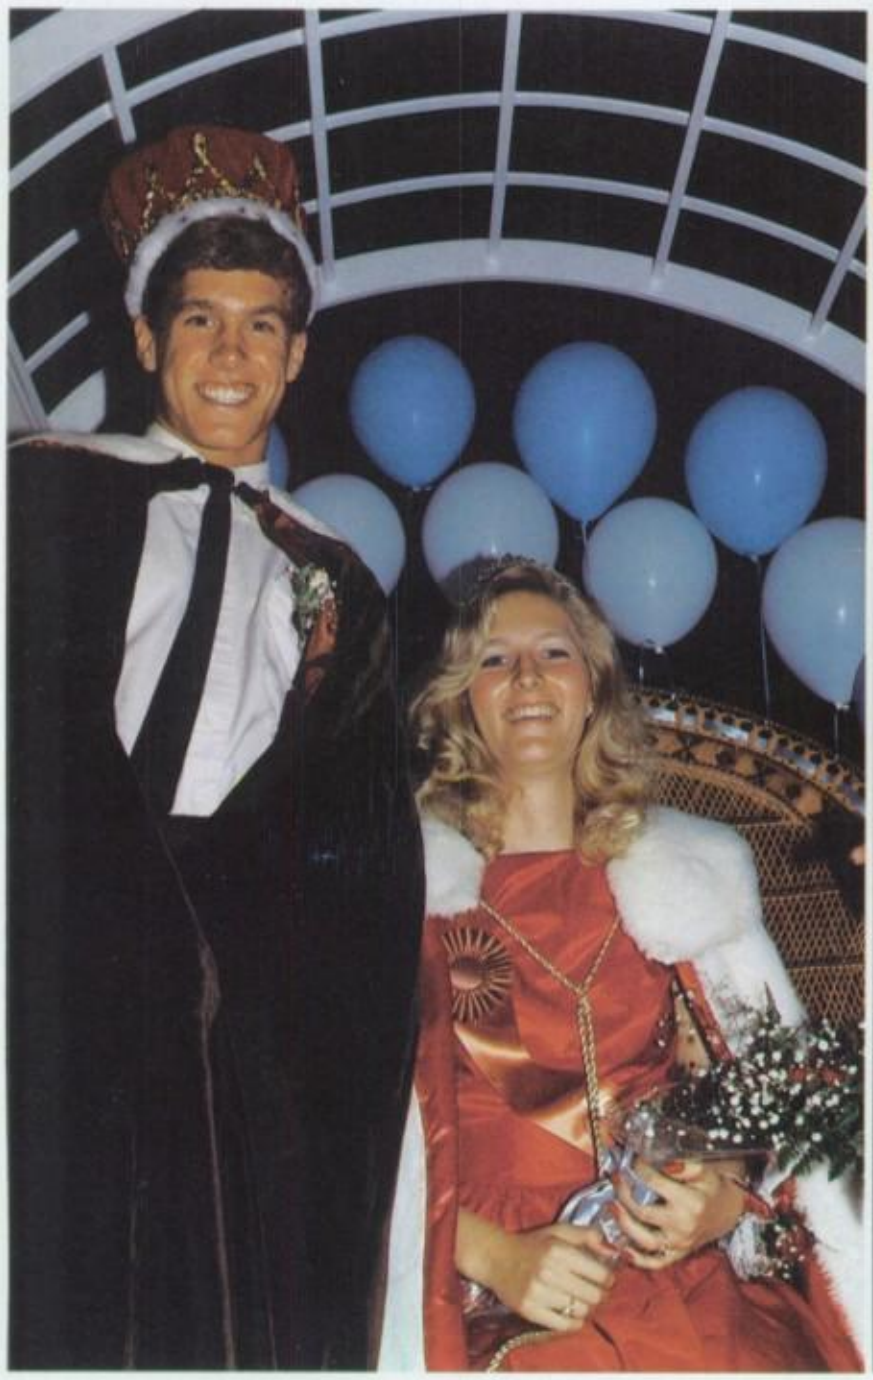
GOIN' BACK IN TIME





I had a rippin time!
Kerry Jones

On the night of October 26th, 1985 the Homecoming Dance was held in Canyon's cafeteria. The cafeteria was decorated in baby blue, black, and white. Everyone came dressed in spiffy clothes! The music played loud as the dancing couples covered the floor. Around ten o'clock, the big moment came at least for the guys on the court, the crowning of the king. The court consisting of Todd French, Brett Hatz, Richard Hermann, Mark Bowman, and Clark Cressman all were presented on stage. They all smiled with happiness as the 1985 king Brett Hatz was announced. Then came the courts dance which was to the theme ST. ELMO'S FIRE. As the clock struck eleven thirty the dance came to an end. Couples searched for their names which hung on the wall and said goodbye to friends. Everyone was sad to see the night come to an end!

One, two, three, WOW! Pep tryouts are starting now. Five, six, seven, eight — This is a most important date! One, two, three, kick! I wonder who the judges will pick. Five, six, seven, eight — I wish that I could kick like Kate. One, two, three, switch! My aching muscles start to twitch. Five, sick, seven, eight — Keep that beat, don't switch too late. One, two, three, turn! My muscles ache and knot and burn. Five, six, seven, eight — I'm afraid this isn't goin too great. One, two, three, smile! I'm about to collapse into a pile. Five, six, seven, eight — There's no time to meditate. One, two, three, bend! To be on a pep squad is what I intend. Five, six, seven, eight — I'm sure I must have lost some weight. One, two, three, step! Cheering takes a lot of pep. Five, six, seven, eight — Soon I'll find out how I rate. Kick switch, turn, smile! Tried to give my cheer some style. Step, bend, toes straight! I made it now let's celebrate!

As the 1985-86 Pep Squad kicked off the year the Canyon Comanches lead us to our first victory of the season. Some people may think being a cheerleader is all fun and games well that's half right. Cheerleading takes a lot of time, creativity and of course Pep! Cheerleading includes hardworking inside and outside of school. There's practicing cheers for the games, making posters for all kinds of events and then practice formations for the pep rallies. The time spent outside of school is devoted to making goodie bags for the players, and going to send offs for all the sports events. The time and dedication is all well paid off by the fun and excitement that is enjoyed throughout the year!

This year's ASB Cabinet was a diverse group of individuals who came together to have a very successful year. Through programs like Birthday recognition, activities calendars for new students, faculty appreciation events and trivia competition, the cabinet attempted to reach out to the whole student body and faculty. Each cabinet member had goals to accomplish and had to keep on target. The Cabinet directed our Homecoming ceremony and dance and sponsored the most successful Lip Sync Contest ever held at CHS. With the Club Carnival, Dating Game, Spirit Week, and other events Canyon was treated to a top quality student activities program. The Cabinet created an atmosphere of fun and involvement for everyone! Way to go leaders!

WE'RE PUTT'N ON THE HITS

On Wednesday December 4th there was a Lip Sync contest held in the Canyon cafeteria. The contest consisted of 12 groups, all competeing for 1st prize of $150 in cash. There were different types of music varying from 50's and 70's music to hard rock and the new wave music of the 80's. The biggest crowd ever, showed up at the annual Lip Sync to cheer on their favorite groups. After all the musical groups showed their stuff, which in my opinion was pretty "HOT!" Oingo Boingo, consisting of Steve Chough, Richard Hermann, Randy Schwartz, Farouc Jaffer, Lee Luderman, Fritz Demopolus, Dan Chapman and Matt Tucker were the 1st place winners. The Lip Sync was such a huge success, that another one was held later in the year.

HUGS NOT DRUGS

You are the most important person in your life. You need to be able to feel good about yourself. Don't do, or be pressured into doing anything that will make you feel worse about yourself, for having done it. We learned, we listened, we heard, and we began to love each other. It all started with just a handful of stars. Beautiful people from a nationwide organization that is deeply commited to the belief that each of us is our best resource, but by the end of the long weekend the CHS shy was ablaze with a multitude of new stars. The program which is founded by CASA (Community Against Substance Abuse) began early Saturday morning, went on through Sunday evening to commence in a T-shirt and awards ceremony. During those many hours, barriers were broken, personal inhibitions and self destructive behavior confronted, and deep seated hurts and hatreds exposed.

There was also so much love gathered and given out during this long weekend, that 207 Comanches and 61 jr. high students from Vista and El Rancho became a new and very special family together — complete with secrets shared, tears released, and lots and lots of sensitive and heart felt hugs freely given and taken.

Stan, "the man with the master plan" certainly knew what he was talking about. Sessions in goal setting and action planning left each other new Canyon all stars with a very definite and positive feeling of a new family — the students and the teachers that participated, all proudly wore them the next Monday morning to school. You can't buy them, you have to earn them. We did and it was a very meaningful investment in that one, the most important person in our life — ourselves!!

ACTIVE STUDENT BODY

ACTIVITIES

This year's A.S.B. cabinet was involved in many activities around the CHS campus. Not only did they bring together Canyon's campus, but they also got involved with other cabinets from different schools. They a cabinet exchange with Brea Linda and invited them to our Pep assembly. Our ASB cabinet was invited to join the South Torrance School. While they were there they made many new friends. They keep in touch with them and let each other know what's going on at school. When asked what they think of ASB, they replied "It was a great and rewarding experience something I will never forget."

Bachelors included: John Williams, Frank Garrido, Bill Kallay, and our male winner Mike Craig. Four games were played altogether hosted by Jeff McClure. Hope to have another success next year!

Yes, another successful toga day! This graduating class of '86 doesn't mess around when it comes to dressing in their Roman attire. Considering only seniors were allowed to participate, any stranger passing through may have confused ancient Greece with Canyon campus Activities carried on all through the day starting with early morning caravans to certain homes where Seniors didn't waste anytime getting started. A tradition passed down from generations of Seniors. Chariot rides were given, and a slave auction at lunch where juniors were bought and sold for the day. The highest bid was Denise La Brenz for $22 bought by Team Bush and other slaves fed and fanned Roman Seniors for the rest of lunch. An 86Q lunch was also offered including a greasy hamburger, mashed baked beans cornless cob and a yummy cookie! Copy by Suzi Sala and Jayme Budd

SLEIGH BELLS RINGING

Quote: It was fun, It got me into the holiday spirit.
By Valerie Smith.

To start the Christmas fun off, Canyon held a Christmas dance. It was decorated as a winter wonderland, with red and green light's and a touch of Canyon's very own Christmas spirit. Student's came dressed in red and green attire. They had a decorative back ground for pictures, with fake snow, skis and a white little bench. There was a dance competition and everyone gathered round to watch the "Freakers" freak, the "Rockers" rock and The "Rappers" rap. The most crowd response was for the freakers! Many student's joined in for lot's of fun to start off their Christmas vacation!

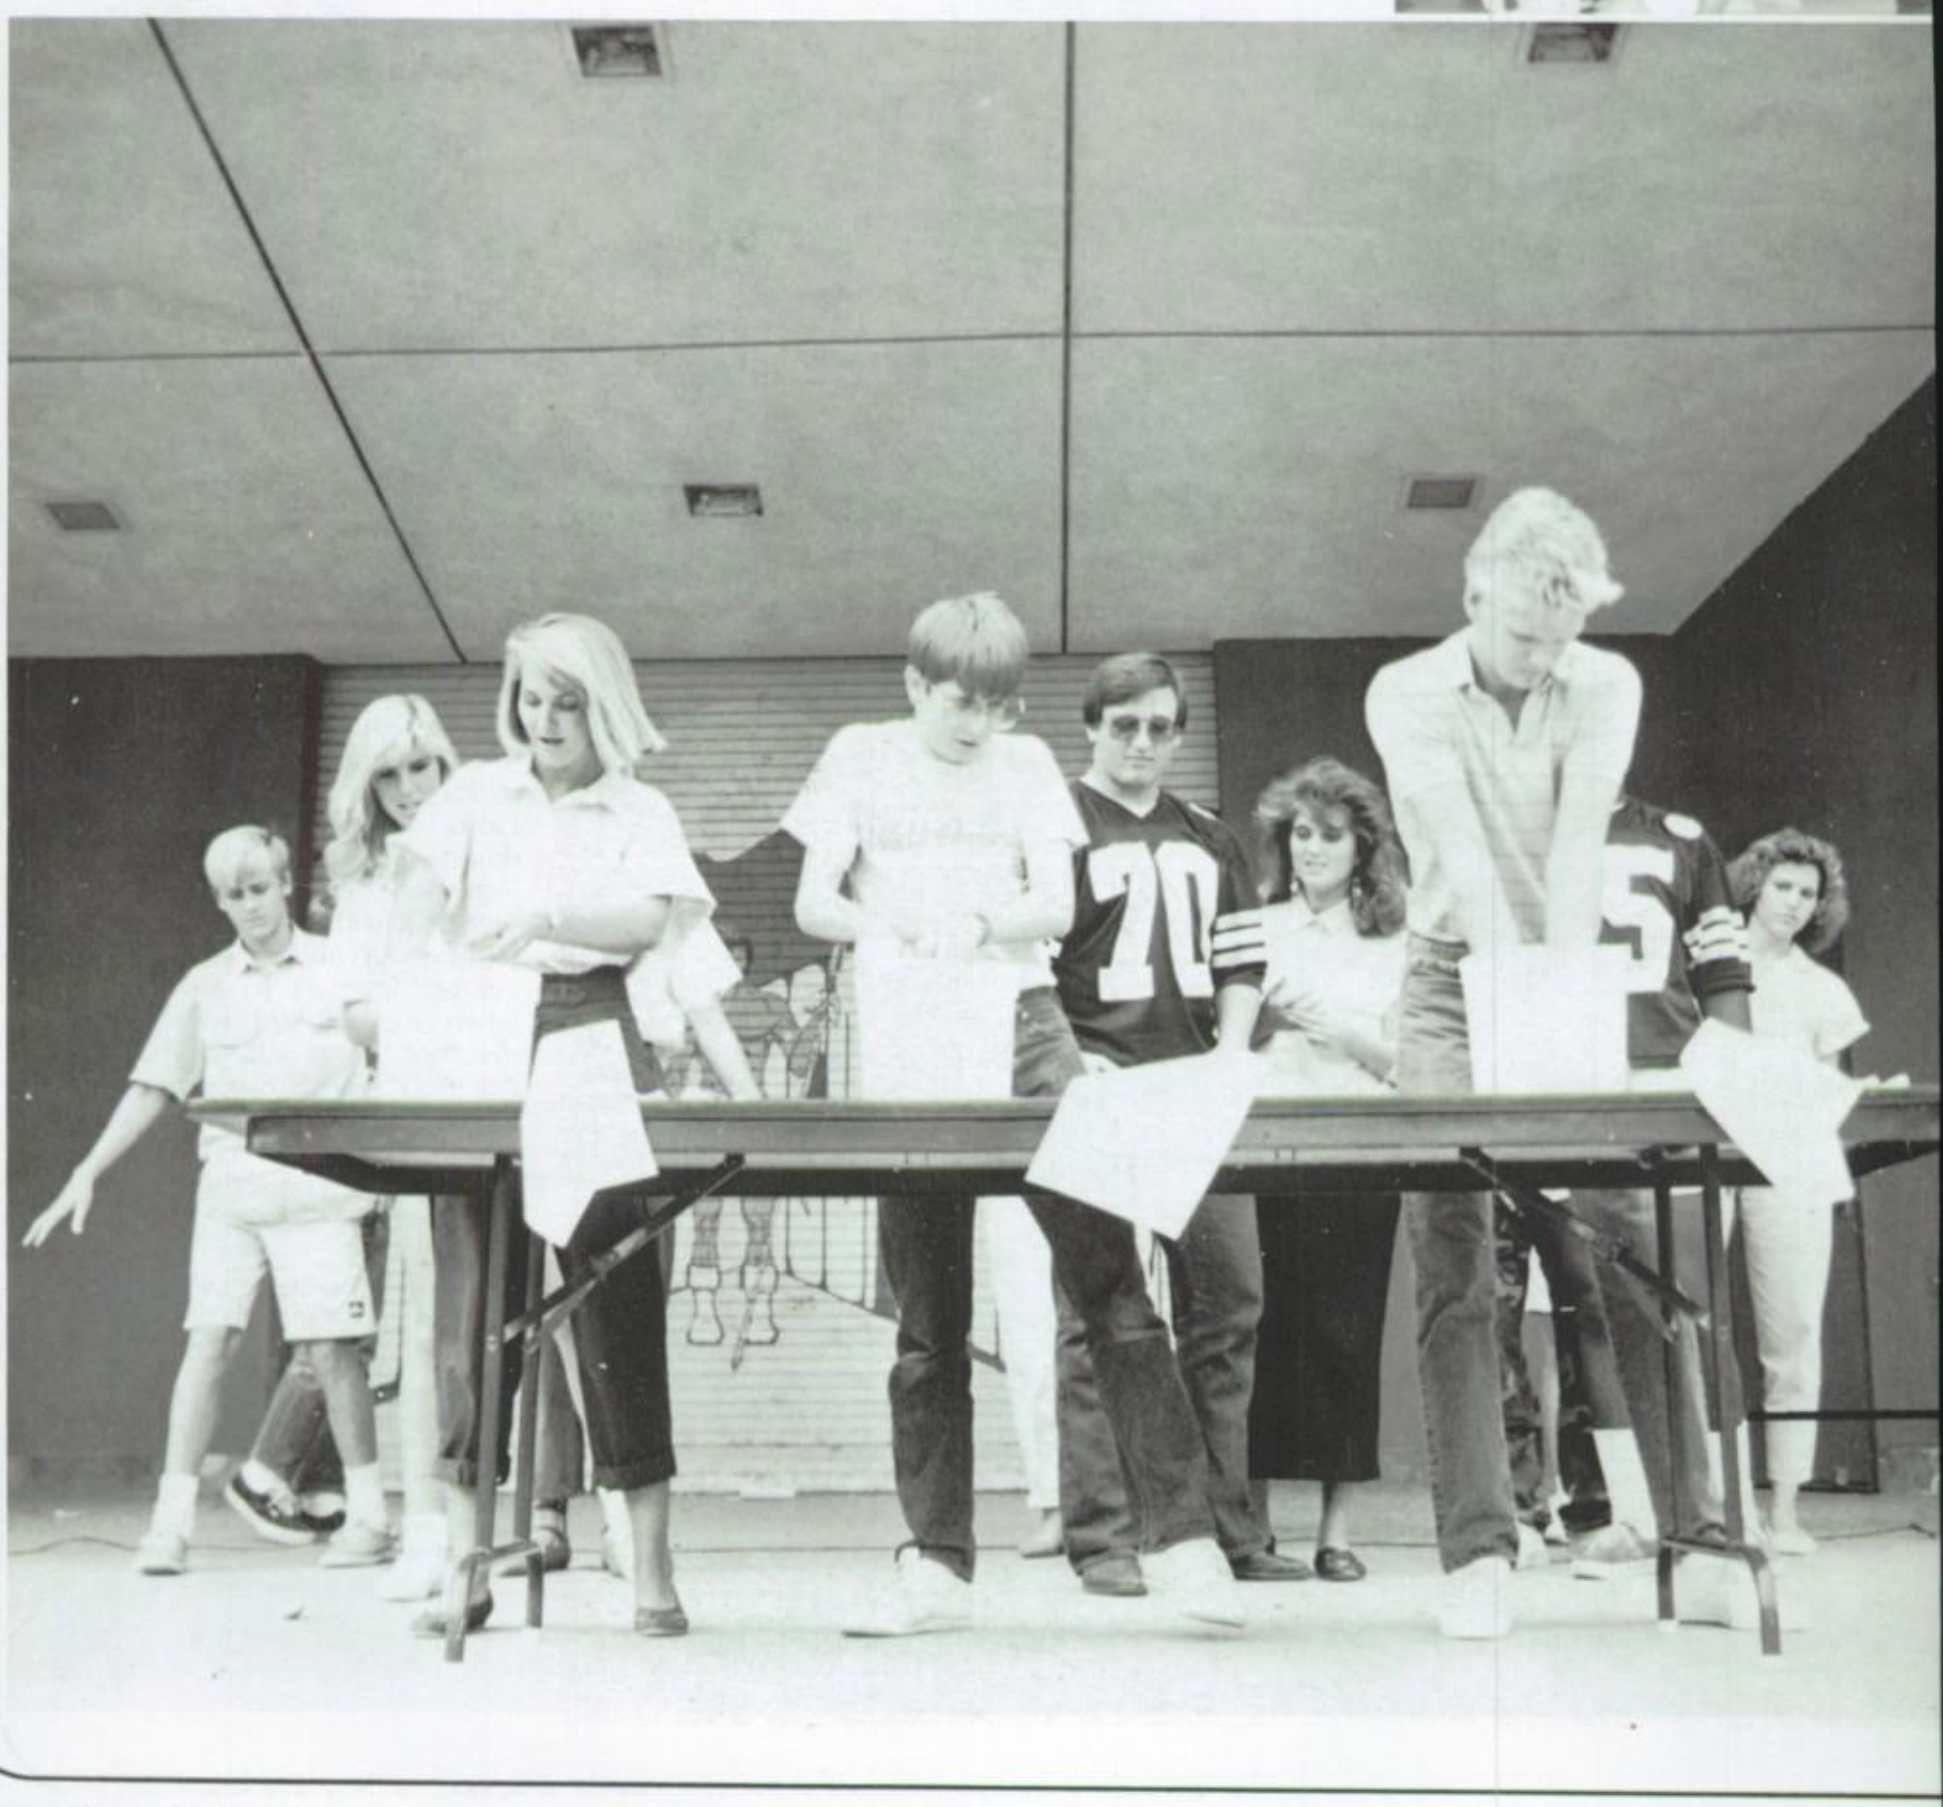
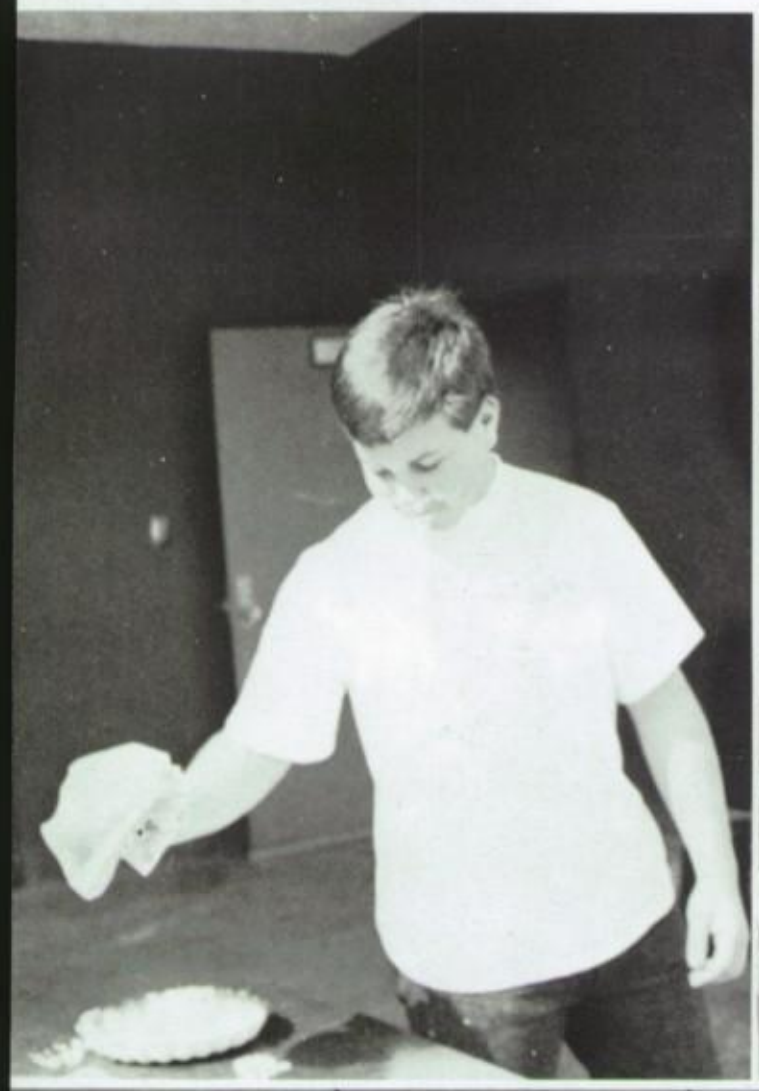
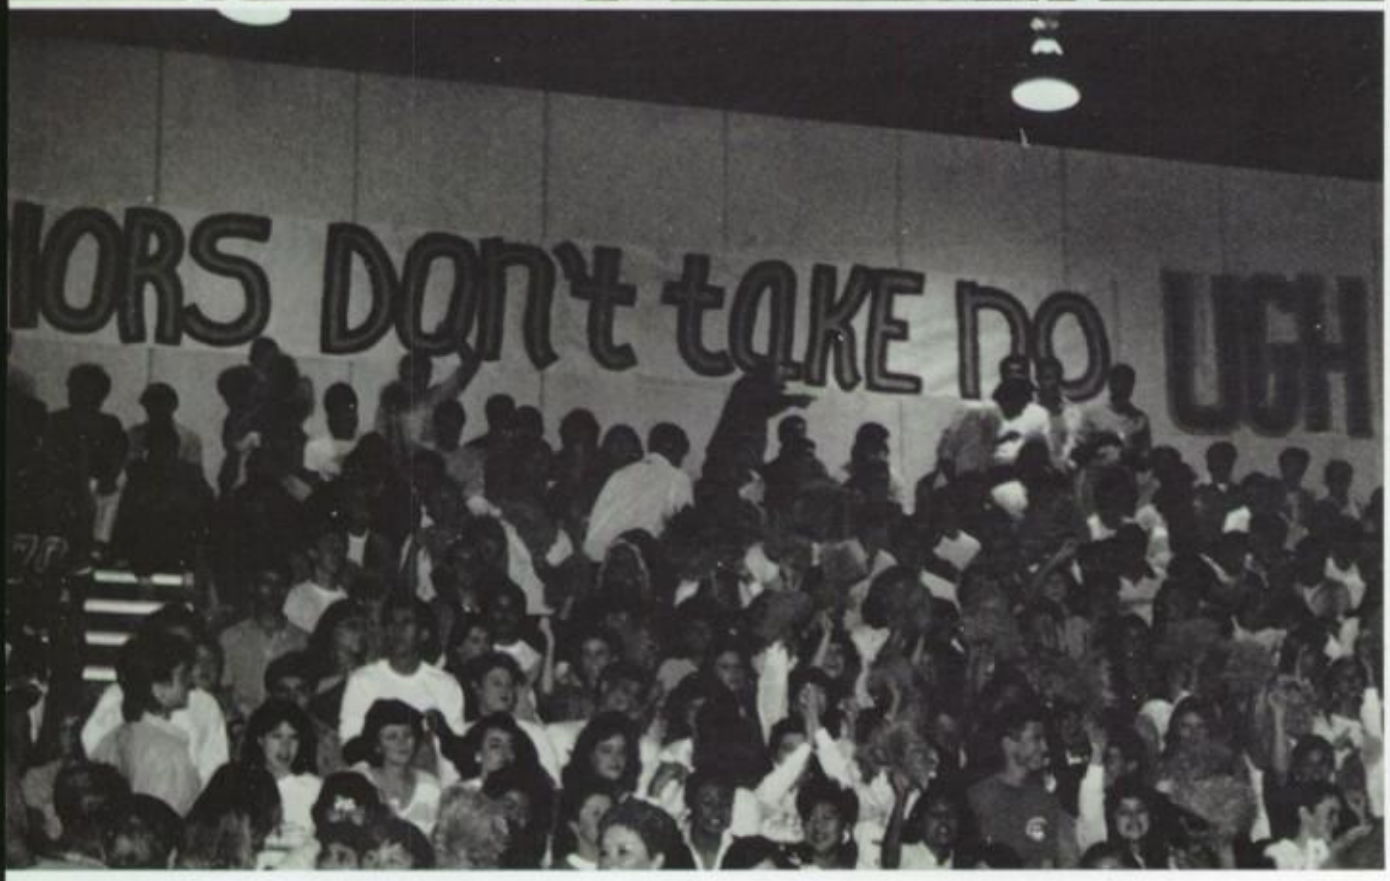
BETTER Than the Rest!







The Seniors scream, the Juniors yell and the Sophomores try to holler. Class competitions! They happen in the gym at the end of pep assemblies, on the out door stage or on just any open grassy area of the campus. The crazier the activity or stunt, the better and even those who aren't willing to risk making a fool out of themselves have a good time cheering their classmates on to victory. Pep commissioner, Stacy Isom, created, designed and directed all of this year's competitions and it's a lot of hard work to come up with events that will get people involved. Competition creates the will to succeed and when we succeed we're happy. We feel strong and full of power. An individual, a class, a team, a whole school — that's got something to be proud about. Can you think of a better way to enjoy the lighter side of life.?

A NIGHT IN HEAVEN

ACTIVITIES

As I lay in my bed and think of tomorrow night
It's our Winter Formal and oh
what a fright!
A new guy, a new love, oh what's in store for me.
Tomorrow night is nearing and soon I will see.
I look in the mirror with me in my dress
Thinking of the boy of my dreams
in hopes to impress.
The door bell rings, it must be him
When I see his face I know it's love and not just a whim.
My hand shakes as I pin on the boutonniere
With a kiss on the cheek my dad
say's "Have a Good time dear"
As we pulled in front of the dance in our limousine
Everyone turned, as we stepped out to be seen.
The night slowly went by and we danced close together
He held me so gentle I felt as light as a feather.
His warm embrace left me nothing to fear.
He leaned close and whispered in my ear.
"When I look in your eyes I know
we'll last forever
I hope, wish and dream that we'll always be together."

"Canyon or Bust" was the theme for this year's Sadie Hawkins. To start the fun there was a western pep assembly on Thursday March 13th, which proved to be the most exciting. There were different class competitions, announcements of the Sadie's court, but best of all was the performance of our new varsity squad. 12 guy's from different sports got the chance to show us their stuff, and they were "HOT."! Like most of the dances it was a great success. Sadie's is usually one of the most exciting dances of the year. The girls don't have to wait around for that "foxy" guy they have had their eye on to ask them to dance, they have their chance. The girls also get to experience being married to that special guy for always or at least till midnight! Pictures were taken, with a background decorated with hay bales, a saddle and real live chickens. It was so casual that everyone felt so comfortable, they just let themselves go and got fully rowdy! This year's Sadies was by far the best!

Well, this year was so fun. It was great that I got to meet such a fun-filled, sweet, pretty girl like you. Too bad you got out of our Geometry class. It was so fun with all of us in it.
But anyway, since I won't go to Canyon next year, good luck and have fun your senior year. I guess I'll see you at Homecoming! You have to come visit me in that cute red bug, OR the next T. Twins concert I'll go to. I'll look for you OK! Have a great summer! Bye. I ♡ U

Susan- well, I hope you enjoyed this year, next year will definitely be a rough one. Physiology was a pretty cool class, even though there were too many seniors in it. Even though we didn't really get to know each other, I think that you are a really cool person and I would like to get to know you better, give me a call or something over the summer. A Smashing Success

Julie Sinou, Merritt Schoche and Jyoti Chopra take time out in-between matches. Look coach, I have a serious case of tennis elbow! Bonnie looks for a win. Fumiko Senga, and Angie Mooney say "Of course it was in!" Pray, Here goes nothing, toss up, Almost there, SMASH! — Angela Herman.

Tennis

The girls' tennis team was indeed a smashing success this year. Although they finished fourth in League, coach Jeff Rose feels their record doesn't show how talented the team is. Four of the matches were lost only after tie breakers. This year's team was also full of Century League Champions. The Century League doubles champions were Celeste Collins and Angela Herman. These two terrific players also made it to the third round of CIF! The Century League singles consolation runner-up was Merritt Schoch. Besides these, two other championships were won that were very exciting. Bonnie Cohen and Minou Chau became the Century League doubles consolation champs. The doubles consolation runner-ups were Sandy Schmitt and Sally Dang. What makes these two pairs of champs special is that they had to play against each other to win their titles. There were many awards given out at the tennis banquet this year. The MVP went to Celeste Collins, The most improved went to Sally Dang. Sandy Schmitt and Mary Dang both received the coaches award. On the JV level Nancy Carano received the MVP award, Angela Mooney and Fumiko Senga were awarded most improved, and the coach's award went to Kris Seki. Jeff says that this is the nicest team he has ever coached. He will be back next year, and he is looking forward to it. Good luck, to Jeff and his team.

Bonnie Cohen puckers up for a "knock-em dead" shot. Sally Dang waves to her mom before her match. Fumiko Senga has a delayed reaction after her shot. Amy Porinchak puts her mind and body into her shot. Stacy Kuwata is ready for the best.

Tennis

Lady Comanche

Senior Angela Herman has played Tennis for Canyon all of her three years here. Throughout that time she has been a dedicated athlete. This year Angela was one of two Century League Doubles Champions. She also made it to the third round of CIF. Her coach told us that Angela is a fun person, with a lot of talent, who really works hard. Angela also won The Most Talented Award at this year's banquet. Good luck Angela! May you continue to be a tennis star!

Bonnie plays the "guitar" while talking to Minou. Sandy Schmitt shows off her stuff! Angie Mooney squints in wonder. Mary Dang serves a smash. Kim Todd makes a laid back serve. Melanie Donafrio takes a smooth swing. Minou Chau reaches for it all!

Racing Toward Victory

1985 marked the 10th year of girls' x-country at Canyon and it proved to be the most exciting, rewarding and successful season of the decade. Holly Hogan the Century League 1 mile champ and the only Comanche senior was appointed team captain and along with Holly we welcomed back 5 other juniors to the varsity team — Shelly Everett, Erin Case, Denise LaBrenz, Sandi Clark and Janell Dovalina. Shelly and Erin made the All League team as sophomores and headed a powerful returning squad. Could the team improve on its 15th place finish in CIF in 1984?

The summer program began in early July with easy conditioning runs in paths, hills, day trips to the beach and culminated with our traditional 8 day beach camp in San Deigo's Mission Bay.

The competitive season opened on the campus of U.C. Santa Barbara. Canyon faced 4 of the top teams in Southern California. The Comanches emerged with a 1-2 record although our girls proved they were ready to race with the best. Then it was on to Las Vegas where 6 of the 8 finishers to annihilate the other 7 teams. Shelly Everett, Holly Hogan, and Erin Case led a Comanche 1-2-3 finish and new sophomore Beckie Garcia showed that she was ready for varsity competition! Century League competition opened with 2 meets on Canyon's campus and 4 teams fell victim to the heat, tough hills, and fast pace of the Comanche athletes! It was particularly appropriate that the defeat of a tough Foothill squad (the first ever by Canyon) would mark the 100th league victory in the 10 year history of Comanche girls' X-Country. Beckie Garcia raced in two sophomore invitationals placing 3rd and 1st. While two more sophomores, Tosha McClintock and Kristen Prince showed much potential and the talent to race against varsity competition. Varsity competition resumed with 2 very successful and fun trips to San Diego with competitions against San Diego's best at Mt. Carmel where Holly Hogan and Erin Case led the team to a 2nd place finish. At the Oceanside So. Cal. Invitational Canyon won easily with individual victories by Shelly Everett, Beckie Garcia, Sandi Clark and Janell Dovalina. When Century League competition resumed the polls reflected the Comanche strength with Canyon at #4 in the county and entering at #9 in CIF division 4A. Tustin was Canyon's next victim with Holly Hogan leading 5 Comanches in the first 7 finishers in a very fast time of 18:32. After finishing the league season undefeated our attention turned to league finals and CIF. Foothill won the league finals by a narrow margin although Shelly Everett captured the individual title in a blazing 18:28! Sophomores Kristen Prince and Tosha McClintock's surprising 1-2 finish in the J.V. race would lead our J.V. team to a 2nd place finish — the highest ever for comanches J.V. in Century League. and so for the 10th consecutive year Canyon qualified for CIF competition! In the prelims Shelly Everett, placed 10th, but the "team packing" of Sandi Clark, Janell Dovalina, Holly Hogan, and Erin Case in 22nd, 23rd, 24th, and 25th positions; ensued our place in CIF finals!

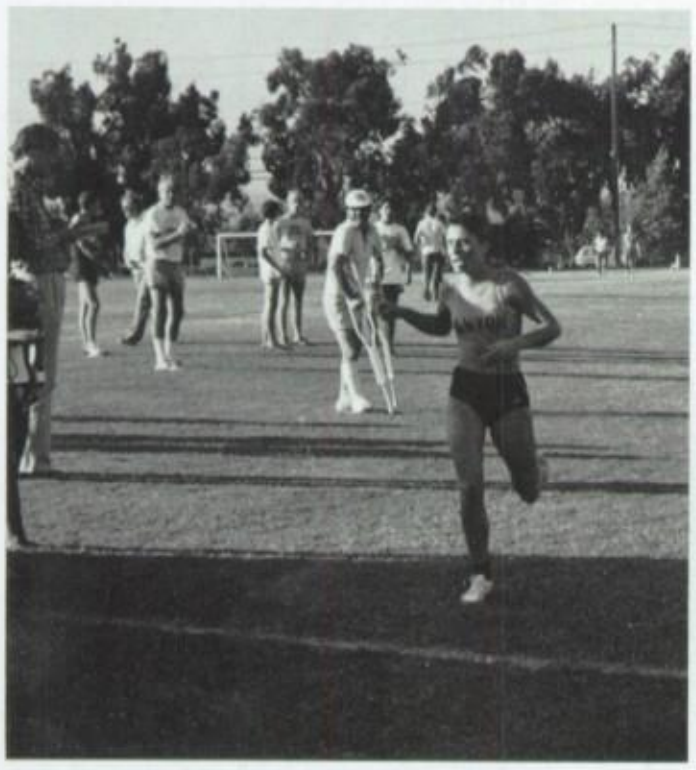
J.V.'s take the lead once again. Sandi guzzles for refreshment. Holly, Sandi and Janel always work hard for what they want. Junior Shari Navaei sets an even pace. Lisa Chew looks hard for the finish line.



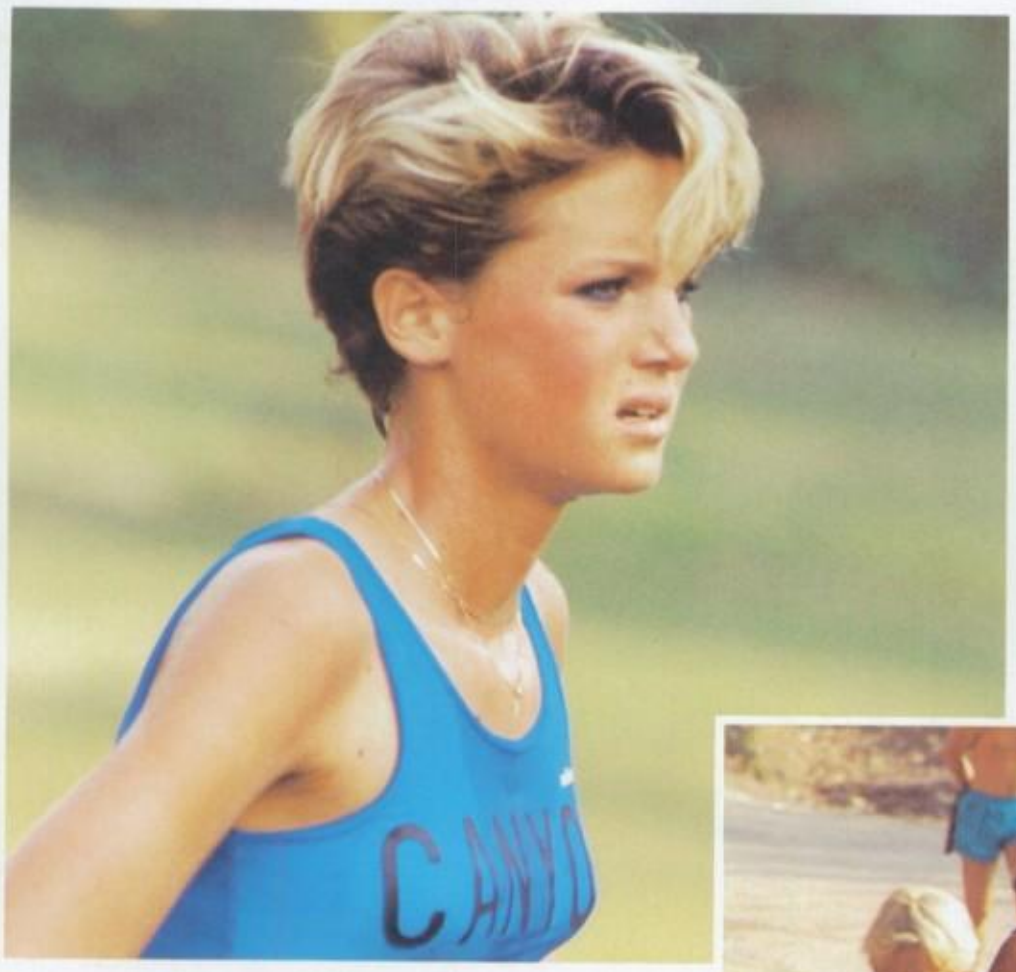
CHS runners look for a win. Coach Sayward peps up the team. Sandi Clark's dad (on crutches) watches proudly as she finishes. Denise exclaims, "Hang loose!" Junior Erin Case glides along. Holly and Shelly take the lead.

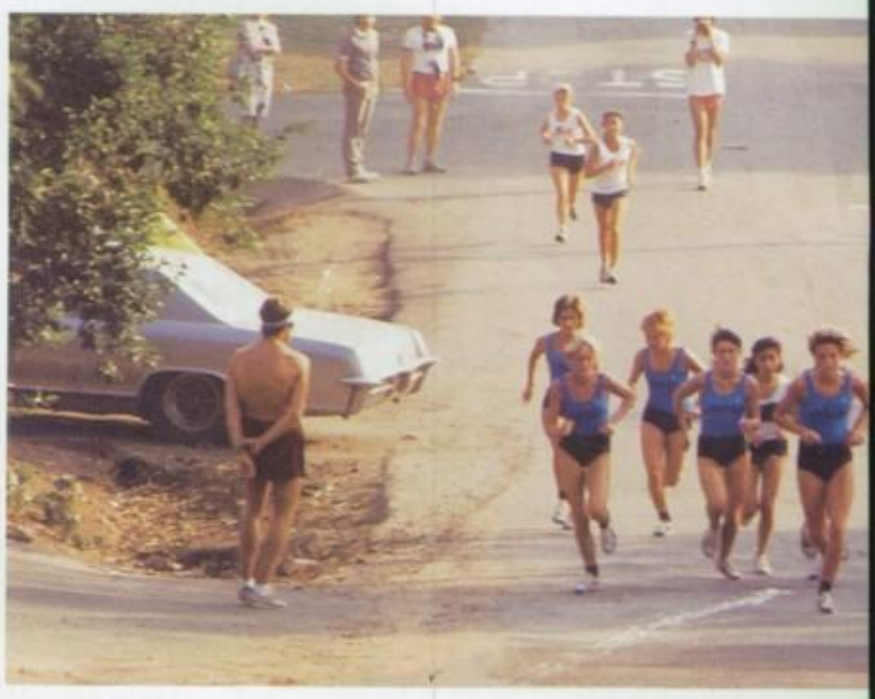
X-Country

Going home after a long and hard victory! Beckie Garcia takes a breather after a great race. A little talk takes place before the race.

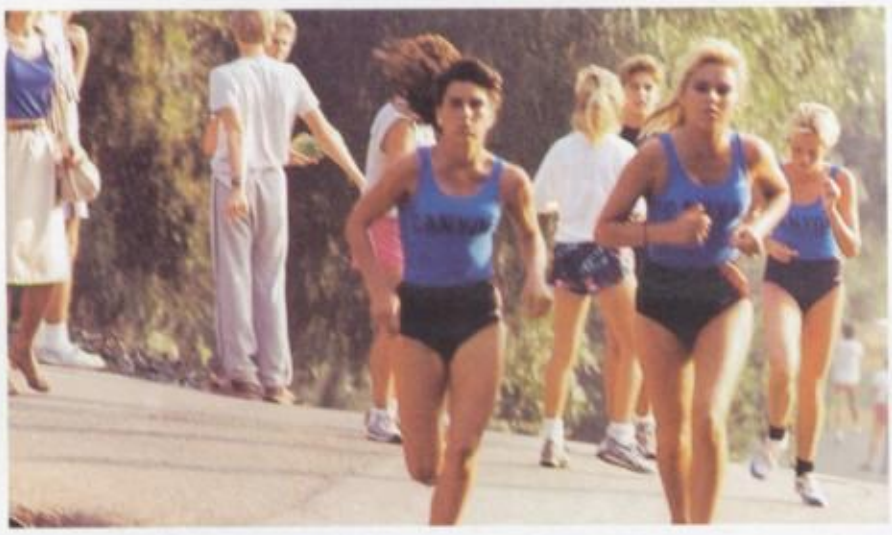
Lady Comanche

Holly Hogan is a very famous Lady Comanche here at Canyon. Holly's sport is Cross-Country, and she is an expert! Holly says "It makes you dedicated to run everyday and it brings out the real person in you when you are giving it your all." And believe it or not there is life after Cross-Country for Holly. She enjoys skiing, concerts, and just hanging out with friends. According to Holly "The team is great! Plus we are really close, especially this year." X-Country will continue to be top priority in Holly's life when she goes to college next year. Often Holly puts running before school work. After all, it's my life.





Shelly Everett waits anxiously to hear her time. The Lady Comanches start up the killer hill. Once again we are in the lead with only one competitor near by. Sandi Clark roots her teammates on. Looks like everybody is ready for another victory!



The Comanches reached CIF Finals in the 4A division with a 3rd place finish in the prelims, behind the strong running of Shelly Everett (10th). The key, however, was the team strength as much improved Sandi Clark and Janell Dovalina, followed by Holly Hogan and Erin Case finished 22, 23, 24, 25, respectively losing only to Palos Verdes and Westlake.

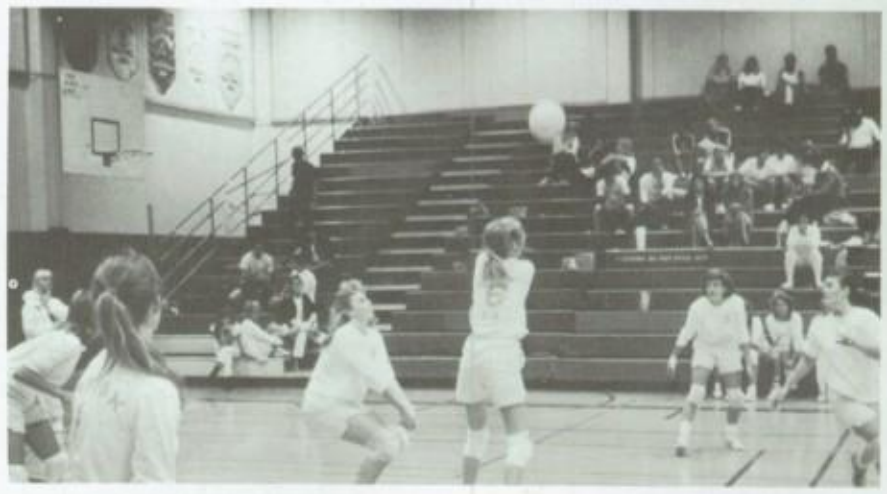
The team saved their best for finals running a very smart tactical race to place 7th overall. This time Holly Hogan leading the way followed by Shelly Everett. Erin Case and Janell Dovalina, who both ran their finest race of the season, improved tremendously and Sandi Clark rounded out the scoring top 5. Finishing 6th and 7th for the Comanches were Beckie Garcia and Denise LaBrenz who also made vast improvements. These 7 girls, along with alternate Kristen Prince, received special CIF awards.

It was a big day for Canyon — the biggest in the Commanches 10 years of cross-country. After their fine finish in CIF senior captain Holly Hogan and Shelly Everett were named to all county 2nd team!

Canyon's team placed 7th in CIF 8th in all CIF (430 schools), and 2nd in Orange County (56 schools).

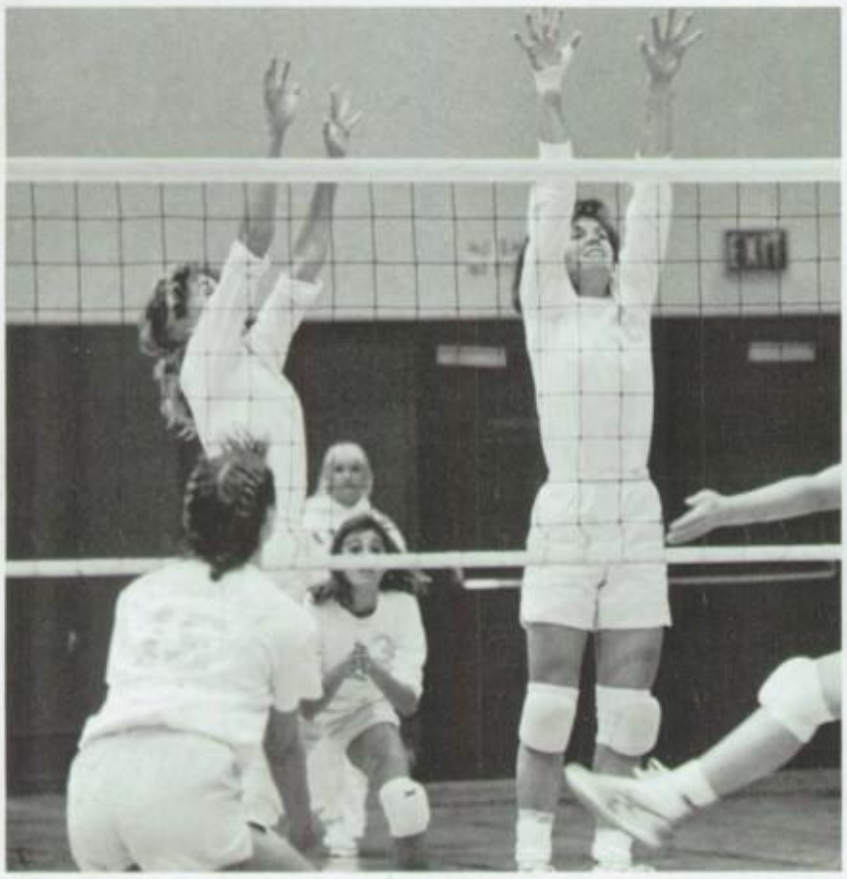
Spiking for It All

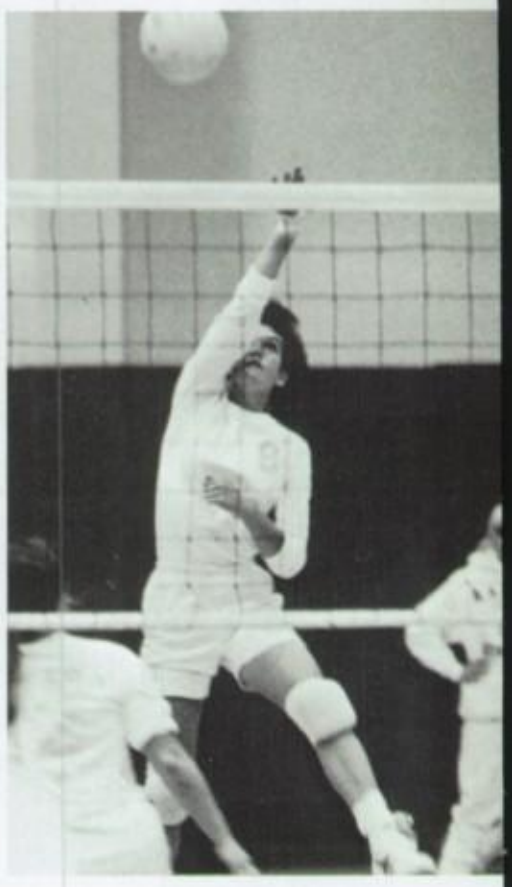
The J.V. squad huddles up to discuss their plan of attack. Kristen Ballard is thankful for her replacement. Jamie, with her stunning form, is ready to spike the ball down Foothill's throat. Nancy and Missy are ready for anything! Lila puts a curse on the ball while spiking it over the net. Katie, Julie, and Tammy are all eager to smash that ball!



Lisa and Julie are hopeful. Julie dives for the ball. Get down on it, Missy! J.V. players go for the ball. What a dive Nancy! Danna serves with style.

Varsity Coach Gina Elchuck was new to Canyon this year. Besides being new to Canyon, this was her first coaching experience. Along with this Nancy Porter and Jamie Joseph were the only returning Varsity players. Despite the odds the team triumphed. Gina's first job was to get them in shape! The overall record this year was 4 and 12. Gina feels the record doesn't indicate how well the team did. The important thing was the learning and vital experience that took place. The season was a learning experience to all. Of course there were some stars of the team. Nancy Porter made the all league team and Julie Harmon ended up with the Most Valuable player award. Gina will definitely be back next season and she is planning on a lot of summer training. Good luck to Gina and her Volleyball team!! She wants all the girls to remember: "You're only as good as you think you are!"

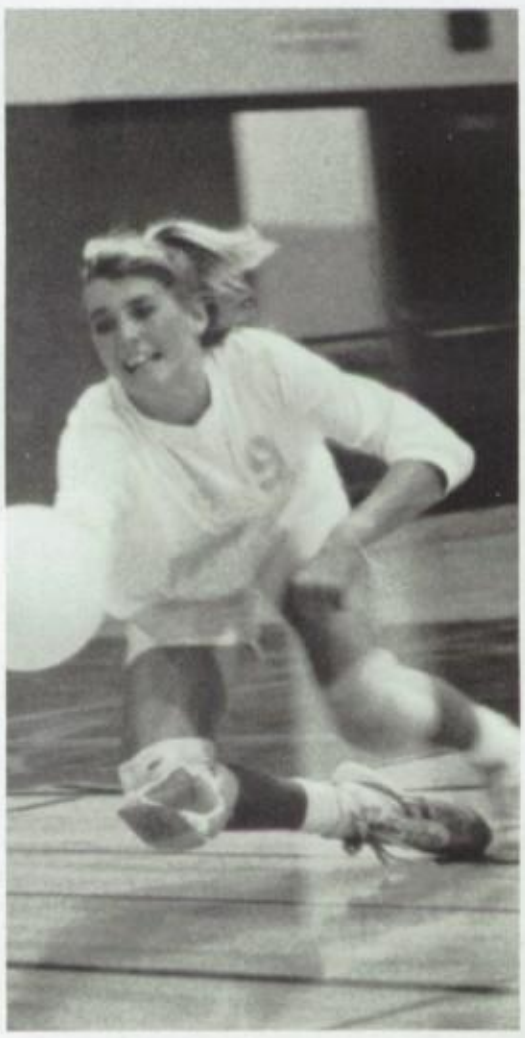




The Varsity Team huddles together for a few quick words. Lila puts her body into her bump. Canyon Netters try desperately to block the spike. Jamie Joseph prepares for an awesome serve. Raise your hand if you're sure Katie! Julie, Jamie, and Sharon all dive to save the game. Sharon Gerhard spikes with power and confidence. Coach Elchuck advises her team to get a grip!

Volleyball

Coach Elchuck leads her team to a victory. Julie Harmon sets it up. Niki Lewis sets the ball with deep concentration. Laurie yells at her teammate "I want my M TV." Nancy takes a mad dash to save the ball. Julie digs the ball out of the net. Varsity temporary bench warmers show massive amounts of enthusiasm.



Lady Comanche

Despite her many injuries this season, Katie Huennekens has proved to be a valuable asset to the Girls' Volleyball team this year. Katie, a junior, has been playing Volleyball since she was a seventh grader at Vista Junior High School. This was her first year playing for the Varsity team. Katie is not sure of her Volleyball future but she feels "If I were to play any sport in College it would be Volleyball." The game is fun to Katie because every play is different. She also feels that it is a very intense, fast paced game. The best of luck to Katie, a true Lady Comanche.

Canyon's Girls' Basketball team this year has, as most already know, a new coach. Mr. Harper Ephrom, who was previously the J.V. basketball coach, now takes the place of Mr. Mark Reider. Coach Ephrom has been coaching basketball for the past thirteen years, and the last five of those have been with the girls of Canyon. His many years of coaching, along with his play at Long Beach State, Coach Ephrom knows quite a bit about the game of basketball.

In the annual Canyon Holiday Hoopla this year, the Lady Comanches eliminated both Santigo and Los Amigos. In the finals though, the ladies lost to the Valencia Tigers who took first place. Our girls then obtained the second place trophy, and SharRee Olsen and Angie Nelsen were named to the All-Tournament team from Canyon.

The Varsity got off to an unfortunate start with a loss to Orange (30-34). But, of course, they were able to turn around with a win over the Eagles of Santa Ana Valley. The score up to the last 32 seconds was 44-45, (Valley). Sandy Clark whipped the ball to Angie Nelsen for a fastbreak. Angie, on her way to the basket, was fouled. This would give the ladies a chance to win if Angie made both freethrows. Angie's freethrow percentage was the pits, so for once, she did the unexpected and was able to handle the intense pressure. Her two points put the ladies ahead to win a very nerve-racking game.

The new J.V. coach, Kelly Harrison (a former player from Chapman College), in her first year of team coaching is presently leading her team to many numerous victories. She is an excellent coach with a strong will and knowledge of the game. She definitely has a lot of respect from those whom she coaches. The girls are presently (6-2) in league, with losses only to Foothill and Tustin. The loss to Foothill was a very close one with the final score be-

Lady Comanche

Most people at Canyon know senior Angie Nelsen for her fun loving, crazy personality. But perhaps credit should be given where credit is due. Angie is not just a great person to be with, she is an outstanding basketball player as well. Since coming to Canyon her junior year, Angie has managed to break the rebounding record with 23 in one game; and to get invited to play for the International Sports Program in Hong Kong both her junior and senior years. Angie's dream has always been to play ball in college, hopefully with a scholarship. Throughout high school, Angie has also managed to maintain a 3.35 G.P.A. Good Luck Ang, with college ball, and in all you do. C.H.S. needs more dedicated Lady Comanches like you!

ing 35-30, Foothill. Coach Harrison feels her girls will be victorious over the Knights the second time around. The J.V.'s win over El Mondena was a close one at that. Laurie Petronis, the leading rebounder and one of the leading scorers, was wide open underneath the basket in which she made the winning two points. Her shot was made within the last 15 seconds of the game to bring the ladies to a victory over the Vanguards. Nikki Lewis, the other leading scorer, is also the leader in assists for the team.

1. Tami Pond looks for two points in heavy traffic. 2. If looks could kill, Nikki Lewis's opponent would be dead. 3. Julie Harmon dribbles through and past a Santa Ana player. 4. Darcy closes her eyes and hopes for the best. 5. Nita Tiwari dribbles down the court with excellent form. 6. Sara Pieper looks for an opening inside.

Going for the Goal

Lisa Cameron gets set to smack that ball! Comanches Kim and Dalene fight the enemy. Robyn Luedke steals it away. Two heads are better than one! — Jen Jillson. Melissa Schlegal gazes off with thoughts of victory.

Canyon Girls' Soccer has had a very successful season thus far. The wins and losses record has not been the greatest, but the team has done a lot of growing. Part of this growing has come from the addition of a new junior Varsity coach. Former Canyon student, Judy Manligas joined head coach Merri Jo Hoffman to coach the comanches. All the players and the coaches are satisfied with the outcome of the season so far. The team was lucky to receive many new players this year. The majority of these new players are sophomores. Some of these sophomores were lucky enough to make the Varsity team. This is not easy to do because Canyon also has a lot of returning players who know soccer, and are very good players. Many players put soccer at the top of their priority lists. Thanks soccer players, for your outstanding performance and dedication.

Soccer

Charlene Lou stretches for that extra inch! Jennifer Jillson thinks out her next plan of attack. Melissa and Miriam both fight to take that ball away. Lean to the left, lean to the right. . . (Robyn Luedke). What a mean throw in, Melissa! Muddy, and injured, Maggie Reardon keeps fighting!

Jen shows her outstanding control. Time for a break! (Lisa Cameron and Jen Jillson). Charlene Lou protects the goal in her full-back position. Quickly, Kim Rubera turns the tide when she gets the ball out of enemy territory. The Varsity team huddles around Coach Merri Jo during half time. Goalie Kerri Ann kicks the ball down field. Just in time Lisa saves the ball from the opponent.

Soccer

Julie Wicker gets a pep talk from her coach. Maggie runs to get the ball that was kicked out of bounds. Thank Goodness for half time! (Hey Kool-Aid!) Melissa saves the ball from going out, just in the nick of time!

Lady Comanche

Charlene Lou plays a huge part in the girls soccer program at Canyon. She has been on the team all three of her years here. She likes to play full-back the best and she is great at it. Char always does her best in everything, but especially soccer. Charlene started playing soccer just by chance when she was nine. "My brother and I brought a flyer home from school and the next thing I knew I was on a team." It's a good thing that Charlene happened along soccer because without this Lady Comanche, the CHS Varsity team just wouldn't be the same!

Makin' Traxxx

Canyon's track team has enjoyed much prestige and recognition during the first decade. As we began our second decade we welcomed back a very strong squad of 42 athletes and one of Orange County's strongest coaching staffs.

Canyon began the season as one of the top contenders for the Century League title. The Comanches have a much improved throwing team under the guidance of Coach Mike Castenada. The return of the league champion cross-country runners, and Coach Mike Sayward, added depth in the distance events. Coach Al Miranda and Coach Joe Arellano provided the expertise for the sprints, jumps, and relays to round out a powerful team.

Elected captains were seniors Lila Naffa, Joanne Prager, and Laurie Petronis grits her teeth while throwing the discus. Coach Sayward makes sure his top distance runner is A-OK. Janell Dovalina is pooped out after her race. Shelly and Beckie continue to lead the pack. Sharon Gerhard raises her arm in hopes of making it over the high jump bar.

Track

Holly Hogan. Katie Huennekens and Sandy Schmitt were the junior captains.

Many records were expected to be set including relay records in the two mile relay, sprint medley relay, distance medley relay and four mile relay. Individual records to be challenged were the discus by Mary Molthen, the mile by Holly Hogan, and the two mile by Erin Case, Shelly Everett and Holly Hogan.

Canyon Comanches were invited to two prestigious indoor meets at the L.A. and San Diego Sports Arena's where their talents produced two victories and much publicity for the school. At the L.A. Sunkist Meet our two mile relay team broke the existing school record by 1.5 seconds and emerged victorious with a wire-to-wire victory. Holly Hogan, Shelly Everett, Erin Case and Beckie Garcia produced the win. At the San Diego Michelob Meet, Holly Hogan was invited to compete in the mile against San Diego area's best and Holly ran a smart race to win in 5:20.3, a great early season time!

The Comanches opened the league season with three close victories over Santa Ana, Santa Ana Valley, and Villa Park. Of great significance was the team strength as every event contributed to the overall team victories. The season's finishing results will be in the SCOREBOARD section.

Alison Johnson passes the baton to Angie Nelsen as she looks for a win. Katie Huennekens, way ahead of the pack, wins the open 440. From the look on her face, Sandi Clark has given it everything in her race. Christy Lovoy soars like an eagle in long jump pit. Coach Sayward, in the middle of one of his speeches, is interrupted by who else? . . . Sandi Clark.

Lila Naffa lunges into the long jump pit, giving it her all. Tired out, Janet hands off to Katie in the mile relay. The distance gang is always ahead. Alison Johnson finishes victorious in the 440 relay. Sherry Navaei takes her running seriously.

Track

Shelly Everett, a hard-working runner. Joanne Prager, one of Canyon's best throwers, "puts" the shot. Susan and Janet, Canyon's hurdlers, take a 2nd and a 3rd.

Lady Comanche

Mary Molthen, a junior, is a very significant member of the Canyon Girls' Track team this season. Last year, when she came out for track, Mary's intentions were to long jump. But, fortunately for Canyon, Mary was recruited to the shot and discus. Mary's specialty is of course the shot and discus. With the expert help of former Olympian Mike Castenada in the past, Mary is now one of the top throwers in the Century League. Next year, if Mary continues to do as well as she has in the past, and if she is good enough to play in college, she would like to do that as well. Mary feels that throwing the shot and discus is "different" (quite different from the long jump) but, all in all, she likes the sport. Good Luck Mary, we wish you the best!

Softball Strikes Again

The return of six starters from 1985 plus the potential shown by several newcomers have given the Comanches high hopes for a 1986 Century League Championship. Led by All league players Julie Harmon, and Celeste Collins, the Canyon infield looks to be its best ever. Catcher Jen Jillson, third baseman Michelle Cipolla, and short stop Nikki Lewis should be the best in league at their respective positions as well. Junior Laurie Rau, and senior Stacie Gilleland will add offense to the line up, while Paula Shea, Merrit Schoch, and Mindy Clark continue to speed with defense in the out field. Utility players April Lopez and Patty Ellis will back up Pitchers Collins and Katie Cramer to give the Comanches a strong squad throughout.

As Easter and the third annual Tournament of champions approaches, the Comanches hold a (2-0) league record, (5-4) overall with tough non-league competition.

Co-Captains Collins and Jillson are excited about the propects of finishing their high school careers with Canyon's second league championship in softball. Head coach Lance Eddy and assistants Gene Simpson and Judy Manligas are also hoping for a league championship.

Lady Comanche

Senior Julie Harmon has lettered in three sports at Canyon. Basketball, volleyball and softball, softball being her speciality. This year Julie is hoping for a league championship. With Julie on their team, they are sure to succeed in this feat. On top of Julie's success as an athlete, she manages to get good grades in school. Julie has been an all around asset to CHS in everything she does. Thanks Julie for your hard work and determination. Canyon needs more Lady Comanches like you.

A Splash of Victory

Pg. 69 Tami Pond grabs a breath of air as she heads for the finish. Debbie Freeman looks into the camera as if what are you looking at? Tiffany Mozisek listens for her time. Jan Swinton swimming her CIF qualifying race. Varsity Coach Carolyn Woods looks intently on her swimmers in the water.

Swimming

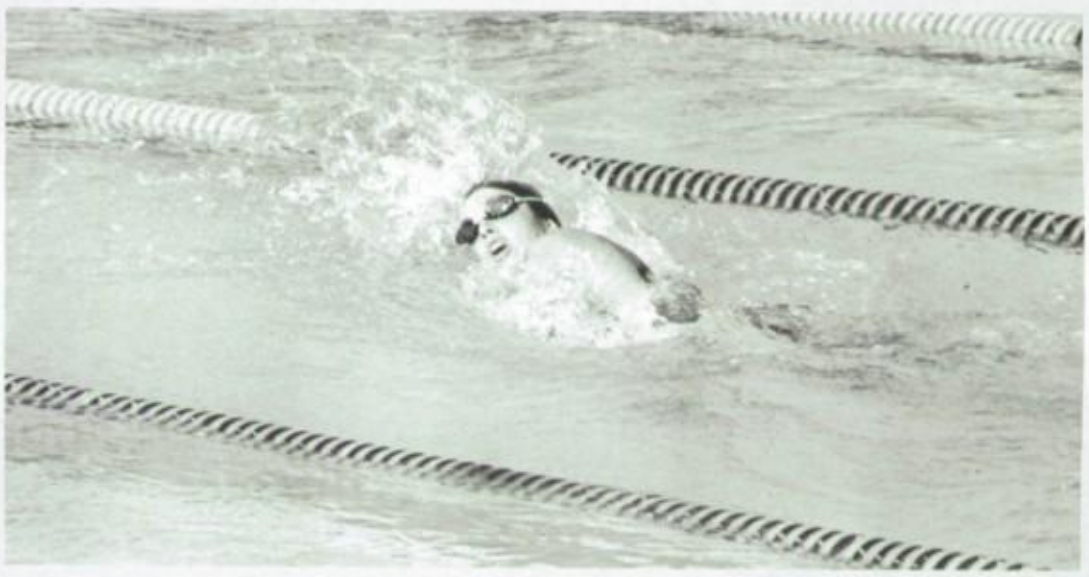
When I started to write this copy, I said okay let's be objective, even though I am doing the swimming section, and I am on the swim team. So I'll try my best. The team is the best bunch of people I know so I will have to be honest about that.

The Varsity team this year consists of Audra Crouch (Captain) Shana McCoubrey, (Captain) Stacey Ring, Jan Swinton, Melody Ernest, Shar Ree Olsen, Marna Clark, Debbie Freeman, Christa Harwell, Bonnie Rice, and Kari Vorwerk. The amazing thing about this year's Varsity team is that almost half are sophomores.

As to date the Varsity Team is 5-2 in League losing only to Foothill, and Tustin. With this record the team is almost guaranteed a third place finish in The Century League.

Although seperate in races and work-outs the J.V. and Varsity Teams are very close. J.V. coach Steve Anderson returned to lead the J.V.'s to another great season. The J.V. swimmers this year are: Joelle Escoe, Andrea LoCicero, Brenda Smith, Corrie Riccio, Leslie Cox, Dana Dineen, Bronwyn Dodson, Stephanie Douglas, Tiffany Mozisek, Sara Pieper, Tami Pond, Traci Scheffler, Kymm Minor-Smith, Melissa Test, Tanya Vince, Debbie Bolton, Melonie Cameron, Natalie Hunter, Chrissy James, Joanne Kupratis, Natalie Bitter, and (last but not least) Carole Shopen. This time is outstanding especially considering most are first year swimmers.

Statistics do show a lot about a season but most people will hear about that in the bulletins or the news paper. Behind all the Goggles, chlorine, aching muscles,



Lady Comanche

Jan Swinton has been a swimming star for all of her three years at Canyon. She has qualified for CIF all three years, as well as being a member of the 400 free relay team her sophomore year which still holds the Century League Record. After high school Jan plans to attend Long Beach State and continue to swim. Besides being an outstanding swimmer, Jan maintains good grades. On top of all this she is a good friend and fun to be around. Good luck in the future Jan, and thanks for all your efforts.

Stephanie Douglas gets set to swim her leg of the relay, Tanya Vince pulls for a win. "Yo Baby!" — Marna Clark swims the back stroke. Jan Swinton flies through the water. Dana Dineen stands anxious as she waits to swim.

Pg. 71 Bronwyn Dodson and a VP enemy (with cap on) fight for the win. Kari Vorwerk and her great breathing technique. Christa concentrates hard on her specialty breast stroke. and wet swim suits (between us and the softball players we make mud in the locker room) there is an incredible group of athletes that are more than a team, they are a family. New to our family this year is Varsity Coach Carolyn Woods. The change in coaches was a definite shocker to most returning swimmers. It took about two weeks the for team and coach to get used to each other. From the beginning we knew Carolyn was not there to mess around. On top of swimming we were also priveledged enough for land training. In other words running and lifting weights. This extensive training (two hours swimming and one hour land training five days a week) is positively the reason for our team's tremendous success. Perhaps Carolyn's love for workouts came from her experience on the 1972 Olympic Team. In everything from technique to sit ups (Oh God we did millions!). Carolyn always gave us her all, and I for one will be forever greatful to her for her dedication to us.

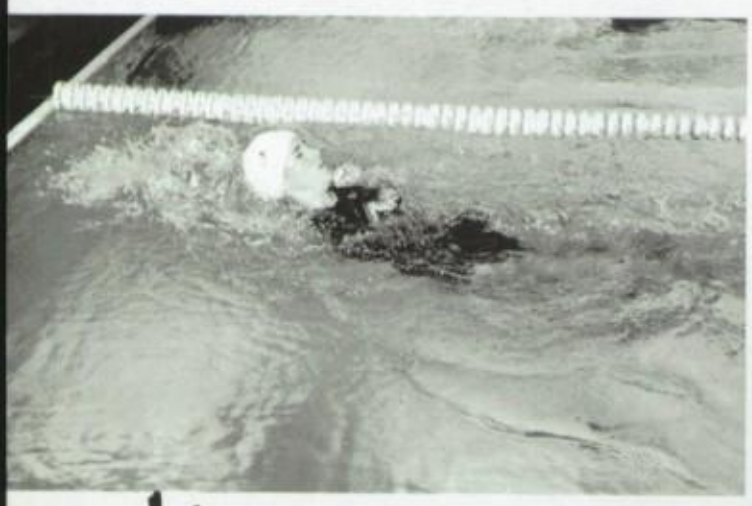
This season has not been all fun and games. We have had to deal with many problems. For one thing we had the tragic death of a former Teammate Cindy Croft. The team pulled together during that time and we got through our

Swimming



Lady Comanche

This Lady Comanche is perhaps the most special one to be featured in the Legend. This one, is a tribute to Cindy Croft who was tragically killed earlier this year. A member of the class of 1985, Cindy was an important part of the girls' Swim Team all of her three years here. In fact she still holds 3 all time records, and is the Century League record holder in the 100 fly. Not only was Cindy a dedicated athlete but she was a friend and an inspiration to all who knew her. Cindy Croft will be greatly missed, but her memory, and the joy she brought into this world will be remembered forever.

pain together. We have also had many injuries this season.

Despite these few set backs we stayed on top and proved to be one of the, if not the strongest team in Canyon's History. I know that I will never forget this years team and the memories we have created. The team aspect of swimming is one of the most special things about the sport. Although it is an individual sport, none of us could accomplish half of the goals we do without each other. It is this spirit and dedication that has made this season one of the biggest pool parties Canyon has ever seen.

Contest of Stamina

The Canyon Cross-Country team had another good season this year, with Seniors Mike Gieson, Greg Nietzel and Chris Lewis using their experience as three year varsity men to lead the team. Coach Pycior, our long-time cross-country coach, and runner himself used extensive summer training to get his runners in shape. A week-long beach camp, and a summer session were enjoyed by almost all of the runners.

Effort Isn't Always Enough

Season: 7 wins 16 loses league: 3-11. The varsity basketball team began the year very optimistically. The team had an outstanding summer with a 17-9 record, with wins over Ketella, El Dorado, Westminester, and Fullerton. The season began at the Sonora tournament against Capistrano Valley. In the pre-season polls they were rated #2 in Orange County. The team battled hard before losing a close 68-60 decision. At the Irvine tournament we opened with the eventual winner Riveride North. Again the team played hard and well before finally loosing 64-57. In between the team had no wins over La Seria, which made the play-offs, Costa Mesa and Artesia. During the Irvine tournament the team suffered an emotinonal setback when guard Steven Ream's father suddenlly passed away. From this point on the team seemed to lack consistency and aggressiveness they had shown during the summer and preseason. Individully, Ralph Garcia was leading scorer p.p.g and leading rebounder at 8.3. Steven Ream averaged 10.5 for the season and 4.3 assists. His defensive game against Cappo Valley's all CIF guard Nathan Call was tremendous, holding him to a season low of 161 point while scoring 81 points himself. This was definitely the singular most outstanding individual effort of the season. Ralph Garcia scored (35) against Los Amogos in the 65-61 win during the Canyon classic. The team's lack of size and strength in the middle hurt them the most during century league play. The other teams key big people were able to dominate when the games were on the line in the 4th quarter. These circumstances were most evident during the teams 60-59 to Orange. Valley's Alonzo Jamison, Santa Ana's Eric Turner and Orange's David Roth all were able to carry their teams to victory during the last crucial minutes. Next Seaon: Guard David Jones and forward Randy Simpson return. Other varsity help must come from guards Ralph Pacheco, and Tony Perez. Size again appears to be a major problem. Dan Kauten, Paul James, Jeff Ellis, Chris Rodwick are varsity candidates at center. All of them need extensive work in the weight in the summer. Whoever works the hardest and improves the most will get the 1st chance to start on the varsity.

10 and 4 in League

Canyons J.V. Basketball team had a fine year with a 16-8 overall record, Outstanding players were Tony Perez who averaged 20.2 per game with his dominating offensive and defensive plays. Ralph Pacheco with his commanding charge and consistent shooting. Jamie James who was the big man for the Comanches with his execellent rebounding. Sammy Bawahab with strong plays in a out of the key. Scott Zuggel w the team leader on and off t court. Mike Andjus has the pote tial to be the canyon great. Dan Kauten is definitely Canyons ne Superstar. Other outstandi players were Dean Brown, Mi Brown, and Jeff Wallace, ne year's Varsity should be ve Outstanding!!!

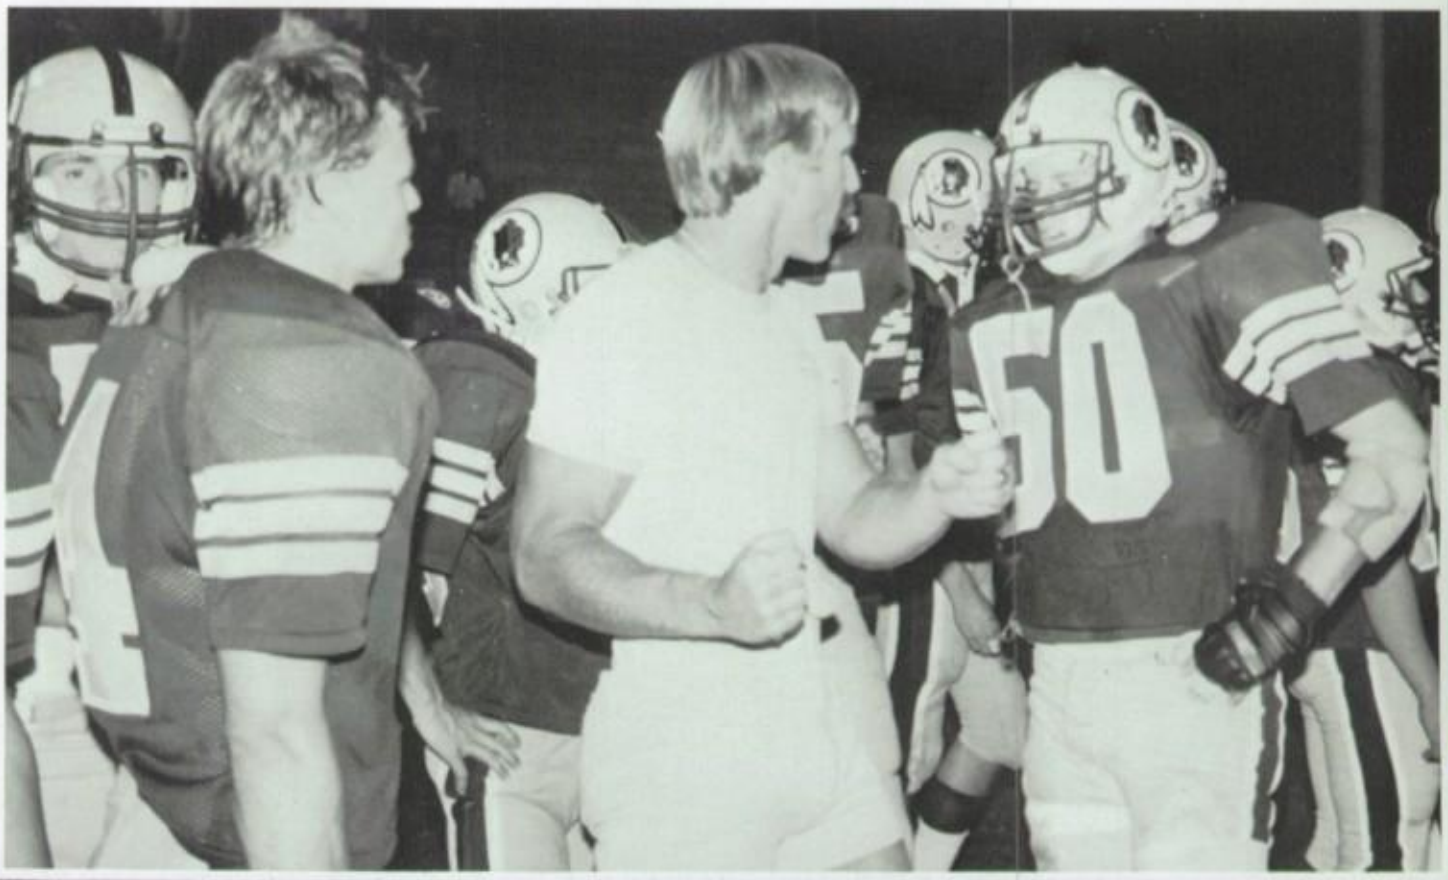
Sophomore Football

Dale La Rue, Tony Burton, and Adam Burton lead a young and in-experienced group of sophomores through a tough Century League schedule. Dale ran for more than 100 yards in every game. Many of Adam's passes went to brother Tony, an outstanding receiver. Strong blocking was provided by Dan Kauteri, Jeff Ellis, Randy Spradlin, and Steve Torres.

A defense that allowed less than ten points a game was anchored by Justin Edwards, George Ericksen, Wes Millen, and Dave Walker. Pete Perry and Phil Gasca lead the team in interceptions and defense lineman Shaun Paris lead the team in quarterback sacks.

A little flip 'n roll for another yard, why not? Dale La Rue is looking to gain some more yardage. Defensive lineman Shawn Paris makes the quarterback think twice about getting the ball the next time.

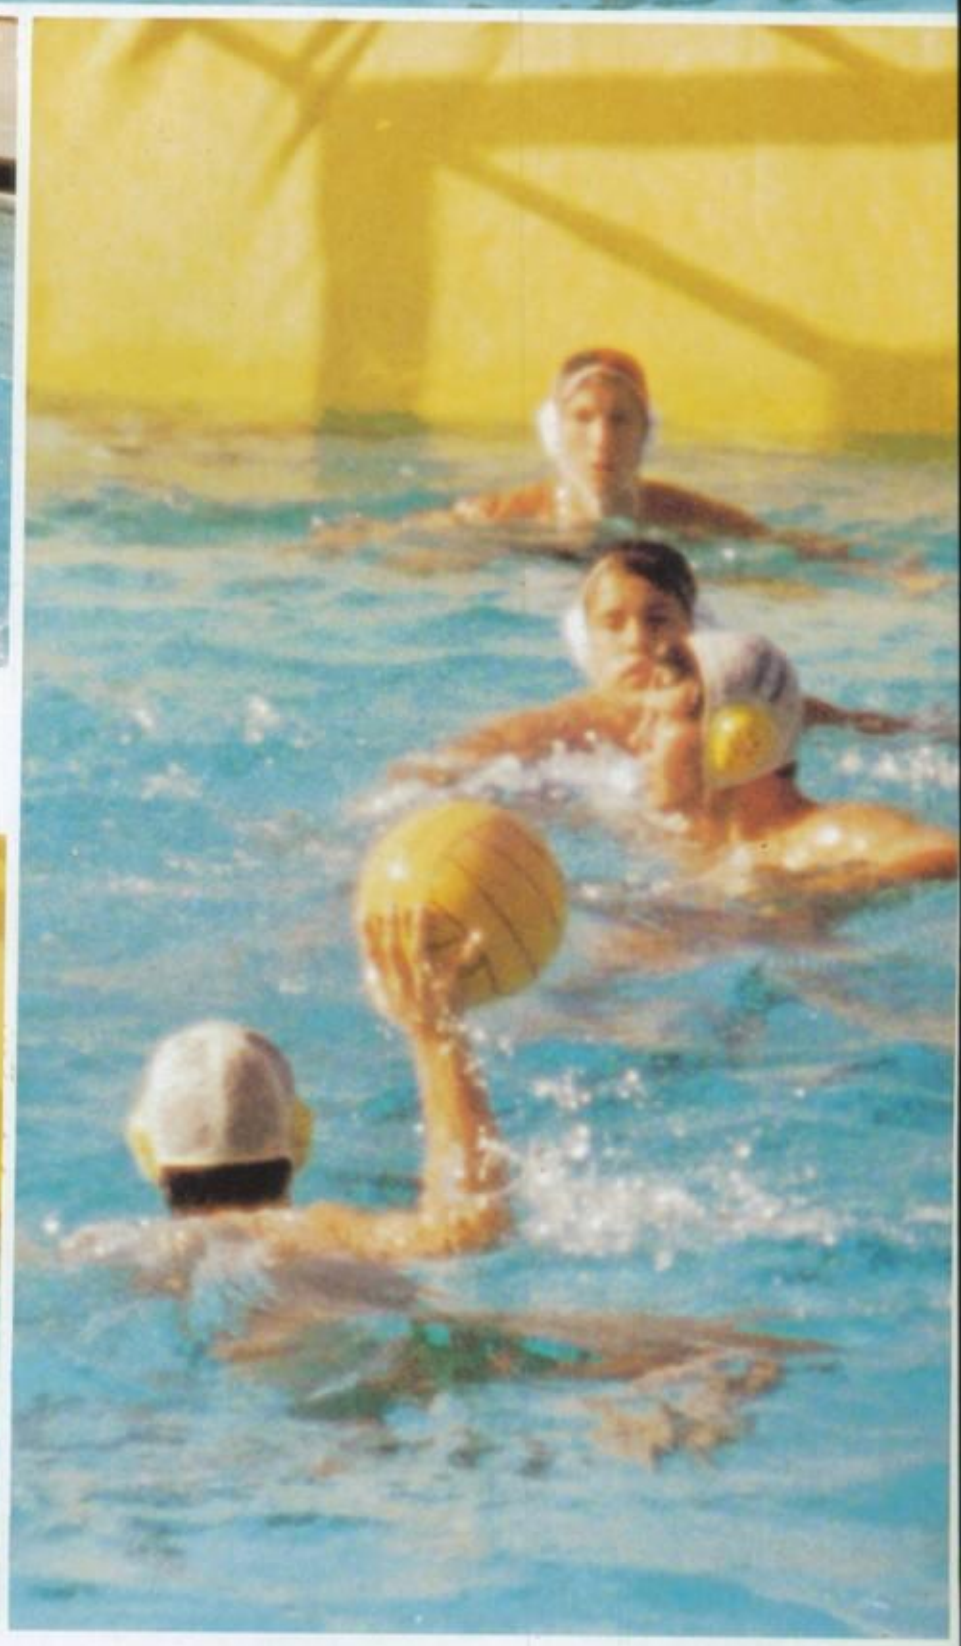


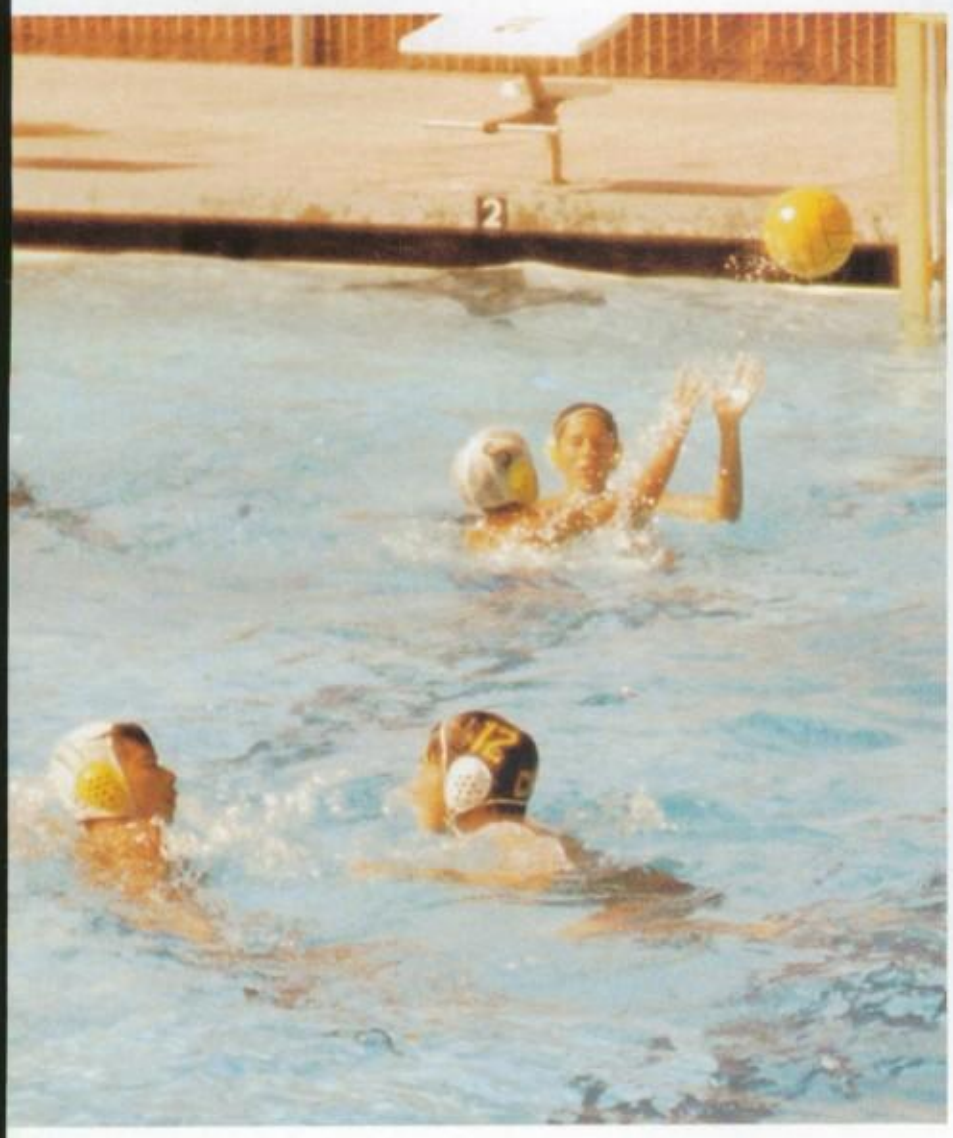
Coach Weinkauf talks to the big five-oh about the offensive squad. Todd French gets ready to rifle a pass, while his line keeps the rush off. The Infamous French to Shull combination. Coach Hust during a half-time meeting.

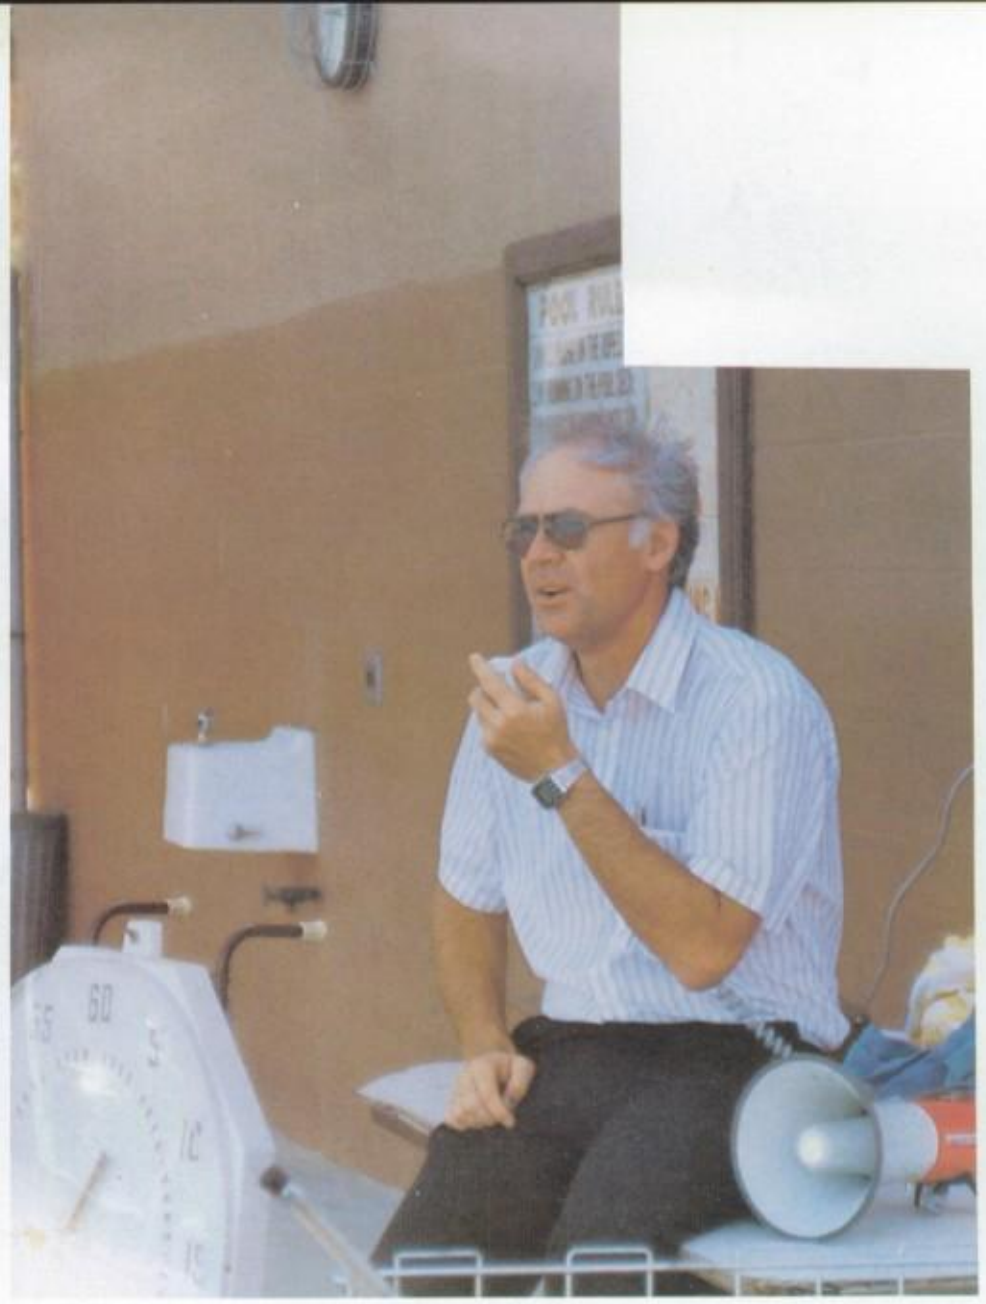
What does it take to be a football player? It takes determination. The tough part of being a Comanche football player does not end with 'Hell Week.' Practice every day after school for about 3 hours. Run through plays over and over again, has to be perfect every time! Sure it sounds boring, but it is necessary. Of course running through the plays is not all they do. Just plain RUNNING is a big part of it too. Football players have a great incentive for winning, running, or the lack of it. Being on the football team may not sound great, but after the season is over, and you can look back on all the good times, it makes all of it, even hell-week, worth it.

The menacing Canyon line. Junior Ray Shull gains some yardage on this run. Gang up on 'em! That's the motto of this defense. Getting ready for the first tackler, Mike Gayer sprints downfield. In an interview with the papers, Brett Hatz tells all, as player of the week.

Some of the shots, passes, and defense that brings Canyon's water polo team to the top.





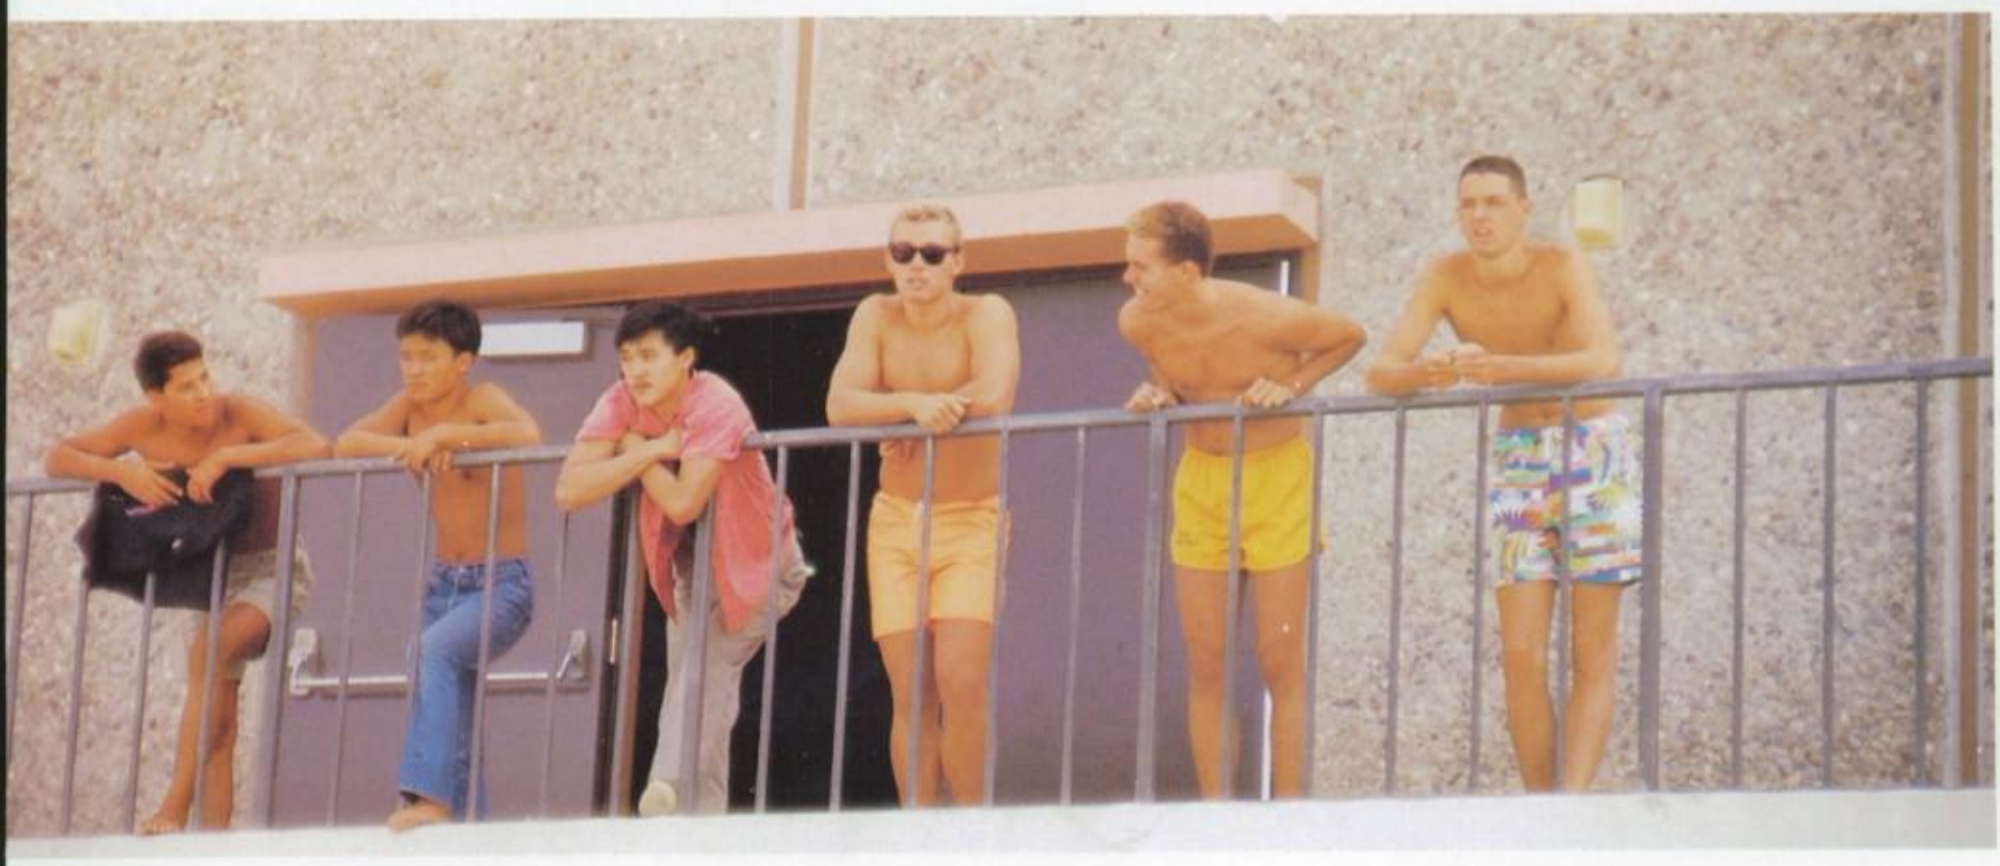


Coach Sprague commanded the Canyon water polo team to another winning season in '85.

The team's nucleus, consisting of Toby Albers, Paul Duron, Bennie Sprague, and Jay Yoo, fought to take fifth place in the Century League with crushing defeats of Santa Ana and Orange as well as a dazzling victory over El Modena. Bennie Sprague earned a place on the Junior National Water Polo team with his outstanding in-water expertise. Other key players were on Canyon's well-tanned water polo squad were Dave Stevens and John Nehi. Blocking Canyon's goal were goalies Jeff McClure and Dave Shawn.

Canyon's awesome sophomore team showed great promise for Canyon's future varsity teams by displaying astounding brilliance in their very impressive season. A few of the many excellent members of the team were Jimmy Nehi and Brian Turner.

A little pass, and Canyon is closer to the net. Coach Sprague bellowing out instructions to the team. Part of the team looking cool before a practice.



Comanches

Canyon's '85 Comanche footballers had an even steven season. A 5-5 record is not an accurate showing of the teams ability. Led by Todd French, Canyon's #1 all-time quarterback, they had an incredible passing attack. #44 Chuck Zacour was Frenches Primary receiver, and had a great year, setting a team record of the most touchdowns. None of this would have happened though without our outstanding offensive line, including Seniors Scott Homochezki, Scott Wallingford, Mel Greene, and Rob Luthor. We also had some stars on defense. Matt Alario, Tim DeLasantos, Tim Dunn, Brian Mills, Troy Oliver, Mike Gayer, and our defensive captain Brett Hatz, were our secondary, while the tough work up front was done by Jeff Harrison, Steve Deshano, Jason Willbourne and Mike Voto.

Canyon was never really blown off the field, mainly because of our positive attitude toward the game. Coaches Hust, Weinkoff, Saibens, O'Keefe, Carnes, Glass and Anderson made sure that the team both had the will and the way to win. Practices were a study of determination, intensity, and concentration focusing on their winning objective.

The Guillotine Team

Canyon High has quite a winning team. Coach Bowden has guided them to 5 consecutive Century League championships, and countless numbers of tournament victories.

This year the team is filled with good players, but as Bowden points out, no real superstars. "We've got a bunch of Indians but no chiefs." says Bowden about the '86 team. Even with no chiefs this year's squad is turning out some great performances, like their match against last year's #1 Edison, Canyon was victorious by a 31-26 margin.

The Soph's

Our Sophomores were once again dominant in the century league winning the championships with a 7-0 league record and a 18-0 underfeat season overall. The team won 4 tournaments, the Canyon 5-way, the Chino 5-way and the Canyon Invitational Frosh/Soph tournament. Team standouts were: John Jason, Chris Hawk, Mike Darling, Rod Trenholm, JD Jeppson, Fred Chun, John Jenike, Pete Perry, Mike Aphessetche, Dominic Choi, Dave Ure, Jim Nihei, Jeff Brandt, and Fernando Zoota.

The JV's

Our JV wrestlers were absolutely awesome this year winning another Century league championship and going 23-0 in dualmeets. Our JV's, in fact, were so good that they entered two varsity tournaments. Not only did they compete in the Brea tournament, they won it aganist 15 varsity teams, including two from our league. The team also placed 4th at the much tougher San Clemente varsity tournament. In addition, they won the team championships at the Canyon invitational JV, the workman JV, the Belflower JV tournament and finaly put the crowning touch on the season by running away with the century league JV championships by placing 9 out of the 13 in individual champions: John Jason, Bryan Guerena, J.D. Jeppson, Charlie Armendariz, Steve Call, Rich Herman, Steve Marshall, Denny Wallace, and John Ambuehl. Six second placers were: Darin Lowder, Rich Moon, Pete Parry, Mark Dome, Jim Frize, and Greg Munro. Albert Chun and Dominic Choi were 3rd and Sonny Kang 4th. It was said that our JV's were the #2 team in our league.

"A Will to Win"

What does it take to make a great soccer team? There are several skills which must be present in order to accomplish this. Such skills as dribbling, shooting, trapping, being able to fake out one's opponent, and the ability to memorize offensive and defensive plays. But what of the most important factor, the individuals who must execute these skills. They must be hardworking, dedicated, and have the will to be the best. The '86 varsity soccer team had such a will.

In a pre-season tournament, the Comanche team dominated the field from beginining to end. Part of the team's success goes to the leadership of Kevin McKhan and Steve Vellemen. Although the team couldn't keep the consistent record of their pre-season tournament, they kept the recognition of Canyon's soccer team as the team to beat.

Up and Coming

What makes a winning soccer team? Agressive forwards, sweeping half-backs, defensive full-backs and a strong goalie. This is what Canyon's J.V. soccer team has. And they have proved it with much improvement from the begining of the season Canyon has pulled through thick and thin to show that teamwork can pull off a winning season. Coach Randy Martinez, worked with his team to show that strong determination and effort can produce the winning combination. Congratulations to all of the J.V. soccer team for tieing for first place in the Century League! The upcoming sophomores and juniors show promise for next season, so watch out! JK, well

The Big Splash

The canyon Comanches boys' swim team is the largest team in the school's history consisting of 5 seniors, 9 juniors, and 22 sophomores. The junior Varsity team, comprised mostly of sophomores, had an outstanding season led by Eric Ufkes, David Trueblood, Don Fernandez, Mike Petronella, and Bill Nussbaum. The varsity boy's had a strong 1986 season through the leadership of senior Bennie Sprague, Toby Albers, Paul Duron, Steve Freeman in addition great swims were provided by juniors Dave Schalm, Clarke Watson, Chris Chovit, and sophomores Devin McGuire, Aric Kent, and Brian Turner. This boy's team worked hard and it paid off, watch out Century league in 1987!

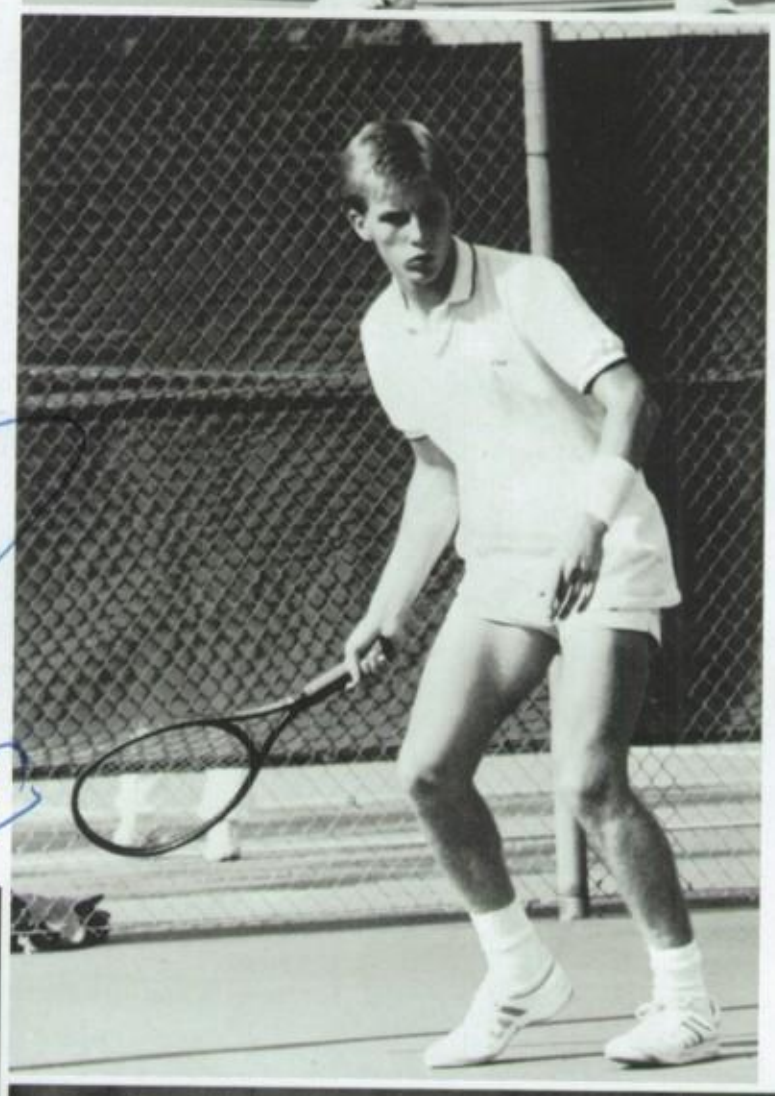
Net Gains

Canyon's 1986 tennis tryouts had the largest turn-out of athletes ever! Over 50 boys worked to get a spot on this 22 man squad. Coming back from last year and finishing their careers as seniors were: Farouc Jaffer, Dru Nadow, and Richard Lo. New senior additions were: Terry Marcoline and Scott Kelley. Also, returning as juniors, were: Bryan Oliver and Nhon Doung. New Sophomores were: Jason De Falco, Scott Page, Scott Graves, Jose Lynch, Dan Price, Jeff Heitt, Brian Leist, Brad Chisick, Raju Date, Scott Weber, and Jeff Wylie. New juniors to the team were: Paul Reynolds and Charlie Hoffman.



The varsity doubles circuit had senior stand-out Scott Kelley in the number one spot paired up with Scott Page. Farouc Jaffer and Bryan Oliver were the strong second team while sophomores Dan Price and Jeff Heitt played in the third spot.

On the singles scene, Canyon's #1 and #2 players were both ranked players in their brackets. Terry Marcoline (#1) rewrote the record books with most sets won, best season record, best league record ect. ect. Jason De Falco (#2) brought his talent to Canyon from Indio. Jason and Terry were two of the top four players in the Century League.

#3 singles changed throughout the season. Dru Nadow was the first choice at this position. Back-up players in the #3 spot were Jose Lynch, Scott Graves and Richard Lo.

The Varsity's only competition this year came from league rival, Foothill. Canyon dominated all other Century League schools clinching a C.I.F. playoff spot for the third year in a row!!

Pre-season is over with both Varsity and JV squads winning big. The Varsity began with a close win over highly respected El Toro, 10-8. The team followed with wins over La Habra, 17-1, Sonora, 13-5, and Esperanza, 10-8. The only loss during pre-season was against Servite, 7-11. In February, the Varsity hosted the second annual Canyon Team Challenge. Eight teams played during a Saturday for trophies and medals. Canyon, although not winning, played very well against some of the top teams in the country, including La Quinta, Diamond Bar, Los Amingos and Servite. Villa Park was the first league team to fall victim to Canyon's strong singles squad. Terry Marcoline, Jason DeFalco, and Scott Kelley took every singles set. Only one doubles set was necessary to win the match, 10-8. Senior Terry Marcoline has yet to lose a singles set this season! Helping to stengthen the Varsity team are Farouc Jaffer, Dru Nadow, Bryan Oliver, Scott Page, ScottGraves, Jose Lynch, Dan Price, Richard Lo, and Jeff Heitt.

Returning as JV coach, Jim Mansfield has possibly the strongest squad ever. The team's record is 4-2 with wins over La Habra, Servite, Esperanza, and Sonora. Craig Moore is playing top singles while the team of Nhon Duong and Monu Joseph are playing the most consistant doubles. Other team members include Brian Leist, Brad Chisick, Raju Date, Scott Webber, Charlie Hffman, Paul Reynolds, an Jeff Wylie.

As the annual goes to print the JV Tennis team has compiled a fine 6-2 record. The team is currently in second place in the Century League and with upcoming matches against El Modena and Foothill they have their sights set on first place. Outstanding play by Jeff Wylie, Charlie Hoffman, Nhon Duong, Manu Joseph, Craig Moore, and Brian Leist have contributed to the team having one of their finest seasons ever.

Makin' Tracks

The track team started off the season with impressive scores against Anaheim and Esperanza High School. The following weeks moving into League comppetition found the Comanches facing two of the strongest teams in Orange County, Santa Ana Valley and Villa Park. The varsity lost by close scores while the J.V. and sophomore earned victories.

Outstanding varsity competition are Rodney Wright in the hurdles (2nd in Ornage County) along with Jim Mury and Greg Munroe. The distance group is Greg Neitzel, Warren Holmes, Chris Lewis, and Mike Giesen. Sprinters are lead by K. J. Blumenssadt, Brett Hatz, and Chris Brown, and Glen Van Dyke. In the jumps it is Mark Bowman (High Jump), and Dan Chapman and Chris Chamberon in (Pole Vault).

The J.V.'s are faced by Al Amato, John Bardon, Chris Larsch, Hans Kroshian and Jason Wilborn in shot and discus. Distance standouts are Jeff Bernot, Mike Jachtschitz, Mark Matterson, Steve Mrsielski, Tim Meltreger and Mark Risco.

Another Winning Season

The 1986 baseball season began March 18th. Both the Varsity and JV are doing exceptionally well this season. According to coach Hi LaValle, the Varsity coach, this year's team will go very far if the hitting improves. The junior Varsity is also doing well led by the outstanding pitching of John Harper, John Cummings, David Bladow and Mike Weiss. The leadership of Darin O'Banion and the catçhing of Tom Merchant has also helped the team.

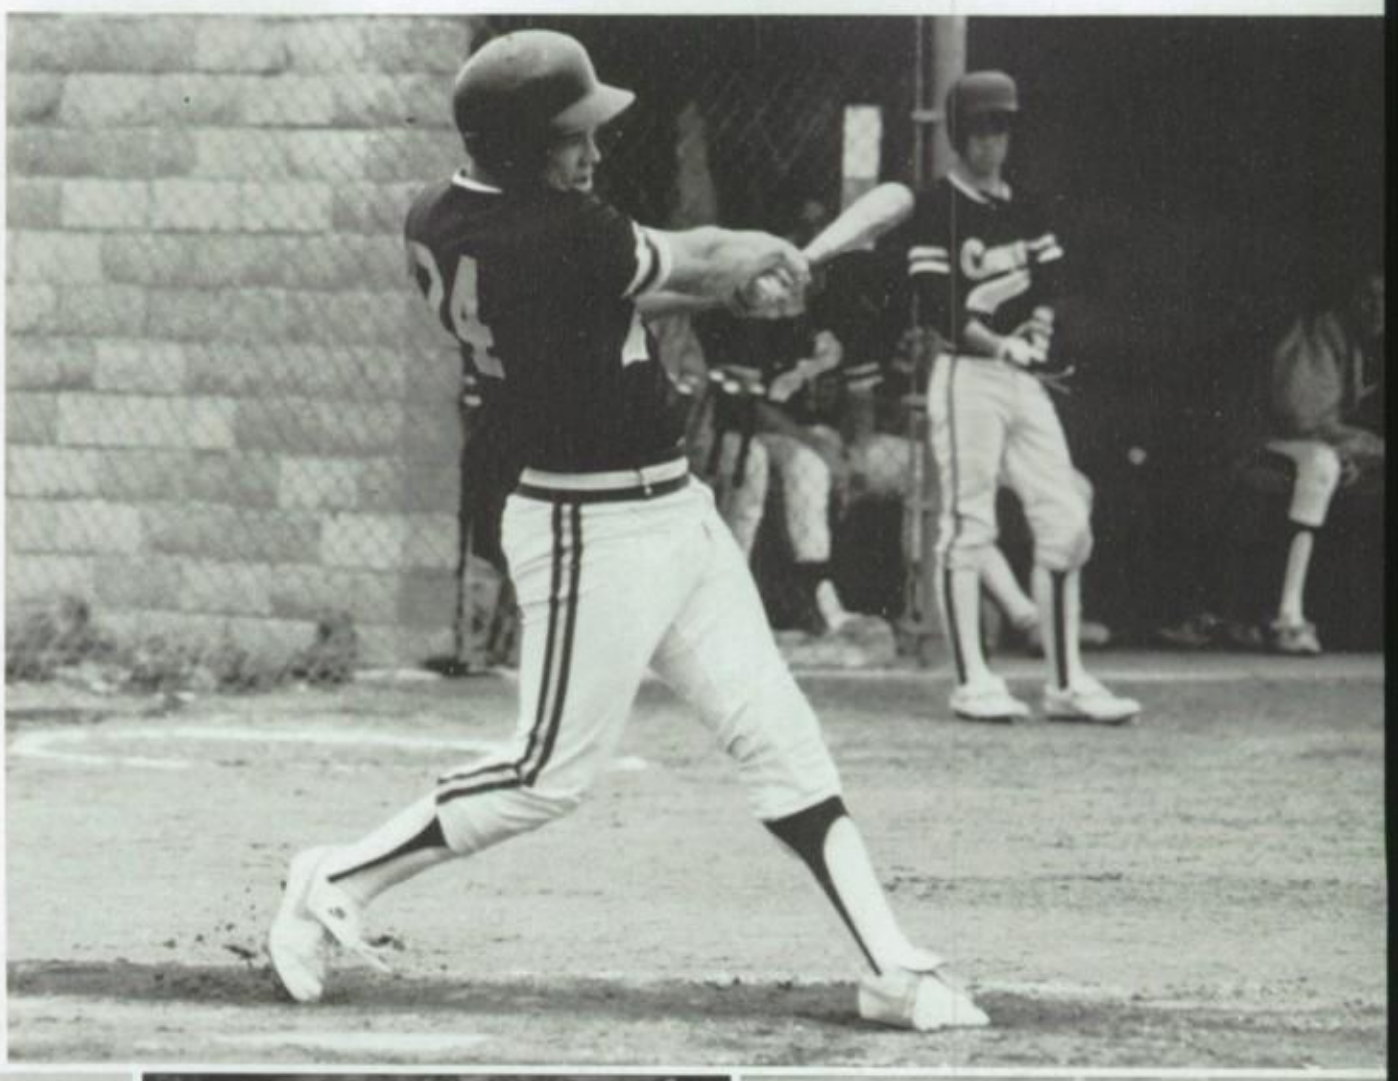
The Varsity players loaf around as the coach delivers another pep talk in the home field dugout.

Play Ball

The junior varsity baseball team, with an impressive 14-1 record, is swinging for a hit at becomming one of Canyon's best teams ever. This versatile team has a great overall attitude, no matter on which side of the field they play, with an awesome pitching staff and an equally aggressive fielding squad, Canyon's JV team is out for first place. The E.R.A. for the JV team is down to a misely .90. The infield has committed very few errors with a lot of outstanding plays. The JV's have an excellent batting average of .450 for their starters. Coaches Brohn and Welch believe the team will go on winning and keep on the Canyon tradition.



1. Mike Glennie showing his power at the plate. 2. Dave Bladow in the wind up. 3. Motion to the plate . . . 4. And the pitch! And another strike! 5. Mike Glennie's awesome play to get the out against the Weenies! 6. Chris Delalio up to the plate . . . 7. Swinging for a base hit! 8. Chris making a sliding catch tosave a run. 9. Mike Cifranic contributing his fine defensive talents to the Commanche team!

1. Mike makes the tag to get the stealing weenie out! 2. The Commanche J.V. Baseball Team: Top Row: coach H. Brohn, J. Harper, J. Cummings, D. Kauten, B. Bladow and C. Delalio. Middle Row: M. Waddell, S. Call, J. Wyatt, J. Elguindy, D. Olinick, and M. Weiss. Bottom Row: M. Glennie, M. Wallace, D. O'Banion, M. Cifranic, and S. Meyers. 3. Danny Kauten saving a run at the plate. 4. Celebrating a homerun, by Danny Kautin, is the Commanche J.V. baseball team. 5. Matt Wadell, eyeing the ball . . . 6. Making contact for a base hit!

Sophomore Baseball

Once again Canyons Sophomore baseball team has proven that hard work can pay off. With a strong defence and even better hitting abilities, the Sophomores have managed to tie for first place. Congratulations guys!! Watch out for these players next year.

Pg. 107, 1. John Cummings waiting for a fast ball. 2. Kevin Mahoney burns into second base. 3. Greg Kerr making another spectacular throw. 4. A sophomore swinging for the home run. 5. The sophomore team congratulating each other on another win.

A Par Season

When golf tryouts began in late February who was to expect that more than twenty-five golfers would challenge for only six positions. By the third day of tryouts only 12 players survived the cut. The remaining six would vie for the spots. The seniors reigned supreme with utter dominating play. Seniors Sean Caligiuri, on the third day mystified the team with an incredible hole-in-one on hole number nine on Canyon's home course Green River Country Club. Other seniors are Dory Van Fleet, Criss Frye, Gregg Fernandez, and Jeff (the myth) Marno. Overpowering play by the juniors were led by Roy (bonzai) Sakai. Scott Moore and Bob (herb) Epps and surprising play by sophomore Jason Goldberg. Up to press time the Comanches are completely ripping all opposition in the Century League with blowout victories over Orange, Villa Park and Santa Ana. The Comanches should qualify for C.I.F. for a sixth straight time. Good job guys!!!

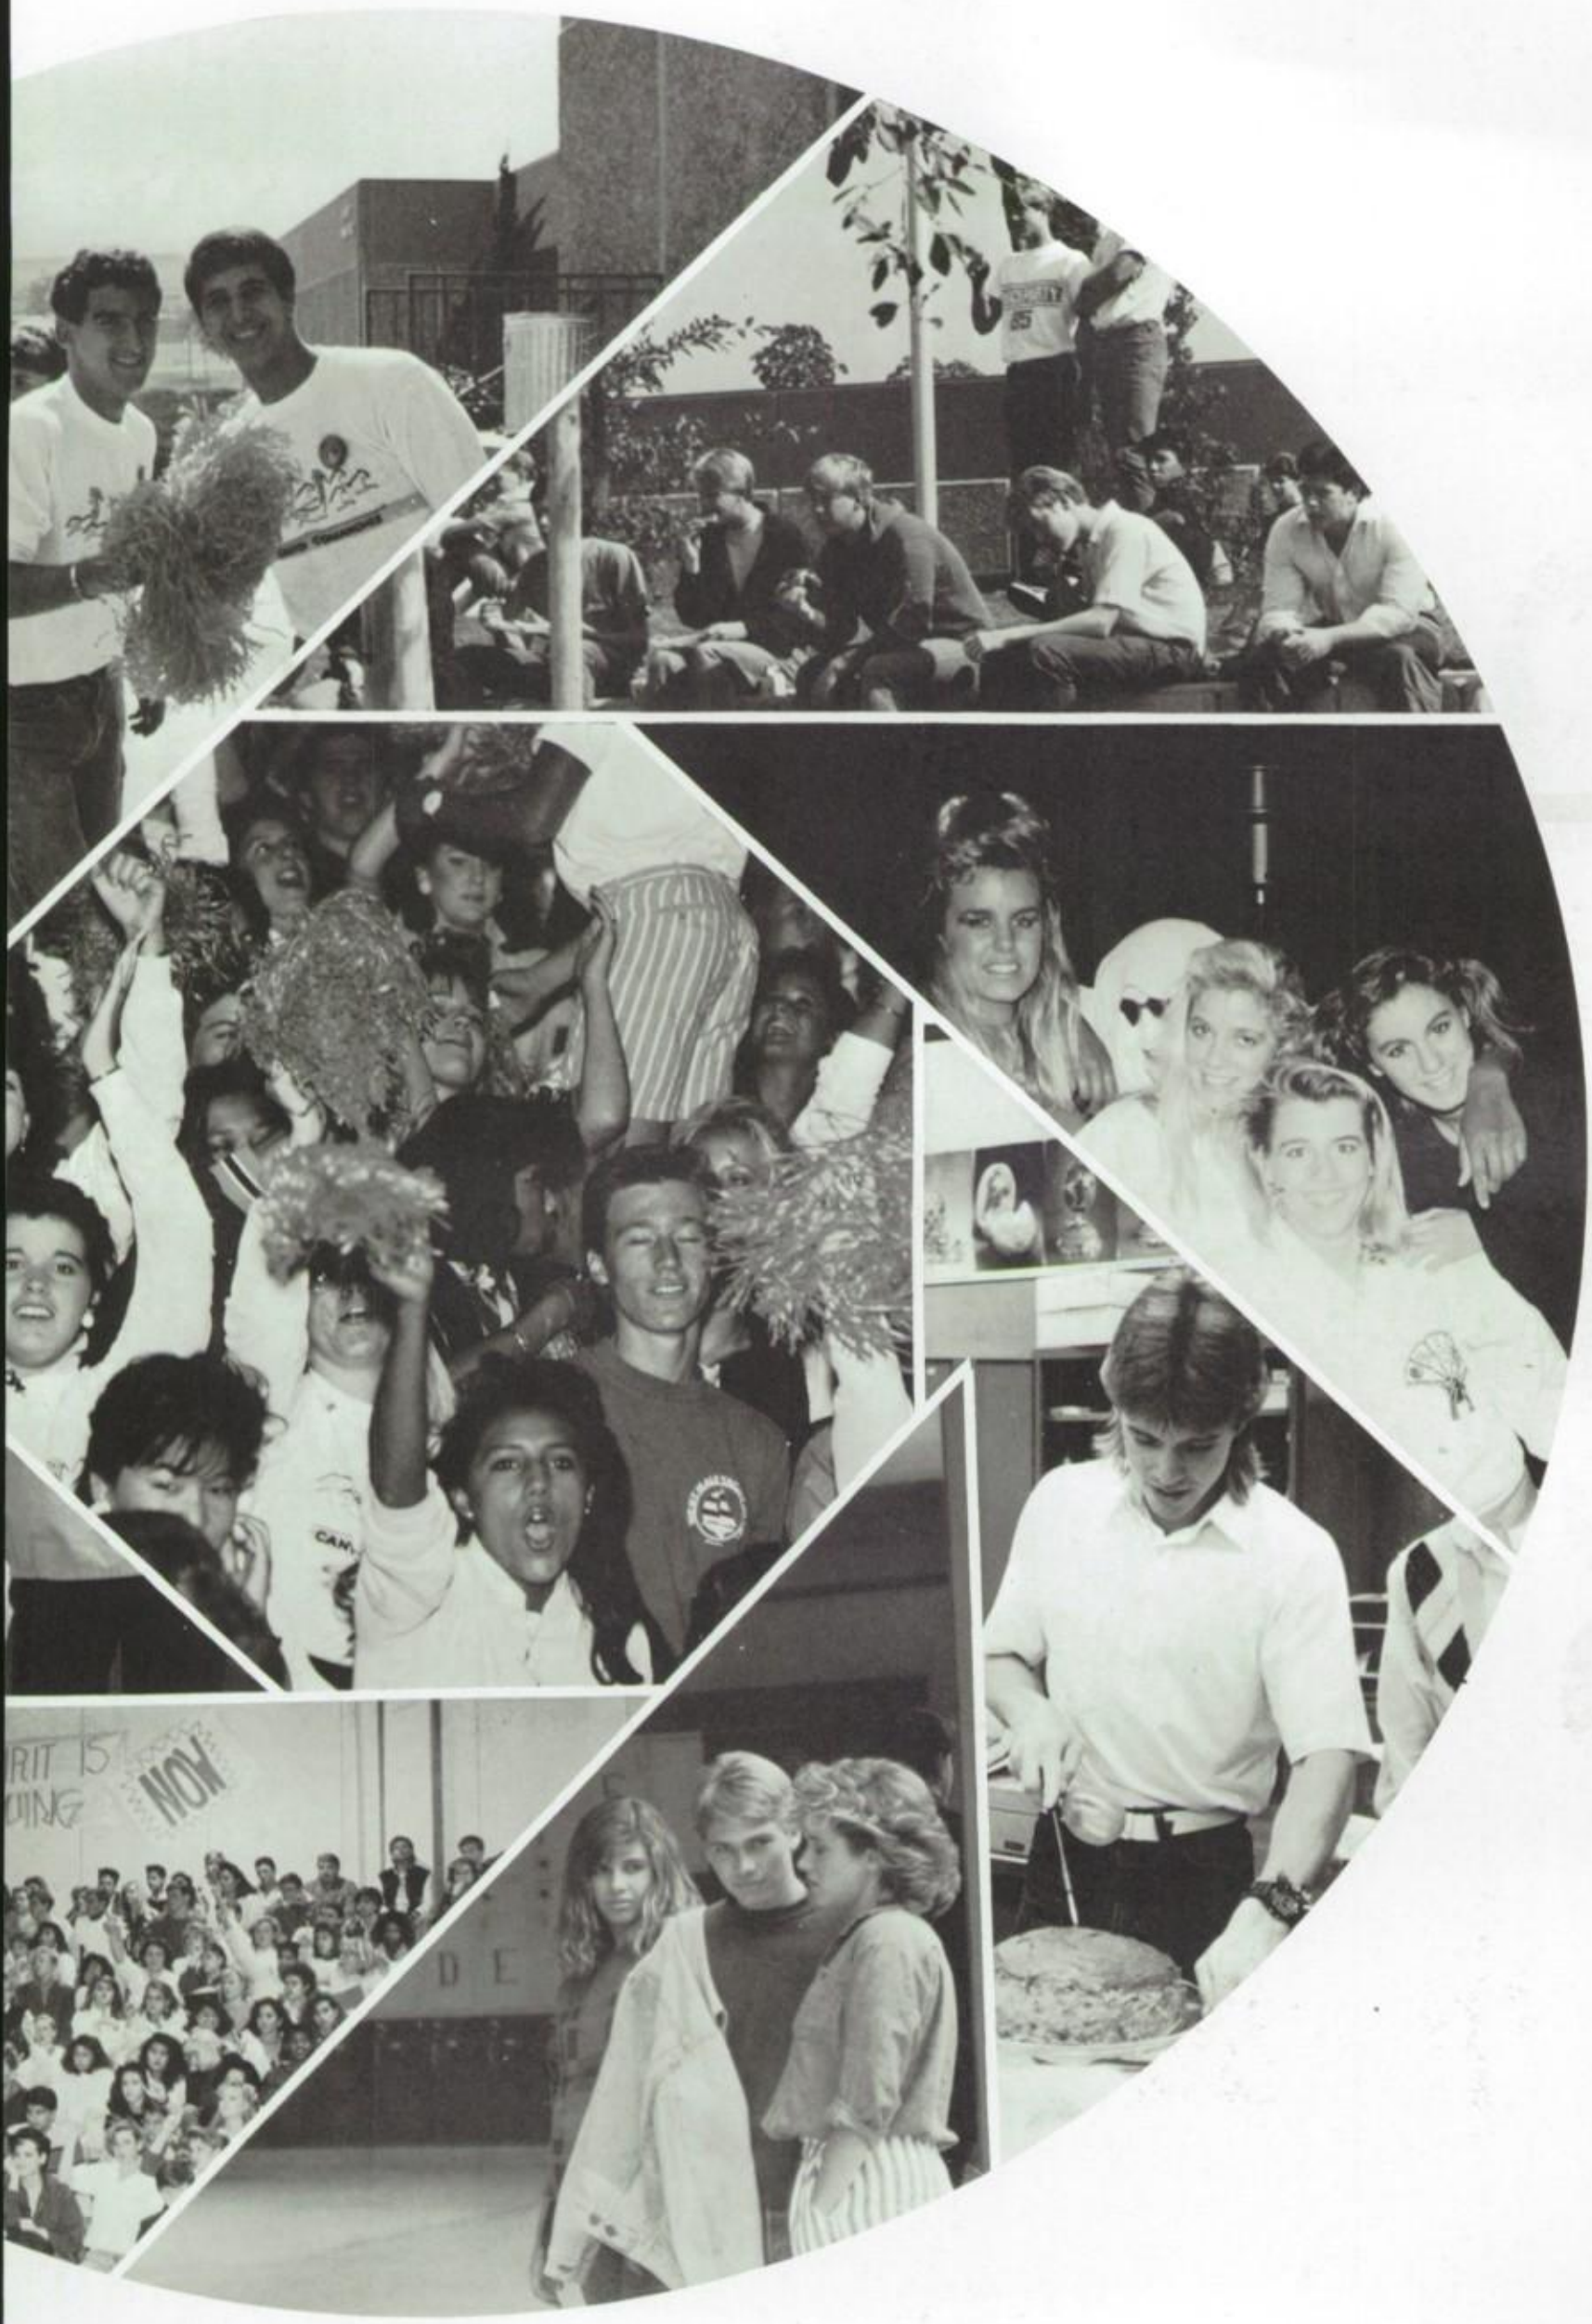
Classes

Some things will never be forgotten!!! Special parties that you have to get all dressed up for, either hang out clothes or a costume. Sitting around campus talking to your friends at lunch time. We cannot forget those wild and crazy pep assemblies.



ALL HAIL CANYON SOPHOMORES

Pep assemblies are one of the places sophomores can show their pride. The way the class of '88 has shown their spirit, there's no question they will be number one by the time they're seniors.

LEADER OF THE PACK

Along with each year's new sophomore football team, comes someone who stands out from all the rest. Whether it be leadership ability, academically, or performance. This year's star studded football player, Dale La Rue, shone in every area. Dale received high recognition from Coach Owens and others who say Dale is definately a leader. Great going Dale!!

NUTRITION?

Vital to every growing sophomore. A short 10 minutes set aside each day, everyday. But one has to wonder if such foods as donuts, cheerie pies and taco snacks fulfill the daily allowance needed for a growing, striving sophomore. Instead nutrition seems to provide extra added sugars serving as energy for bouncing off the walls for the next two periods before refueling again at lunch time.

Who's he? A real low profile guy, but an individual with tremendous and beautiful talent. If you didn't know Derek Martin you may have missed making the aquaintance of one of Canyon's top musicians. Cool! Sweet! Fantastic! These are all words that describe Derek's abilities whether playing a guitar or keying the piano. Although he hasn't yet reached stardom, his day of discovery is coming. Hundreds of hours of practice combined with raw talent can only lead to success. Look for his name on your favorite music marquee in the years ahead.

From a Porsche to a 4x4, just about everyone tried their driving skills on the "s-turn" track. Where's that you say? There's narry a senior that didn't know the location of that famous raceway in the hills behind Villa Park. We took a few chances but we weren't reckless. Anyone who could navigate that course without incident deserved the recognition of his/her classmates. When we look back, maybe we'll think how crazy we must have been. And then, maybe we won't. One way or another we developed confidence and had a lot of fun at the same time.

It's a technical world we live in, but why couldn't we control our clocks? It seemed like the day would never end because for a good part of the year the day didn't go beyond 8:30 am. Ah! If only one of us had the work experience to be a clock mechanic. Is there such a thing? We know our administrators were concerned, but really, four months without using a minute of class time was asking a little too much of seniors. But there was a day of reckoning — somebody figured it all out and the clocks began to move. The teachers were happy. We were finally progressing towards graduation day.

What do you mean it wasn't authorized? It's important we had our nutrition if we were to do our best. It was a fast flight at lunchtime, but we generally always made it successfully. No one enjoyed trash pickups or Saturday detentions. However, we knew we would have to pay the consequences once in a while. But, why not! The cafeteria food was pretty good, but occasionally it was fun to bite the "forbidden fruit." We just wanted to see if escape was possible. It was!

The word "French" implies romance, but to the class of '86, French meant a lot more. Everyone knew Todd French as one of Canyon's top athletes and scholars and just as importantly, a real gentleman and good friend. He established all kinds of records on the football field and in the classroom. His scholastic achievement of 4.0 was equalled by similar capability on the turf. Although Canyon doesn't award "Letters" on graduation, it's expected that Todd will have many behind his name as he further pursues his academic interests.

The days were filled with SAT's, ACH'S and ACT's, essays letters, pictures, campus visits, etc. There were catalogues to review, scholarships to seek out and many, many other plans and decisions to be made. The persuit of a college education is far from simple, but it was evident from the hustle and bustle that a great number of Canyon seniors planned to do just that. Kevin McKhann, one of Canyon's brightest and popular scholars, was caught in the act of liberating his savings to pay in advance a few of those many anticipated college expenses. Although it will be tough academically and financially, seniors were beginning to look back with fond memories and looking forward to the challenge of the future.

Looking forward

All anyone had to do was glance around the parking lot to know we grew up in an age of affluence. Not all of us were so fortunate, but it was sure great to have friends with Porsches, BMW's, Jaguars, and other "cool" cars. Although having a cool car won't matter much if we didn't get the education needed to some day stand the cost ourselves, it was sure neat seeing those classy cars and even better when we had a chance to drive one. Best of all, our classmates didn't have any "airs" about their good fortune. It will be interesting to look forward to our tenth and subsequent reunions — what will we see in the parking lots then?

What makes a great musician? Hours upon hours of practicing? Plain old raw talent? Or is it just a little bit of both? Whatever it may be, Curtis Toney has what it takes. If you didn't know Curtis Toney, you may have missed meeting one of the top musicians at Canyon. Whether keeping the beat to rock, jazz, or any other type of music, he has a style all his own, and which in turn will only lead to success. His days of stardom have not yet come, but he will no doubt, in the future, leave his mark in music history.

Our folks thought we were going to Disneyland an awful lot when we talked about "submarine rides," but they were pleased to know that we certainly wouldn't be in trouble if we enjoyed submarines that much. We weren't being dishonest with them — we just assumed Mom and Dad knew what we were talking about. Boy! How language and its meaning changes over the years. The views from our submarines frequently looked out over the whole Santa Ana Canyon or South Coast with its millions of lights a glitter.

We certainly weren't looking out a porthole at a murky ocean. Even if Mom and Dad didn't really know what our submarine race was all about, we don't think they would have minded that much. We don't know what they would have called it, but they probably enjoyed their own submarine race before becoming our parents.

The "Legend" was a legend in its own right, since for the first time the whole production and editorial staff were seniors. This wasn't good for Mrs. Wolfe because it meant she had to develop a whole new staff for the next school year, but the seniors who produced this year's Legend formed an outstanding team. They worked hard and played hard when the work was done. There were tough deadlines to meet, but once they were met there was a great sense of accomplishment. Everyone, without exception, did his job well. When the critical dates were met, everyone breathed a little easier and looked forward to seeing their efforts converted to print. They're proud of what they created for the class of '86. We hope you are to!

Medical reports state that there is no known cure for the common cold and definitely for senioritis! Signs usually begin to appear around the second semester of the sophomore year. Symptoms consist of burning desires to leave campus, trying to hold down two jobs and having to make an effort to "drop" by first period at least once a week. Car seats become cushioned with overdue homework, fatigue and irritability occurs from 7:45 a.m. to 2:39 p.m. and not being able to pull away from that "Famous Star" in Carl's Jr. at 12:29. The only solution in sight seems to be graduation!

One thing school taught us and had probably never been noticed is patience. And how couldn't one keep from learning patience when going to school with so many students. It could be seen as each day of going to school was a test of our nerves. From waiting to get in and out of Canyon's parking lot, to obtaining a little ole readmit, it seemed there would always be a line or some type of holdup, if you needed to do something. But this year's senior class can be thankful, for the class of '87 will have to put up with freshmen, and the test for patience will become a little bit harder.

What would high school be without activities? You know. Dances, Class competitions, those kinds of things. Well, we came very close to finding out this year when the school district decided they were going to save money by cutting back Canyon's activity funds. But with the outcry of many concerned parents and students, Canyon regained its funds. Could you imagine not having a senior prom, Winter formal, spirit week or class competitions. Things like these made school a little more enjoyable to go to. To some students it may not have mattered, but to the majority especially to the senior class, it meant a lot.

It's finally here. Graduation is just around the corner. The toughest play in our life is coming up. What play will we call. A job, vocational school, community college, a four year university, the military or maybe just maybe, a few months off to do those things we've always wanted to do.

Have we made the right decisions? Maybe we'll find we've set the goal and called the wrong play. But if that happens,

It's not all that bad. In the average persons lifespan, career goals change they say, at least four times. High school has given us the solid foundation to move ahead. Yeah! It's fourth down and goal to go. Maybe we won't all score the first time around, but we know now that life will present us with many opportunities if we seize them. We all eventually can be winners.

MARCHIN'

The 1985-1986 multi-talented marching band performed with such style and precision that it sent crowds to their feet. Our highly respected band captured the attention of all before whom it played with its unique performances. Not to be overlooked is the excellence of drum major Chris McCann, who led the band in each and every exciting half time performances. As always, the band kept up school pride and spirit at pep assemblies and football games with its great pep song. Overall, the band has a quality which compliments the picture of Canyon High School.

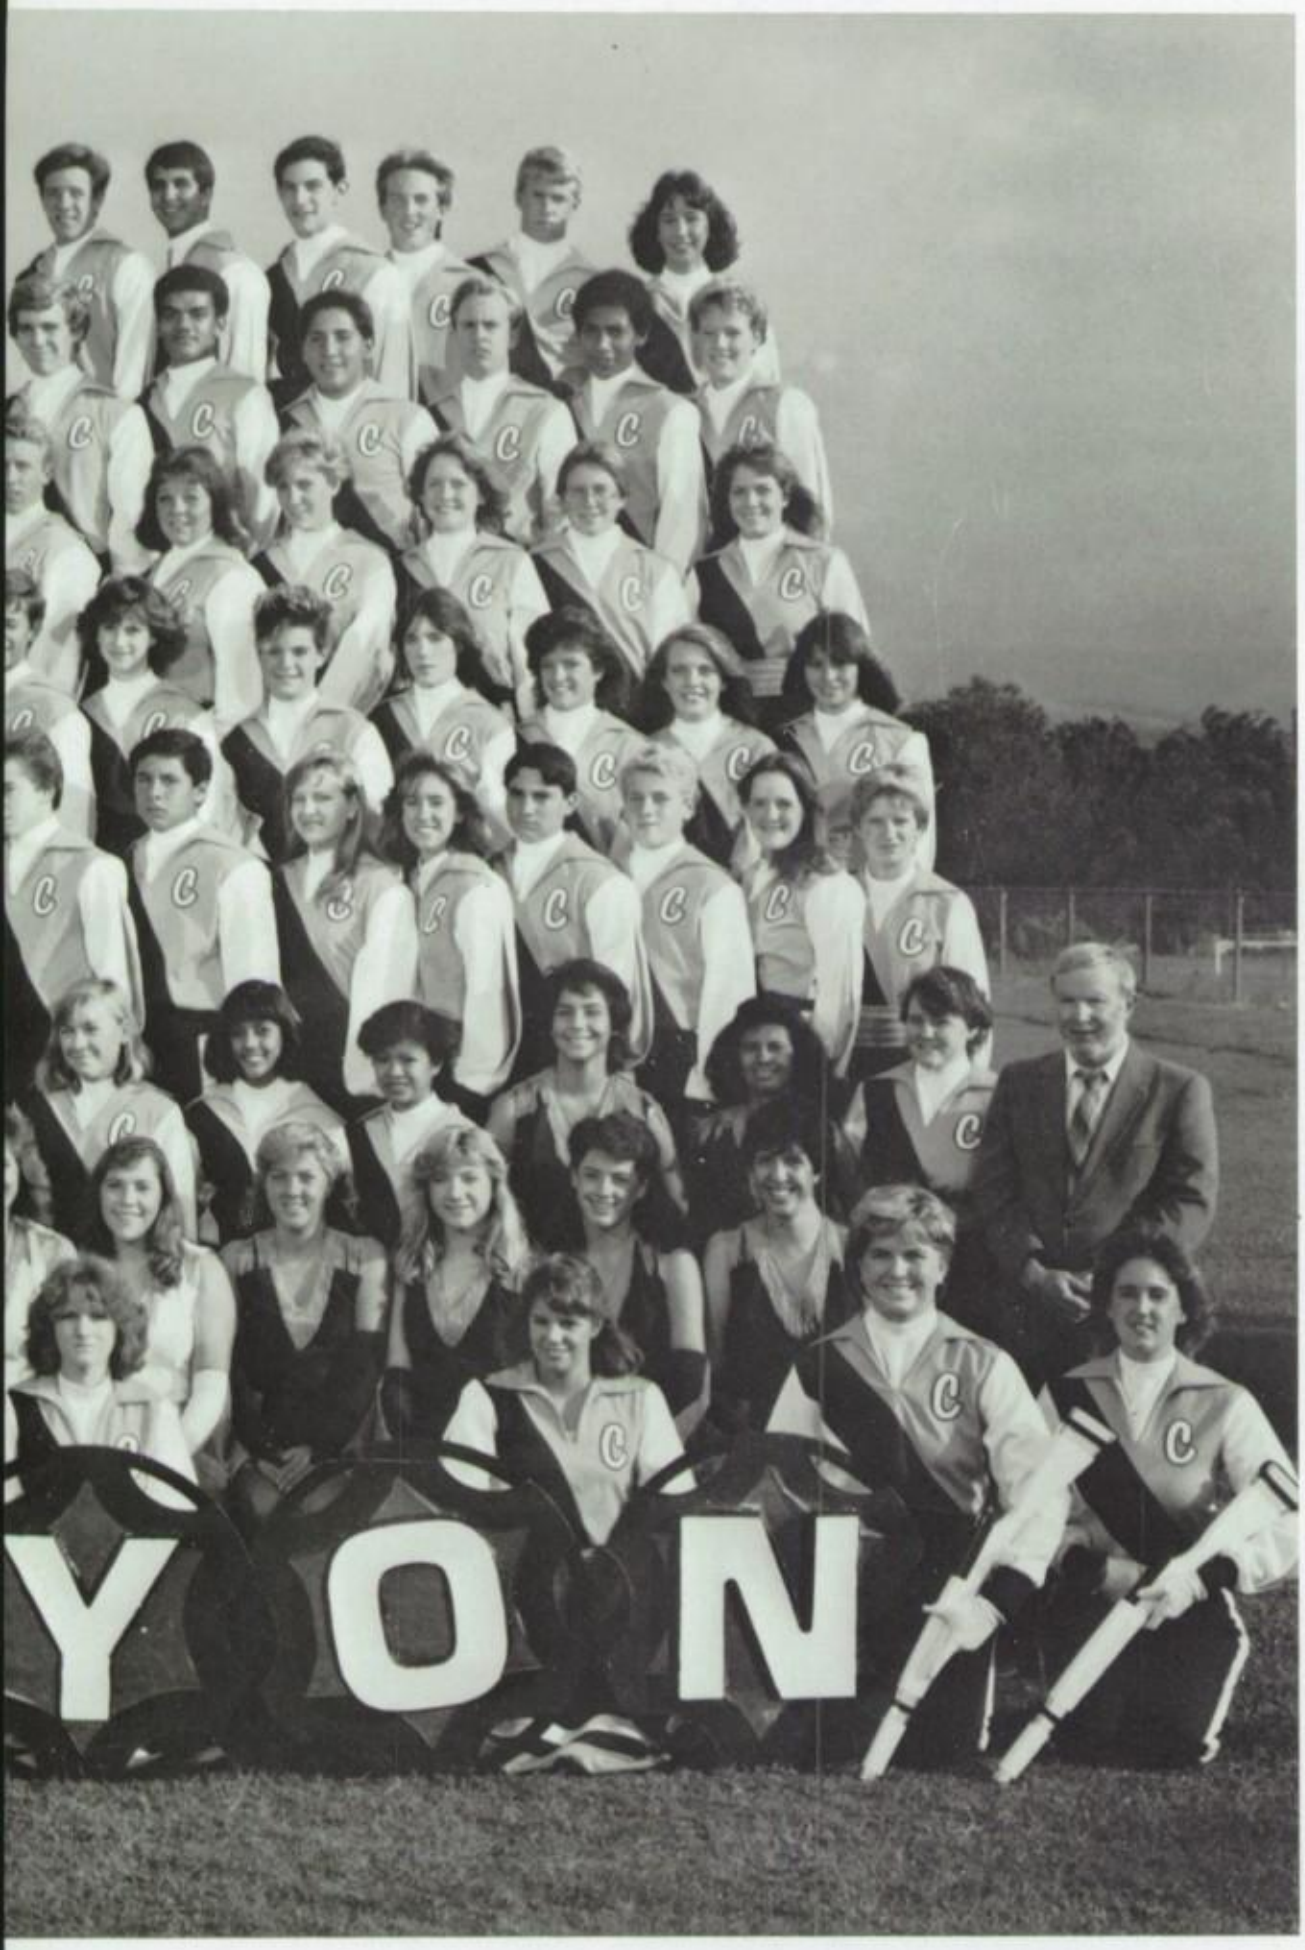
The Canyon High School Comanche Band, Flags, Drills Team and Banners participated in the Lake Elsinore Christmas Parade on Dec. 7 and swept all awards by placing first in every division.

These were the highest awards issued in the event. The band received a score of 920 out of 1000 topping all units in the parade. The Flags, Drill Team, and Drum Major, Chris McCann, all received first place trophies.

On Nov.23, the Tribe also placed first in their advanced class. The Comanches have been competing in higher classifications this year.

During the past three years the band has grown from 26 members to more than 70 playing members this semester. The entire entertainment unit has 102 members, making it the largest in the Orange Unified School District. The Comanches also have an excellent Jazz band that's available for local functions, according to Richard Atkins.



Under the direction of Bruce Burns, the Band has performed in Hawaii, Santa Maria, Riverside, and many other areas in Southern California. In Hawaii the entertainment unit received over 14 awards includes five first places.

Leaders are Chris McCann, (Drum Major,) Mike McKay & Laurie Rau, Asst. Drum Majors, Kelly Barber, Flag Captain, Kim Brown, Flag Lt., Michelle Papaz, Drill Team Captain, Amy Vidmar, Drill Team Lt., Steve Tanka, Rifle Captain, and Charlene Lou, Banner Captain.

If you happened to see a person as flexible as a rubber band, yet as sharp as a blade, you were probably watching a Canyon High School Drill Team member. Under the leadership of Captain Michelle Papez, and First Lieutenant, Amy Vidmar, the squad was known for its performances at home football games. The squad members were hardworking, practicing at 6:30, performing at assemblies, marching in parades, and competing at various competitions.

Not only did the Drill Team dazzle everybody with its performances, but it was also awarded recognition by many onlookers. Their rountines demonstrated the skill and showmanship of all members. The Spring Show was a grand finale to a successful year.

Fans cheer drill team at a pep assembly, as they do another crisp routine! Performing at another home game, drill team raises our Comanche pride! Having performed many times during the year, and especially well at the Winter concert, Canyon's choir proved to be a consistent part of Canyon High School in 1985-1986. The large group, through diligent practice, showed as much pride as any group on campus. They awed their audiences with their well-rehearsed routines which they created themselves with the help of their advisor, Mr. Brown.

The JAZZ BAND is one of the best Canyon has ever had. They have performed for many events including Open House, Holiday Concert, Spaghetti Dinner, and Festivals. Dr. Fox praised the band and said that they had a "tight sound." The band is directed by Bruce with assistance from Wendel Kelly.

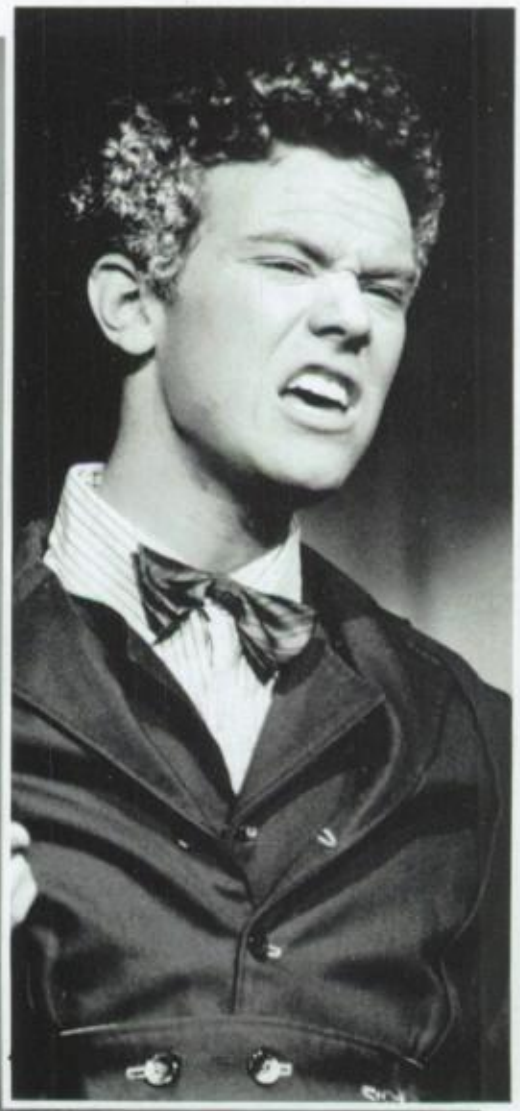
On November twentieth through the twenty third, Canyon's Theatre Arts department presented The Matchmaker, by Thorton Wilder. The story centered around Horace Vandergelder, who is a merchant from Yonkers New York . Vandergelder decides to marry so he hires a matchmaker to find him a wife. Dolly Levi is the matchmaker, who also happens to be an old friend of Vandergelders family. Dolly is actually after Vandergelder for herself. The matchmaker gets herself stuck in repeated hilarious mishaps, in her false quest to find him a wife. Throughout her escapades she involves a hat shop owner, Vandergelders niece, and his clerks, along with numerous other sundry characters. In the end the matchmakers marries the merchant, and the play ends on a happy note.

Many memories were during rehearsals for the matchmaker. The actual production night created an incredible feeling of energy known only to the cast and crew. Some memories will be saved on the flats which are filled with graffiti. Some memories can not be put on paper, but we know and we will remember. Remember when Scotty missed his cue? Which time? He was always missing cues. Minnie Fay's laugh and Ermengardes crying still echoes in the cafeteria. Joy would you remember your lines! She is some performance actress because by dress rehearsal they were perfect. Remember Wendy's hysteria with the red custume? Our tech people really worked hard. The cans exploded just on time; right into the audience, and everywhere else they could possibly go!

Wendy Katzenstein as Dolly gives one of her famous laughs. "But Mrs. Molloy There's a man!" — Julie Wright and Laura Orlow. "Most of the people in this world are fools!" — Anthony Heric as Vandergelder. Norene "Weenie" Hansen (Student Director) suffers mass confusion during a set change.



Cornelius (Scotty Kelley) takes cover from Vandergelder behind Barnaby (Bill Kallay). Barnaby looks "just a little surprised." Ermengarde (Julie Preston) pours her heart out to Gertrude (Stephanie Douglas), who is so deaf and blind that she probably won't be able to help anyway!

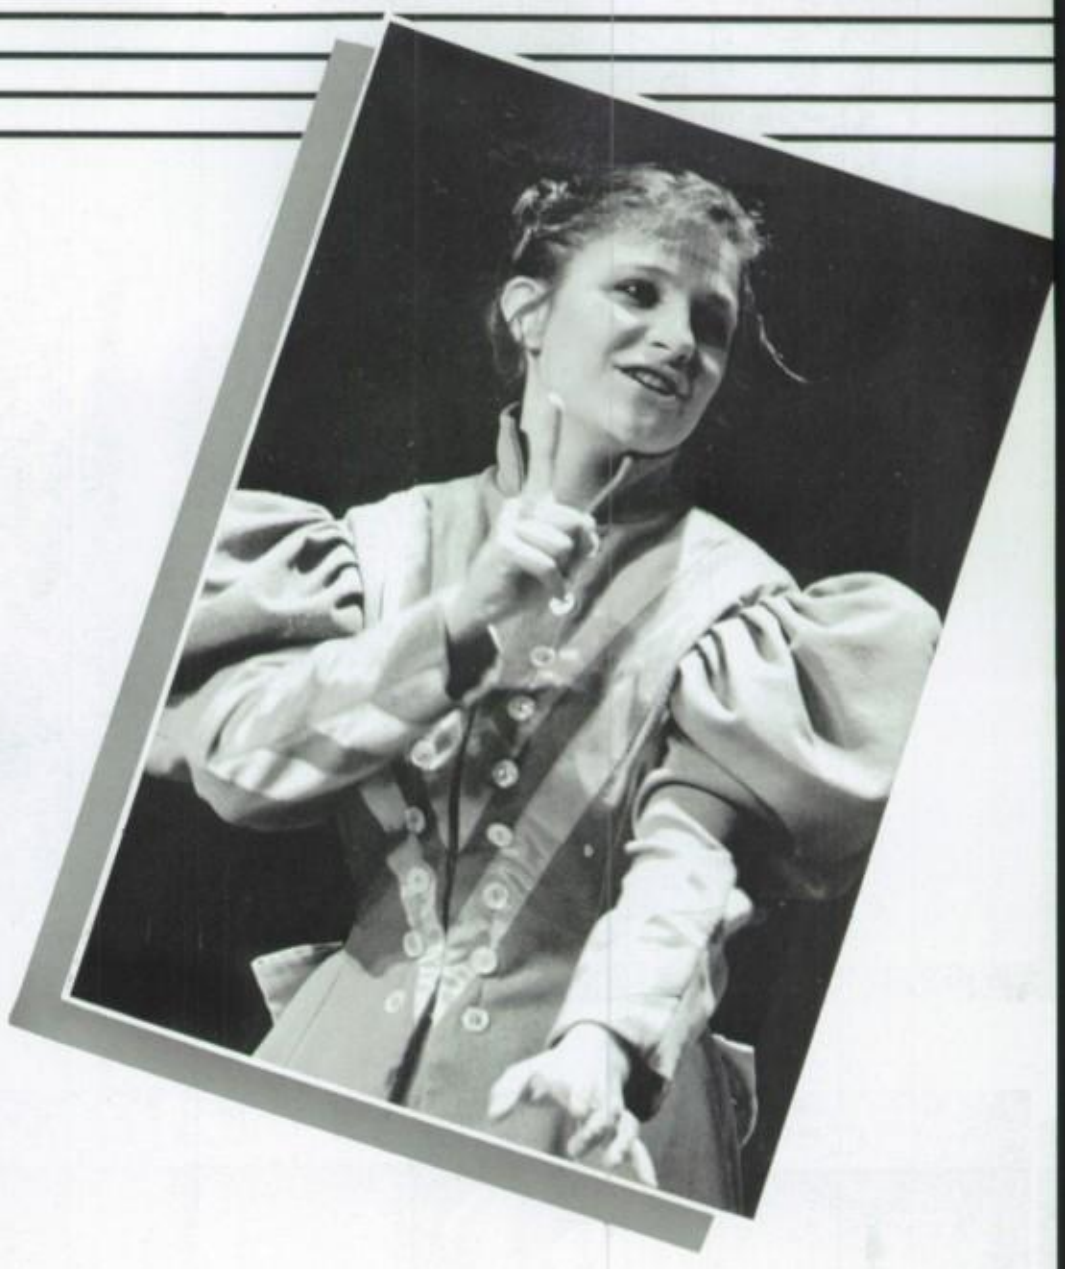
Special thanks goes to our great director (and friend) Mrs. Prothero. Her time spent, and her dedication to us is greatly appreciated. Her ability to put up with our craziness is incredible! We love you Proth!

The outcome of our performances was great. All the hard work paid off in the end. It was great to be part of it all.

To the cast and crew of the Matchmaker, thank you; for the memories, and the friendship. We did it ... together.



Dolly Levi once again shows exactly who's boss! Wendy Katzenstein enjoying being Dolly. Mrs. Molloy and Cornelius are oblivious to Barnaby who is about to freak out!.

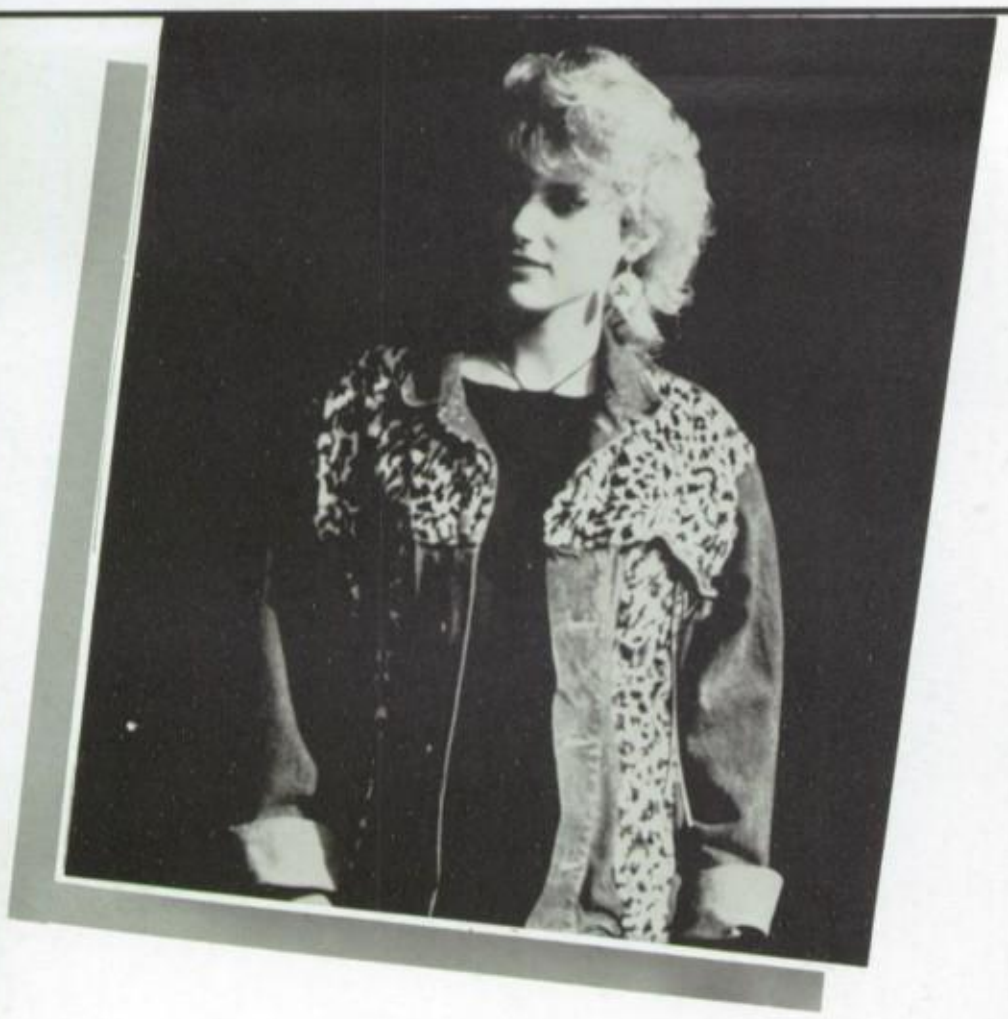
Fright Night



The Advanced Drama Class at Canyon is like no other class on campus. Obviously it is not like a math or science course, but it is different from even the Drama I classes offered. The majority of the students enrolled in Advanced Drama are friends, and the majority of these people are also very talented actors and actresses. These two factors are what makes the class very interesting. Sometimes major conflicts occur, and problems that happen outside the classroom seem to leak inside. Despite the bad things, The Advanced Drama students always come through with outstanding performances.

The majority of these outstanding performances come in the semester projects. First semester of this year Advanced Drama presented FRIGHT NIGHT — An evening of murder and suspense. It was three short plays: Sorry Wrong Number, Ashes to Ashes, and Rehearsal for Murder. Near the end of rehearsals the outcome seemed dreary, but for some unknown reason, the casts pulled it off with incredible success. Perhaps it was a little help from the Thespian God, but most likely it was sheer talent.

Canyon High's spring show was the hilarious production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner," a story about a small town family, the Stanley's. This family received the privilage of having dinner with a big-time radio announcer, Sheridan Whiteside (Dave Galloway). Mr. Whiteside, however, did not share the Stanley's enthusiasm and soon this feeling became mutual. Mr. Whiteside, his secretary Maggie (Joy Harryman) and her new love Bert (Dave Erhlich) turned the town of Mesalia into a playground for movie stars (Lisa Prange and Steve Lieberman), mad scientists (Christine Parks) and even penguins. Wendy Katzenstein, student director, along with Tony Heric and Laura Orlow, as assistant student directors organized the cast for after school rehersals backstage building. Saturday tech days were led by Mike Trammel, Technical director. "The Man Who Came to Dinner" was definitely one of the most successful plays in Canyon's history.

The Canyon High School Key Club has soared to excellence, becoming the strongest club at Canyon, and one of the strongest clubs in the Cali-Nev-Ha International District. This year, under the leadership of president Steve Chough, the club has continued to strive for school and community improvement. With over 100 members, the club has been able to under take numerous services projects which directly benefit the school and community. Some of the many projects and fundraisers have included the Key Club Calender; work with a home for abused children; work at a local food bank; a blood drive for the Red Cross; jump for heart for the American Heart Association; as well as the numerous school improvement painting projects the club has been involved in. In a memorable year, service , friendship and fun, has made Key Club members proud to be part of the most active club on campus.

Classes That Pay Off

Over a year ago, the Orange Unified Board of Education passed a resolution authorizing the Regional Occupational Program (ROP) to conduct and sponsor a vocational "Career Day" on each of the district's four high school campuses. The express purpose of the fair was to inform students, faculty and parents of the vocational courses available as part of the elective curriculum being offered by the school district.

The ROP program is a vocational training course for juniors/seniors and adults that provides a unique learning experience by utilizing community as its classroom. Students learn specific entry-level job skills through on-the-job-training in banks, hospitals, stores, specialty shops and other industries. Students of all abilites and experience levels — beginnings and advanced earn certification, grades and credits for graduation while learning skills for employment careers.

What is Journalism, you ask? It is the collecting, writing, editing, and publishing of news in periodicals. But really, it is so much more. Journalism is also the people behind the news. A staff of people who work together to meet deadlines, seek out new information and put together a paper that is interesting and fun to read. It is a lot of fun working on the paper but there are many hassels. Copy gets lost, pictures don't get taken, and deadlines are missed. But somehow, under the extraordinary guidance of their advisor, Suzy Hopkins—better known to us as Hoppy, the paper always gets out on time. It is then that they are able to sit back and take a deep breath, waiting to plunge into the next issue. Now as the year comes to a close, they look back and realize what a challenging and rewarding experience Journalism was. The staff of the Smoke Signals hopes you had as much fun reading the paper as they had writing it!

Steve Chough, Tanya Vince and Leslie Cox work on layouts for the paper.

Rulers, copyfitters, picture cropers, grease pencils, roughing-it layouts, final layouts. What do all these things have in common? They are all a necessity in putting together a yearbook. But what about the most important part, the people. It takes a group of conscientious, responsible, and caring people to put together a yearbook. The majority of this year's Legend staff was inexperienced, and not all together, causing little things to become big problems at the beginning of the year. But as the year progressed, those big problems seemed to shrink down to size as the staff began to learn the trade.

Putting together a yearbook is far from being an easy task. Many hours of painstaking time go into graphic art, copy, layout design and all the little details that must be made on each page before they are sent to the publisher. Just look at the yearbooks of today and compare them with a yearbook of the 50's or 60's. They have really come a long way in the way of telling who's who.

The United States Air Force Junior ROTC is a program in which high school students come acquainted with the aerospace age, are developed into informed citizens and become stronger in character. The AFROTC is, basically, another academic class. Courses of study include aeronautics, aerodynamics, navigation, history and theory of flight, leadership as well as many other subjects. Cadets in this program apply their leadership skills in various command positions. While cadets are learning they are also earning credits toward high graduation. These cadets also take trips to military installations, as well as flying in various types of military aircraft. This gives them a chance to get a realistic look at military life and possible career fields. The junior ROTC program is offered at El Dorado High School, and students from all over Orange County will participate in it. Some will enlist in military service high school, some will receive ROTC scholarships and academy appointments, and others will persue careers in civilian fields. No matter what, the AFROTC is full of valuable experience and training for valuable experience and training for anyone — particularly if he or she is interested in a military career.

Mat Maids are a very dedicated, and hardworking group of girls who support the Canyon Wrestling team. Mat Maids run the home tournaments: taking stats, keeping score, running time clocks, and working consession stands. They also spend many long hours traveling to away tournaments to take stats and cheer on our team.

Being a Mat Maid is a very rewarding experience because even with all of the responsibilities, there is still time to make friends and have fun. The main

The Metals Program at Canyon is a course designed to provide experience in several different areas such as layout work, machining of metals,and various procedures used in the industry.

Students are required to make several useful projects, involving the use of all the tools in the shop. After students have been in class for the semester they may construct any project of their choice. Such as, engine stands, dune buggies, go karts, weight machines and many other things.

When the metals Students complete the metals program he or she has a good knowledge of several welding and machining procedures which will be of great benefit.

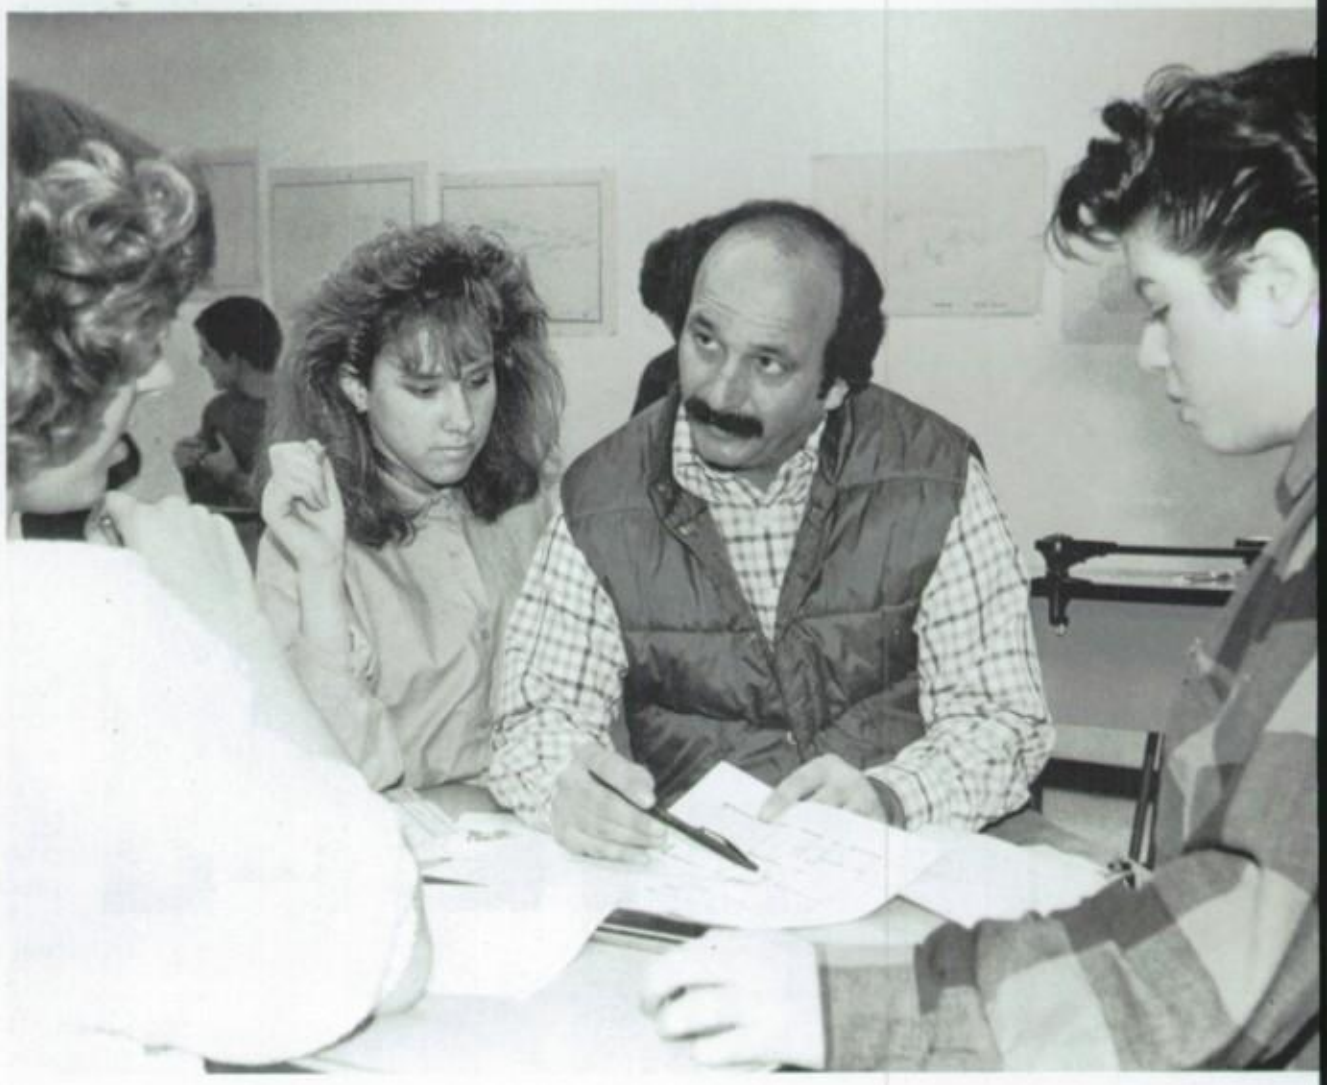
Eng.+ Arch = Drafting

Drafting begins with engineering drawing at Canyon High School. Students become familiar with multi view drawing and dimensioning practices which parallel the standards used in industry. At Canyon students drafting background allows him/her the option of persuing a job in industry; entering a technical school, or community college drafting program or do what many of our students do which is enter a four year institution such as the Cal Poly schools or the Cal State College in a concentrated engineering program.



Canyon also has fine architecture program which is a fine option to second year drafting students. Those students in architectural drafting learn elements of basic house design, construction, and material usage. Students present their designs with professional level drawing. In past years Canyon's architectural students have won awards for their designs and presentations.

Ed Ernst has developed one of the most challenging and successful woodworking programs in Orange County. Ed has structured his program at Canyon around a strict discipline. The goals that he sets for his students are challenging, to say the least. Their finished projects include such things as grandfather clocks, china hutches and even roll top desks.

The sole motivation factor is just to be recognized for doing something good something above and beyond the normal. The quality of craftsmanship here is unsurpassed due to the hours of painstaking detail put into every piece of furniture. But with all the technical skills you possess, you will fail if you can't get excited and love your work.

Ed encourages not only a high level of participation from his students, but from the parents as well. With many of the projects, each student commits himself to a great deal of time and a lot of hard work. Parents can come in to pick out the kind of antique hardware they want or they are sent to various glass shops and clock stores to select specific clock movements a dial face or beveled glass for the doors. In this way, the parents feel a part of the project. It may take $200 to $300 to complete a project but the rewards turn out to be much higher than the costs. Ed sees it as an experience in which each participant gains. "It's a total community thing. It's a thing I can't do myself. I need students.

It's a give and take kind of thing a situation in which everyone suceeds. The kids really love what they do. And the parents always seem Flabbergasted when the kids bring the projects home.

The Club Carnival is an annual project put on by the commissioner of clubs. This year's commissioner of clubs, Chris Jeppson did an outstanding job. The purpose of the carnival is to increase awareness of the clubs on campus. To add fun and excitement to the day, there was popcorn, snowcones, and cotton candy at the extended lunch. The ASB cabinet members worked the food stands and many were covered in cotton candy. The purpose of the carnival was fulfilled in that many of the clubs had an increase numbers of prospective members. Besides this aspect of the carnival, it was lots of fun!!!

International Banquet

Canyon's yearly International Dinner, sponsored by the Foreign Language Clubs and ASB, was again a great success. Students and parents savored exotic dishes, like German Bratwurst, grilled Enchiladas and Oriental Seafood. All these were enjoyed while listening to a Mexican Mariachi Band, swaying with Canyon Can Can dancers or singing along with the German "Schnitzel-Bankers." The Boehrer sisters looked great in their feathered costumes leading all in the chicken dance. The evening was brought to a great finale with the presentation of the colorful Asian Dancers. It was a fun evening. If you missed it, plan for next year.

FOCUS

The School — the Community and the World

A lot can happen in a year. For that matter a lot can happen in just a day. Many of these happenings may be trivial; others may be historically important — but they combine to give each period it's own character, a mood that is too easily forgotten with time.

Focus, A-Z, attempts to capture some of the people, places and things that are unique to this year or this school, so that years from now people can look back through these pages and say, "I remember . . ."

ALL-STAR CODE

Duty, honor, country: Those three hallowed words reverently dictate what you ought to be, what you can be, what you will be. They are your rallying point to build courage when courage seems to fail, to regain faith, to create hope when hope becomes forlorn.

The unbelievers will say they are but words, but a slogan, but a flamboyant phrase. Every pedant, every demagogue, every cynic, every hypocrite, every troublemaker, will try to downgrade them even to the extent of mockery and ridicule.

But these are some of the things they do. They build your basic character. They mold you for your future roles as the custodians of our Nation. They make you strong enough to face yourself when you are afraid. They teach you to be proud and unbending in honest failure, but humble and gentle in success; not to substitute words for actions, not to seek the path of comfort, but to face the stress and spur of difficulty and challenge; to learn to stand up in the storm, but to have compassion on those who fail; to master yourself before you seek to master others; to have a heart that is clean, a goal that is high; to learn to laugh, yet never forget how to weep; to reach into the future, yet never neglect the past; to be serious, yet never to take yourself too seriously; to be modest so that you will remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength.

They give you a temperate will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions, a freshness of the deep springs of life, a tempermental predominance of courage over timidity, of an appetite for adventure over love of ease.

They create in your heart the sense of wonder, the unfailing hope of what next, and the joy and inspiration of life. They teach you in this way to be an effective and responsible man or woman. Excerpt from the address of General Douglas MacArthur.

The All Star weekend wasn't just for students only. 66 of Canyon's teachers, counselors, and administration gave up at least part of their time to participate in the two full day and one night program. The dedicated souls who gave up their time and entire weekend and even braved the fairly sleepless night on the

Our popular photo teacher had planned to put in only part of Saturday, but he got so caught up and involved in what was happening, that he decided to go home and get his sleeping bag and stayed to the very end of the program on Sunday evening. "I'm glad I did it," he said, "it was a neat way of breaking down the barrier between us and find that we are all real human beings with feelings and needs."

ASB

To ASB or not to ASB that is the question.

If you are the complete loner type who doesn't attend any kind of school functions such as football games, other sport events or dances, you might want to save $12.00 to buy the Bay City Rollers Greatest Hits. Although the ASB card does make for a slight financial hardship at a time when you are also getting hit up for the cost of a yearbook, parking stickers, new gym clothes and class pictures, the extra 12 dollars is well worth it. All home sports events are yours at no cost and as Frank Everett says, "being able to witness the sure dominance and grace of this years championship football squad, that alone is worth far more than the mere purchase price of an ASB card." He does go on to admit "that our 6 time league championship wrestling team, our undisputed baseball team and our exciting basketball squad are worth watching too!! The dances in the gym, he's less enthusiastic about "the swell dances in our lovely cafeteria to the playing of fabulous out of date records." He suggests "that the sounds of BOB MARLEY, STEEL PULSE and PETER TOSH would definitely make for a more enjoyable evening" Well, it's hard to please everyone and 1,296 students did end up purchasing the little piece of plastic called an ASB card. "But (another direct quote from fabulous Frank) if you want to make something out of your dull and dreary life style, buy the card and watch, instantly as your popularity increases dramatically." Thanks Frank, you really are the greatest.

Bleacher Creatures

A new organization was formed this year at Canyon High! A spirit filledgroup calling themselves the Bleacher Creatures. Like other spirit groups, these students joined together to up the motivation of our Canyon Basketball and Wrestling competitors, led by Brett Hatz and Todd French. This group could be seen filling up the bleachers and all Canyon homegames. More successful than expected, the Bleacher Creatures are sure to continue through years to come.

Busing

The ever rising cost of education hits home. The school bus has always been built in, free of charge, service provided by the school district. This year, however, all that changed and it now costs a family $110.00 per student for the yearly ride on the big yellow bus. A reduced fee is offered to families who qualify under low income earning. Still, it came as a big shock to a lot of households who just took the free ride to and from school for granted. District buses travel approximately 800,000 miles a year in the transport of 4,000 students.

Clocks

CLOCKS TELL TIME?

Complication after complication left the student body as well as teachers wondering, "What time is it?" The clock man just couldn't seem to get it right. The school purchased a new digital clock system, but hooking it up to the old manual system just didn't crack it. Maybe we'd go four days with the correct time, but even that was pushing it. At least we can all be thankful those bells were in good working order.

Class

Competition

Class Competitions

Class Competitions are definitely the highlight of every assembly! Whether it be cheering for your class or competing in a relay race. This year a new team was added to the competition, the teachers. All four teams, seniors, juniors, sophomores and teachers alike tried to out yell one another. But as tradition has it, seniors always take first.

Concrete

Emerson and Thoreau wouldn't have liked to but then the grass at CHS has never reminded you of your own lush front yard anyway. So now you see it — now you don't — as one more area gets concreted over. Oh well, the one little tree that was there really wasn't making it anyway and the lunch cage crowd did need more moseying space. Ok, so why couldn't we also get some cement benches to make the place into a friendlier area?

DEI

Exchange Students

Every year Canyon High welcomes exchange students from all over the world come to visit our campus.

This year four students from places like Germany, Norway, Panama and Spain visited us. From what they told us they loved experiencing our western way of life. Not only do these students learn from us, but what is so great about this program is everybody learns, makes new friends and becomes just that much more knowledgable of other cultures.

Elizabeth Munoz, from Panama seems to enjoy school at Canyon, as in Panama she had to take 12 subjects at a time. In Panama, one has to choose their career in the 9th grade and the classes one takes in high school must pertain to that career choice. When Elizabeth came here she had already earned her degree in Science and for that reason she selected easy classes in order to make her stay more enjoyable.

Unlike Elizabeth, Kjartan Blumensaadt, (KJ), from Norway can not choose the classes he wishes to take, but, he says the best thing about Norwegian school is you can start when you're 7 and you go for just nine years. KJ is involved in many sports including soccer, skiing, and track.

Soccer and track are the biggest sports in Norway but there are no after school activities like in the U.S. Everything is private and takes place at night. Raul Gonzalez comes from Spain where soccer is also the most popular sport along with skiing. Raul really likes school at Canyon and has many friends. In Spain there is no age limit for drinking so bar hopping is popular among young kids.

In Germany, Stephanie Hundertmalke tells us how different her native culture is from ours. Celle, West Germany, is where she is from exactly. Here they have a different schedule each day so they can cover more subjects. They also have 3 different levels of high school according to your ability. Stephanie says, "Being an exchange student is the greatest experience because you get to know another culture not just from the outside like a tourist, but from the inside and you don't just see, you begin to understand what first seemed unusual or illogical. And in my opinion that is the greatest thing to know.

F

Fielders

The Fielders

With no place to go. Before, during and after school the upper baseball field used to be the hangout place for a large number of Canyonites. No more though. The new administration made that area, definitely an off limits place. As you can see this crowd isn't too happy with that decision.

4th period. Hunger has become an acute condition of discomfort. Canyon is a closed campus, so Carls Jr. is out of question (or is it) and your lunch bag (if you are lucky enough to have a mom that fixes you one) was emptied at nutrition. So where do you get fast food, fast? Why the cage of course. Where the a la carte items ranged from pizza bread, sandwiches, taco snacks to dessert and soft drinks. The cost of this delicious nutritious and nourishing meal is about 1.50. All kidding aside, the CHS cafeteria sells more food than Orange, Elmo of V.P.

Hall Passes

Hall Passes

Don't go anywhere without your pass. Joan, Mary or Lyn may be around the corner ready to hand you your next Saturday Work Study. It doesn't matter if you have permission from your teacher and forgot the pass, rules are rules. Dr. Fox made that clear to the student body. With the necessity of every teacher having some sort of hall pass, every kind was possible. From ear phones to crutches ingenuity and originality was evident all over the campus.

Life Line

LIFELINE ALIAS SAD

This year with the help from Mrs. Connell and a few of Canyons caring students a new program was started called Lifeline. Lifeline is run by two different students each week that dedicated their Friday and Saturday nights from ten till two with Mrs. Connell in her classroom waiting for students to call. Lifeline allows students who have been drinking at a social event to get a safe ride home. It's a really good cause that is out to do something about the #1 cause of teenage death — drunk driving.

It's Monday — "I'm Alive"

Monday thru Friday
We slave in the sun,
So that on Friday
We can have some fun.
The 4.0 kids watch Miami Vice,
While the popular kids
Have Vodka on ice.
Popularity and drugs
They do go together.
Whether it's L.A. or Miami,
It doesn't change for the weather
It's 1:00 am, and you've got to get home
But don't be un Cool,
Don't use the phone.
So you climb in your car
And say "I'm alright"
Because chances are,
You'll make it home tonight.
But what if you don't?
What if you die?
Your friends will say,
"He was so nice,
And such a popular guy"
For a week girls cry,
For a month we remember.
But you'll be forgotten,
Come next September!
So take the chance,
So be un Cool.
Call your parents,
Don't be a fool.
You might get yelled at
And have a hangover on Sunday
But at least you'll be "alive"
Come first period Monday!

The big spin, everybody wins. Drawing of lots in which prizes are distributed to the winners among persons buying a chance. The kickoff of the lottery was on October 3, 1985. The three forms of cards so far have been balloons, playing cards and nuggets. The cost is $1 and is sold everywhere. The total amount possible to win is 50.00 instantly. To date there has been a six million dollar winner. However, one must be 18 to purchase a ticket.

On January 31, the state controllers office began giving schools their initial gift of 272 million from state lottery proceeds. Each check mailed to school districts will get approximately 50.00 for each student.

Proficiency Tests

The Proficiency Tests consist of five different exams. The categories they fall into are: Reading, Mathematics, Composition, Grammar, and Science. The tests are given twice a year during school hours. If a student doesn't pass these tests, he will be put in a special class to learn the basic fundamentals of the certain subject he did not pass. If these tests are not passed by the time graduation arrives then the student will not receive his diploma.

Saturday Work Study

Have you found yourself at Larry lowlifes level this year? Many students have had to serve a Saturday detention. This Saturday is definitely not like the one in Breakfast Club. Each student may not talk or fall asleep. They are to do educational work the whole time. There are many reasons for getting a Saturday. The most popular is ditching. So the next time you feel like skipping 1st and getting breakfast at Christies think twice, stay home with hostess before school.

Seat Belts

SEAT BELT LAW

With rising deaths from automobile accidents and the evidence of people who have survived because they were wearing their seatbelt a new seatbelt law went into effect in January of this year.

The govenment saw it imparative. Some people see it as not having freedom of choice, and others are thankful for the decision. I'm sure we'll all see a lower death rate in California. Not wearing your seatbelt can result in a $20.00 fine.

Space Shuttle

52 manned missions without a disaster in space. 25 years of reaching for the stars.

Not in 19 years, not in the lifetime of any high school students, had the space agency suffered a fatal accident since three Apollo astronauts perished in a 1967 launch pad fire. The miracle had become so routine, we had all watched those exalting early morning lift offs and ultra smooth landings so many times that they had, indeed, perhaps become routine.

Jan, 28, 73 seconds into the tenth flight of Challenger, the restrained familiar monotone voice of the NASA flight narrator responded to a quickly developing scene of horror in the form of the rocket having become a wild fireball streaking across what had been a perfectly serene blue sky. "Obviously a major malfunction"

So there it was, disaster in space, the fiery horror of failure. America, first to the moon would be left to grieve and deeply question plans and purposes.

Dead in one instant were: Christa McAuliffe, Ellison Onizuka, Michael J. Smith, Commander Francis (Dick) Scobee, Judith A. Resnik, Ronald E. McNair and Gregory Jarvis.

Special Olympics

Special Olympics

The mission of Special Olympics is to provide year-around sports training and athletic competition in a variety of well-coached Olympic-type sports for all mentally retarded children and adults giving them continuing opportunities, to develop physical fitness, express courage, experience joy, and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympians, and the community.

Special Olympics was created and developed to give retarded individuals the opportunity for training and competition through sports activities. No person shall on the grounds of sex, race, color or national origin be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of or otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity of Special Olympics.

Individual Events

Divisions shall consist of 3 to 8 competitors. At Chapter, Regional, National, and International Games, there will be no fewer than three competitors in any division. Place awards are given in each division.

Team Events

No division should have fewer than three teams except in extreme circumstances. At Chapter, Regional, National, and International Games, there will be no fewer than three teams in any division. Place awards shall be given for each division.

It is recommended that ribbons be given for all places first through eighth in Mini Meets, Local Meets and Area Games. When area medals are awarded, ribbons should be awarded for fourth through eighth place depending on the number of participants in the event.

All athletes must receive recognition for their participation in the form of an award.

There is a wide variety of ages in this program. Indv. 8&9, 10&11, 12&13, 14&15, 16&17, 18&19, 20 to 29, 30 & over. Age groups for team events shall consist of a senior age group, 16 & above, and a junior age group, 15 & under.

Special Olympics is a very heart-warming program, it contains sportsmanship of love, spirit, and participation for its own sake.

Speed Bumps

Sure. At the Orange Mall at drive in theatres and fast food places but in front of Canyon High School? You've got to be kidding. Well — if the love of your life came to pick you up at school the day after Winter vacation was over he or she was in for a real shock. — Literally — and we don't mean just your normal, average, slow down and take it easy variety of speed bump. We are talking the major industrial strength, stop you're dead in your tracks size.

So — was there a problem before? Who knows. Just be warned. These babies are real suspension killers. Even the teachers have complained.

Super Bowl

"We ain't here to cause no trouble we're just here to do the Super-Bowl Shuffle"

Over 150,000 fans watched the Super Bowl on television this year. Unfortunately, this was the most boring game in the history of 20 superbowls. The Chicago Bears trouncing the New England Patriots 46 to 10. Highlights of the game were the heroics of quarterback, Jim McMahon, William "The Refrigerator" Perry, and the outstanding defense of the entire Bears team. All of us will remember the playing of the video "Super Bowl Shuffle."

The Tube

Thursday Television Life without television? I mean anyone who's anyone, watches T.V.! Especially Thursday night! Thursday night is definitely #1 T.V. nigt and understandably with such shows on as "Cosby", "Family Ties", "Cheers", and "Night Court" which are rated in the #1-10 slots. We can't forget the Colby's on channel 7, one of night times hottest soaps. Competition is tough enough with such competitors as "Knots Landing," and "Hill Street Blues." Keep us watching networks!

Vandalism

Orange Unified School District Summary of Vandalism and Property Report
First Quarter 1985-1986

	Incidents	Cost
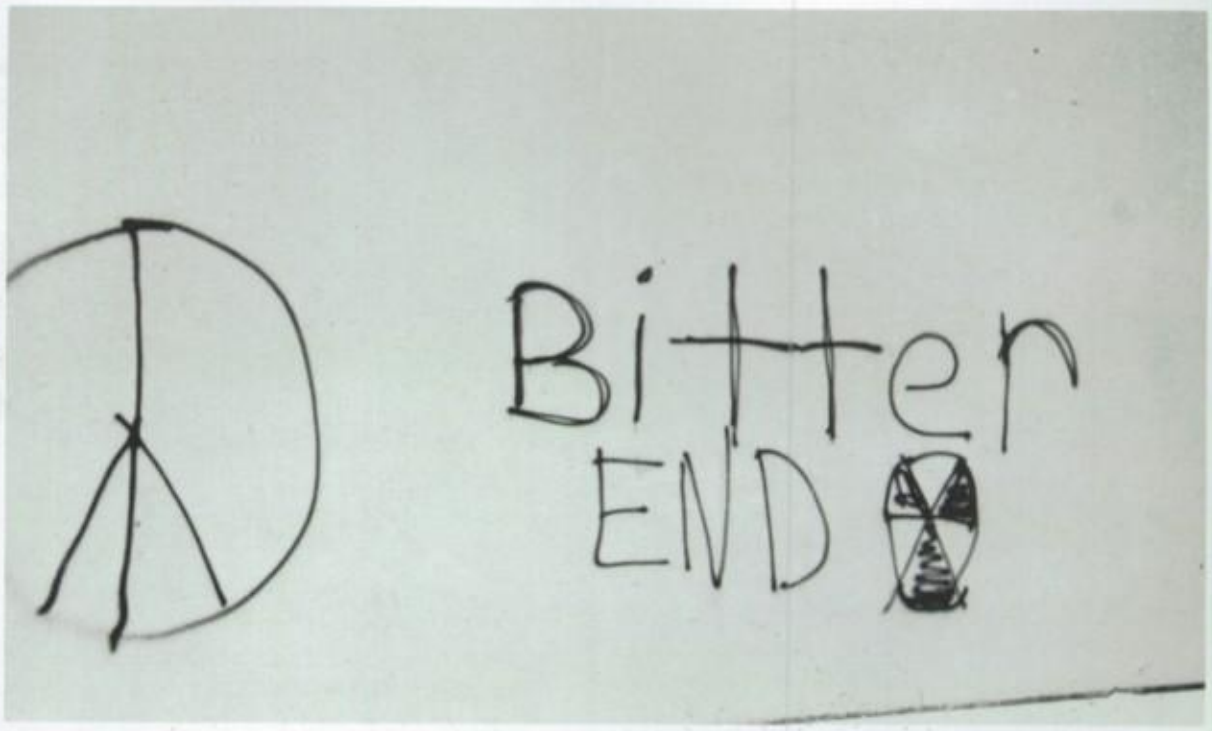
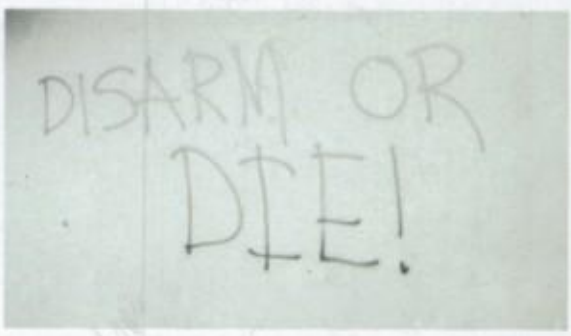
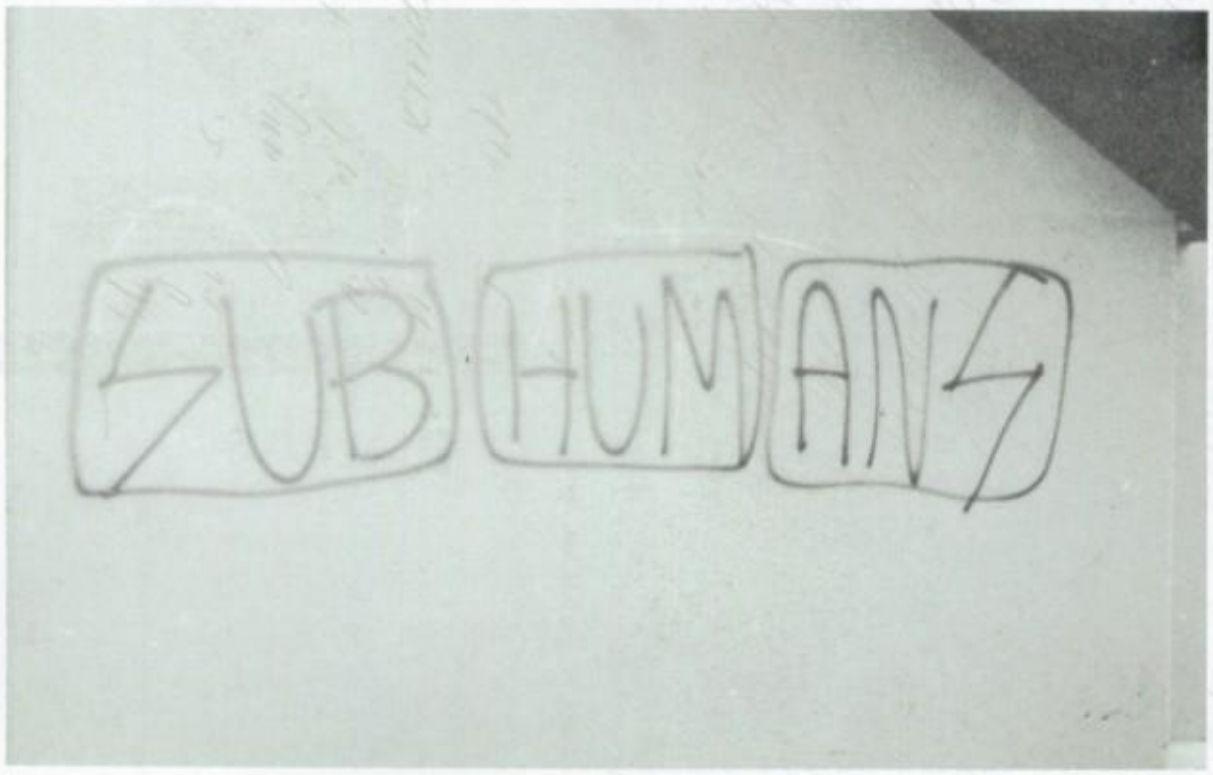
Burglary	2	$4,300
Theft	5	$218
Arson	0	$0
Vandalism	40	$5,909
Total First Quarter	47	$14,427

Almost 6 thousand dollars was spent by the district for vandalism alone in just ¼ of the school year. An incredible and stupid waste of public money. What provokes students to come and destroy our campus? Is it their frustrations being taken out on the place they hate the most or just plain the destructive expression of a deranged mind?





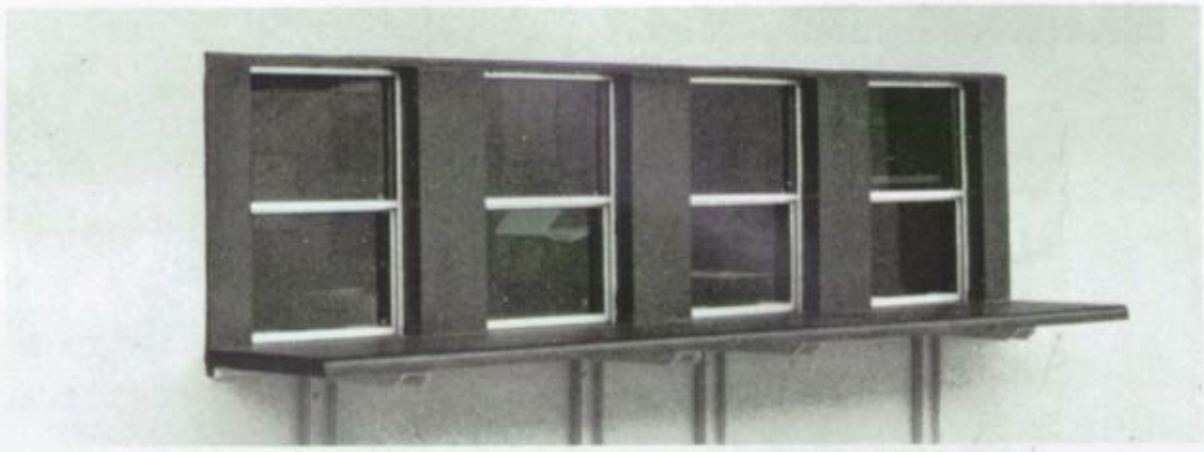


W

Weenies

Competition — It's a great thing. It helps you to do your best, to try harder than the next guy and sometimes it even gets you to overcome, seemingly, impossible odds. It can also get out of hand and become a very destructive element, especially when it becomes a group power — a mob.

Our wrestling team has seen the energy of each — and both. 6 league championships and 8 league tournament championships in the last 8 years with 13 qualifiers going to CIF this year. This season, though, the competition between Canyon and aid rivals, the VP weenies, also competing lost it. Besides tossed weenies, eggs, chicken necks and bags of mustard and even a large bottle of water were also thrown. Fights broke out in the stands and continued on in the VP parking lot. The whole event came to close to being called off altogether. — So who won? — We did 49-12 — but we also lost. For one year only parents of wrestlers, no students, will be allowed to attend this most important match of the wrestling season. Another condition of the suspension is, that it must be right after school, not in the evening. So you figure out how many parents are really going to be able to come?



Windows

The construction of the windows of the activities office were installed to assist the students in purchasing school supplies offered in the student store. The newly acquired windows also serve as a distribution of tickets to school functions, such as dances and sporting events.

All hail Canyon High School
The home of Comanches strong
From mountain to river
Sound echoes of our song
We rise to the test
With none but the best
As thine ideals prevail
With courage we greet
Every challenge we meet
Our loyalty shall never fail.

Graduation — for the majority of the class of 86 it's a day they always knew would someday come. 13 years of school, hundreds of books, thousands of tests, quizzes and homework assignments and what seems like at least a million days of getting up too early in the morning, and sometimes even at that, not making it to 1st period on time. For most students the learning, the doing and the participating wasn't all that hard. For others, it was a constant struggle. Some never made it at all, and suddenly, here, now, that big day has arrived. June 19, 1986, 12 PM, Kelly Stadium. The brown and the gold, for one last time, you wear those familiar colors. The robe and the cap, the mortar-board with it's tassel hung off to one side. How special it feels to have earned the right to wear them this day. One quick hour of ceremony speeches, the calling of each graduates name and the handing out of the diploma covers. How can it be? Suddenly the band plays the song you've proudly sung so many times before "All hail Canyon High School." — the end — an end — or just the real beginning?

The line of madch filled into Kelly Stadium.

A friendly hand helps to adjust the cap while waiting for parents to fill the stadium.

Diploma time — some make it and some don't — Guess who?

A familiar view at Kelly Stadium on a warm summer day in June.

Visions
Days of our Future Past

Thoughts, Dreams, Hopes — like seeds put into the ground. Aspirations, plans, wishes — bright, and seemingly far away, as a distant star.

Events — good times, tears winnings, and not quite making it. Falling, failing and being helped up again. Friendships, sharing, lost and repair

Moments — all here just a minute ago. Now already growing old. Spaces of time, the future becomming the present — being — and quickly passing away.

Memories — holding on, not letting go of yesterday too quickly.
Scraps of life. Glimpses backward. Valuables, treasures, keepsakes.

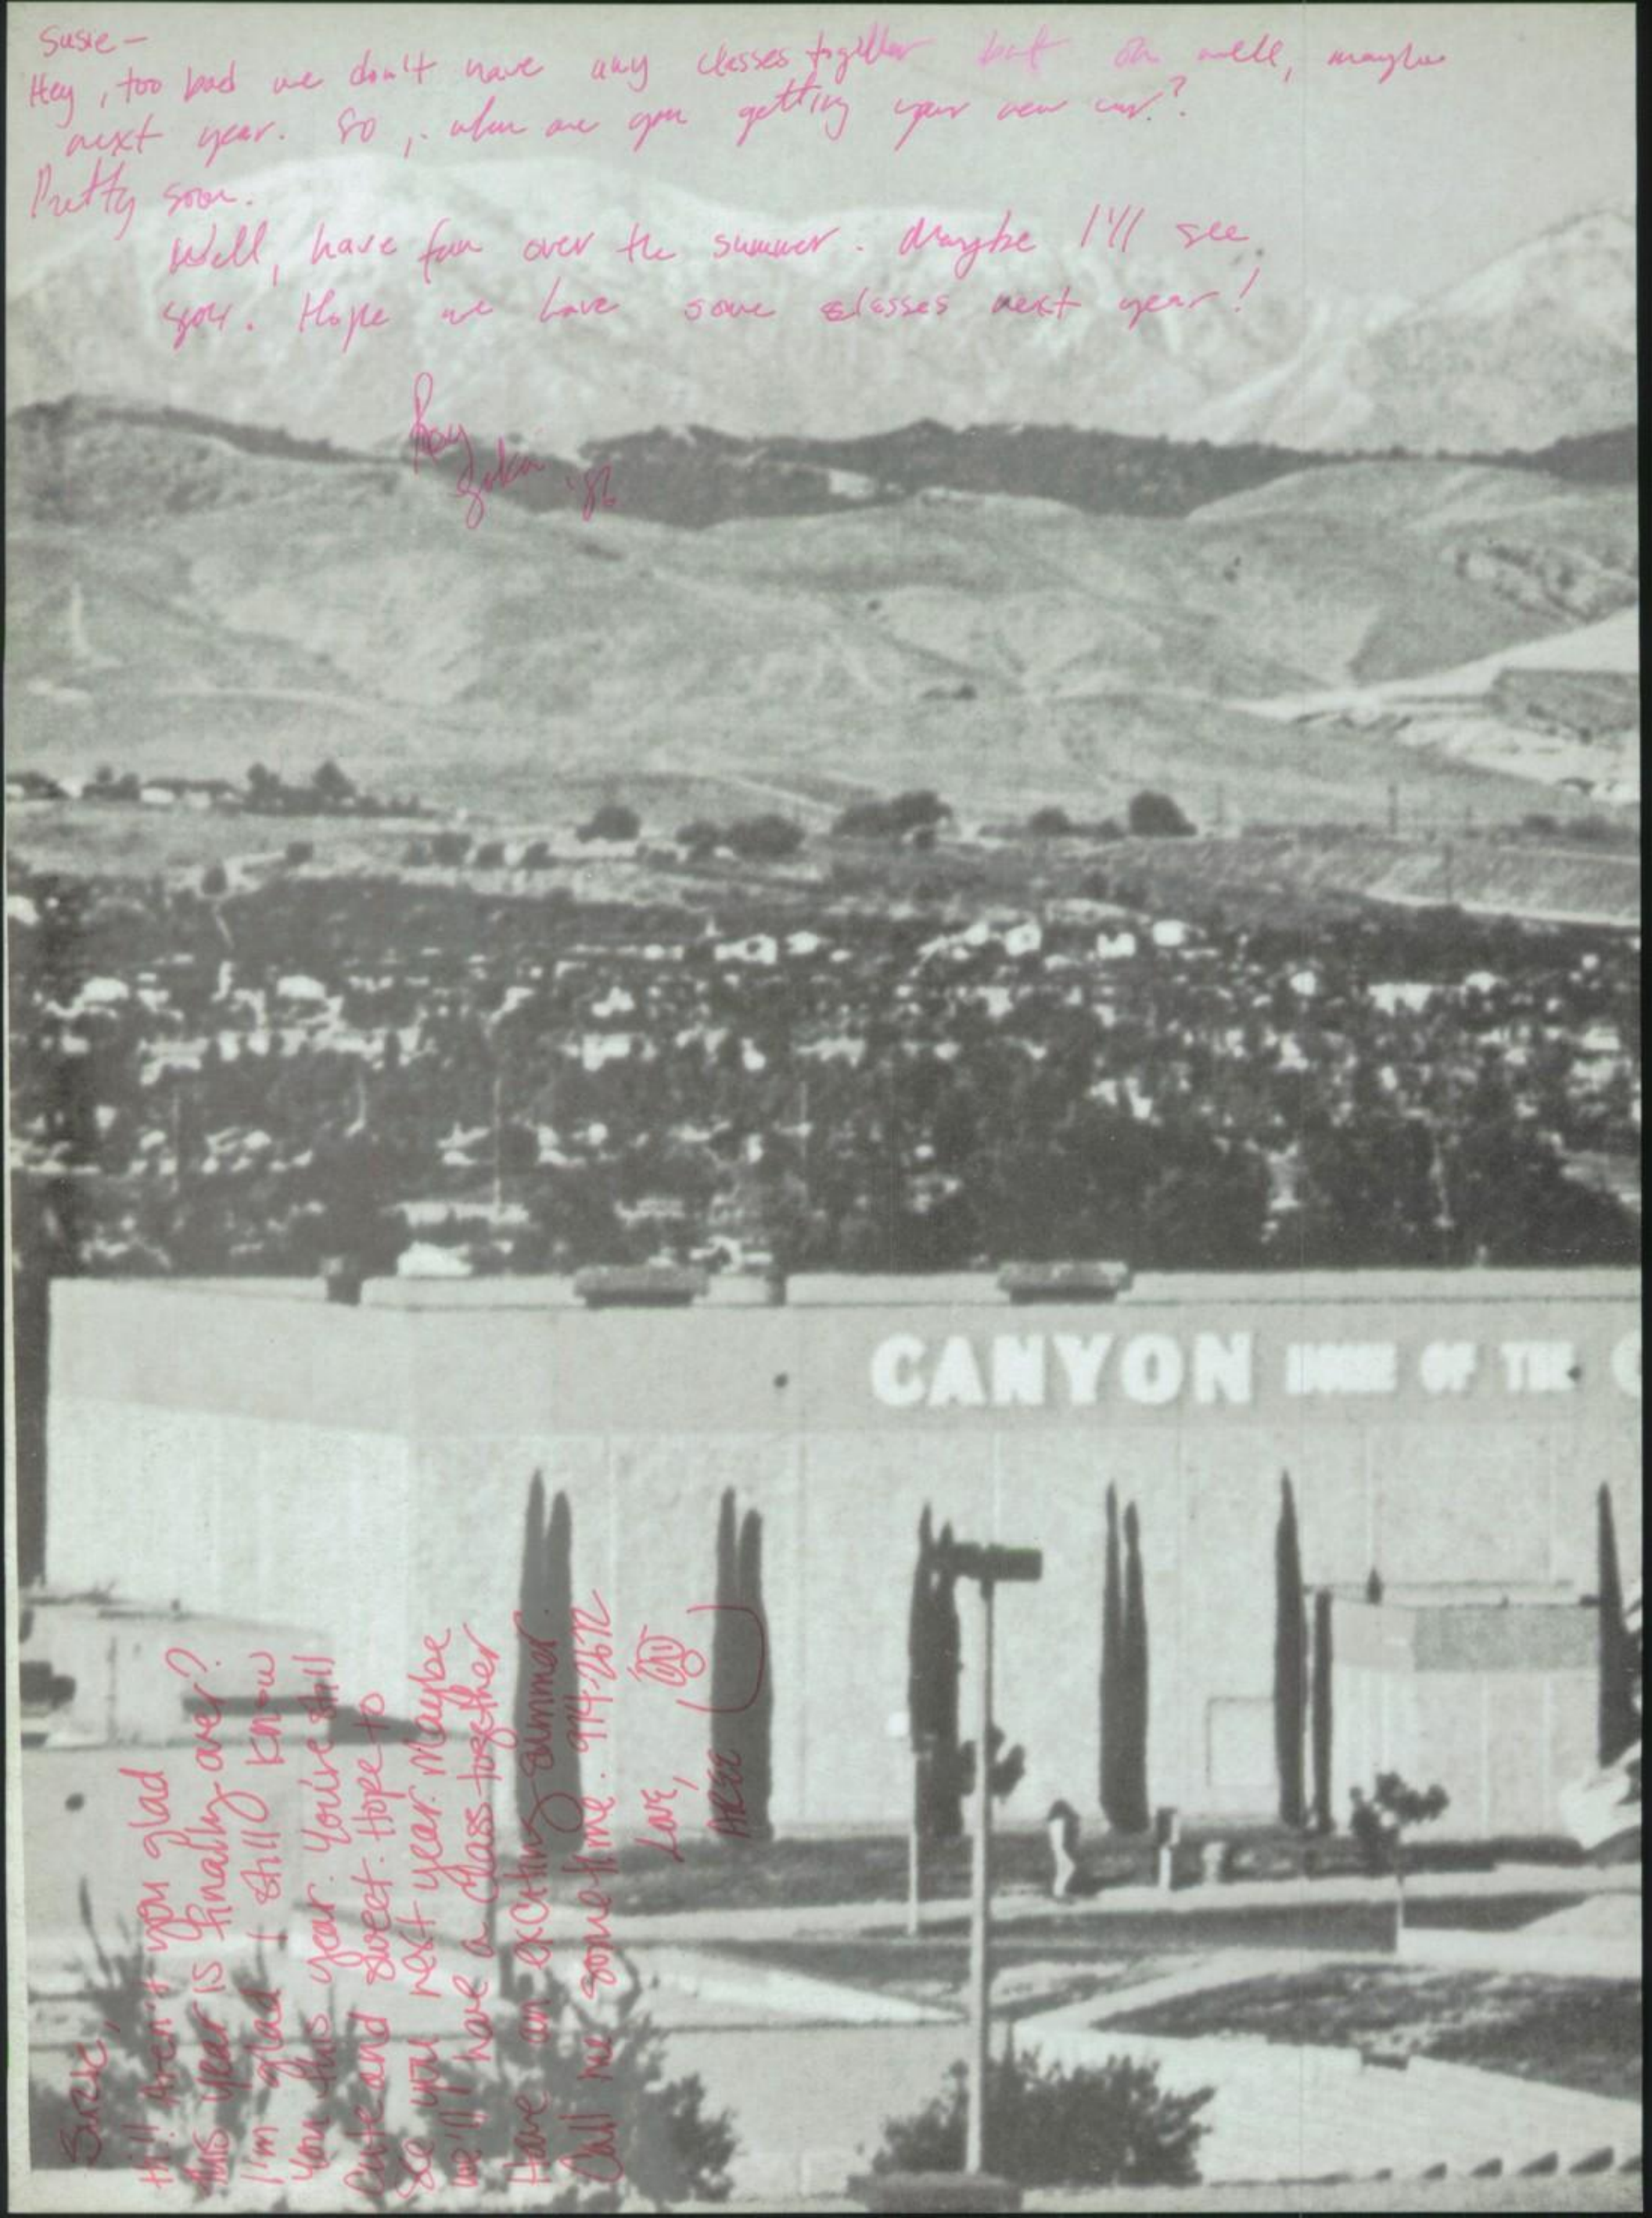
A yearbook for you, from us, the yearbook staff.

Have a great Summer Break and I hope the years ahead are filled with happiness and success. Love ya, Soozie — your really a pretty girl & just keep smiling!

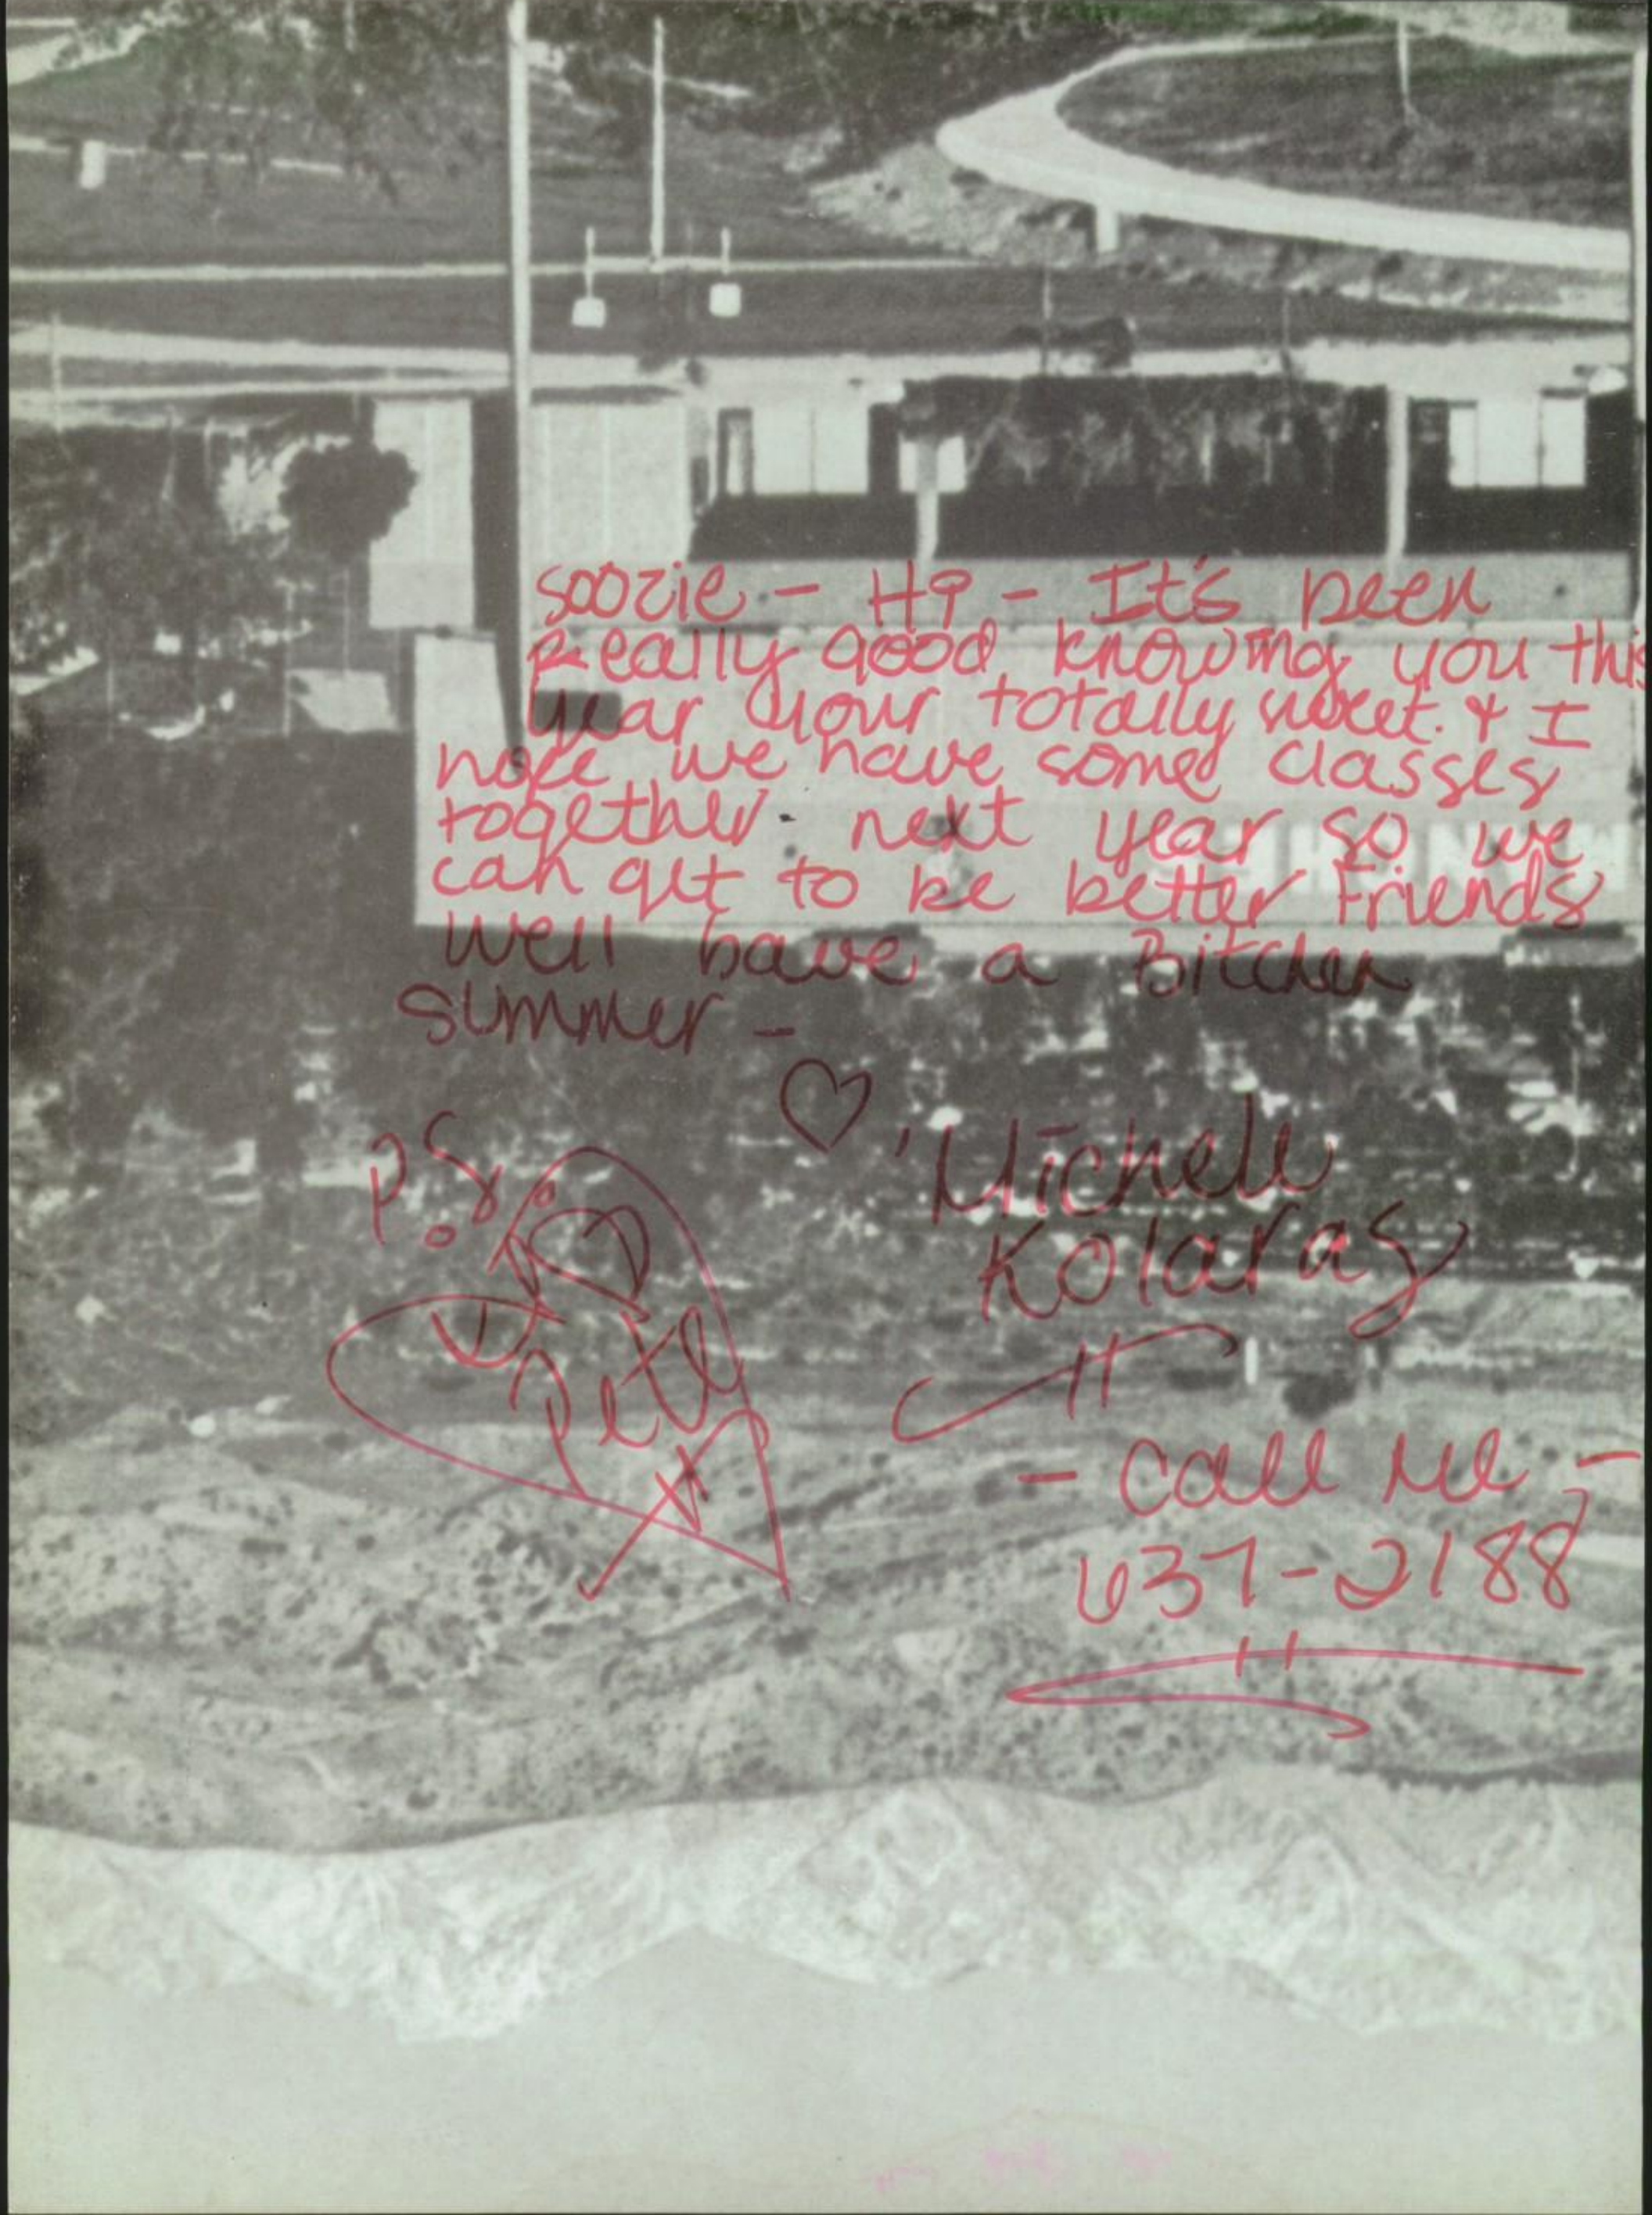
An all quiet Canyon High School sits at rest after having hundreds of students scramble back and forth all over its campus. It's hard to believe how a place can take so much abuse and still be standing. Hopefully it still will be so that the graduating seniors have a place to hold their 10 year and following reunions. Whether we liked it or not, being at Canyon has set a solid foundation of what we can and may do in the future.

Susie—
Hey, too bad we don't have any classes together but oh well, maybe next year. So, when are you getting your new car?
Pretty soon.
Well, have fun over the summer. Maybe I'll see you. Hope we have some classes next year!

Love,
Joy Zeller '82



Susie,
Hi! Aren't you glad this year is finally over? I'm glad I still know you this year. You're still cute and sweet. Hope to see you next year. Maybe we'll have a class together. Have an exciting summer. Call me sometime. 914-2672
Love,
Missie



soozie - Hi - It's been really good knowing you this year your totally sweet. & I hope we have some classes together next year so we can get to be better friends

Quote: Thanks Canyon for all the times SADD drove me home. By Dave Temple.

The senior class this year had to have been the best. No matter what happened this year you'd always find a senior on top of it (hey! get your mind out of the gutter!!) Seriously, we were hot at all of the pep assemblies, winning all of the golds, the only ones allowed to throw lower-classmates in trashcans, or have "Senior Only" parties, .oh yes and the senior only parking lot. How much fun did all the juniors and sophomores have walking everywhere or cramming in cars to get somewhere? Coming home if we felt like it, spending all niters in cars or parks, having "get-togethers" when the parents were out of town (leaving only a hole in the wall as evidence). Hey all you seniors will you ever forget all those football games, dances, all the bad things you did but didn't get caught for, the munchies, waking up the next morning with much regret, vaguely remembering the night before only to find out the horror of what really happened at all those raging parties (or did you already forget?) Through thick and thin and all the years it took to leave here on top, together. It's no wonder that Seniors are the Best, so '86 the rest!

Almost in Heaven With '87

The Juniors definitely have the spirit this year. They give the rest of the school some real competition in everything from pep assemblys to school activities. For being the middle class, not quite at the top (seniors) and not at the bottom (sophomores) they show a lot of participation, by their hard work and involvment in school. Junior's are in charge of the bulletin every morning, promoting junior spirit throughout the year, and most important the Junior-Senior Prom. This is the year to make the most of what you've got count. Most juniors have their hardest classes this year and are working towards their future and possible colleges. The class of 87' has really got it together! The juniors have got a lot of spirit and it shows!

Hey! Let's Celebrate With '88

Sophomore — Hard to spell but even harder to be. You spend the first seven years of your school life — slowly — working your way up from "show and tell" to long division and an actual speaking part in the big school play.

Then it's on to junior high. Your very own locker, more than one classroom, more than one teacher. Real contact sports, pep rallies and dances. 9th grade really feels like you've arrived, you've got it made! The water fountains are to low and your to tall to hide behind the bathroom stall doors. Girls have real shapes and guys (at least some of them) have real muscles.

Then comes high school. Great expectations — yeah — but that first day on the new campus leaves no doubt in your mind you are on the bottom again and starting over once more.

Picture 1. Sophomore secretary, Tami Darst walks back to class. Picture 2. Sophomore football players help root on the Varsity team to a victory. Picture 3. Time to vote for the sophomore class election. Picture 4. Hey look around this place — its so big! Picture 1. Sabrina La Combe stares off into space. Picture 2. Sophomore guys make their lunch break a lot of fun. Picture 3. Looky! says Mike Darling. Picture 4. Having fun and visiting at lunch is the best part about Canyon. Picture 5. Sophomore cheerleaders hold the spirit run through proudly.

Suzie,
Well I'm glad this year is finally over. I'm sick of school. I'm sure glad I met you when I was a sophomore. We had fun at times! But call me this summer & Love Ya

Do you know who this handsome guy is? His Name is Michael Alan Robbins. He is a new student at Canyon High School were he is a senior. Michael says he is looking forward to graduation, but he is not sure what he wants to do in the future.

The Sophomore Orange County Academic Decathlon team captured 12th place in the county out of 44 participating schools. Angie Mooney placed 1st in the county in English and Raju Date finished 2nd overall in the alternate competition.

Hold on to the Moment

Ooooh baby! I'm kidding.

Single file and yet together,
We have shared our greatest days,
And we carry common memories
in many different ways.
Though we don't know
Where we are going,
We will cherish where we've been.

I want to cry
I want to shout.
Want to let this feeling out.

Hold on to the moment
Let the feelings show
Hold on to the moment
Never let it go.
I can picture us together
With my arms around my friends.
Just let me hold on to this moment,
Before it ends.
There was laughter,
There were tears,
Through the dozen golden years.

"It's Time to Relax"

DONT DO. IT!
WHEN YOU GOTTA GUM!
HUH!

Hey, Suz. it's been a great year. a lot has happened since grad we had history together. I hope we have some classes together N next year. Love ya
